CROWD OF BOYS NEARLY DROWNED

Upset From a Skiff in the River in the Midst of a Storm.

MANAGED TO SWIM ASHORE

But One of Them the Worse For Their Frightful Experience—Storm Caused Great Excitement and Did Considerable Damage.

The terrible wind storm which prevailed in this vicinity last evening came near resulting in the death by drowning of Frank Moore, Joe Judge, Harry Carey, William Bridge, Stanley Stevenson, Tom Meredith and Clyde Smith, all boys of not more than 17 years of age. They were swimming in the river on the West Virginia side when the storm approached, and being very much frightened at the awfulness of the storm's appearance, hurriedly jumped into their clothes and started for the Ohio side in a skiff.

When about half way across, the waves, which were running exceedingly high, commenced rocking the boat up and down and finally they completely enveloped the skiff, sinking it almost instantly, throwing the boys out. Luckily all are good swimmers and succeeded in battling their way to shore and safety. How they managed to do so, however, is considered marvelous, as the average swimmer finds it difficult to swim the same distance under favorable circumstances. But one of the boys, Frank Moore, is any the worse for the experience. He was hurt about the lower limbs in escaping from the boat and in consequence is suffering considerably.

Glass was broken and several small outhouses wrecked or overturned.

A terrific wind storm passed over the city at about 7:30 last evening, and for a few moments hats were flying all over the streets, signs were blown down, awnings torn and general excitement reigned. On Sixth street several serious accidents were narrowly averted.

The dust that blew along the street between the Diamond and Washington street was so thick that persons driving buggies could hardly tell where they were going. One carriage containing two ladies almost struck a street car going west, and at the corner of Sixth and Washington, a horse became frightened at flying paper. It was with difficulty that the driver kept the animal from running off. At the corner of Fifth and Washington streets the driver of a beer wagon failed to heed the sounding of the gong on a Southside car, and had the motorman not have acted quickly in stopping, the car would have struck the horse.

The wind blew so strong that the large door leading to the hallway of the Oyster building, on Sixth street, was blown shut, breaking a large plate glass in the door, causing it to fall all over the sidewalk.

A number of outbuildings were overturned on the North Side and several chimneys demolished. The windows of several dwellings were also broken and many trees damaged, some being entrely ruined.

LIGHTNING STRUCK COUNTY INFIRMARY

WOMAN TOOK TO WOODS IN TERROR, CARRYING BABE.

Several Hours' Hunt Necessary In Order to Find Her—Building Damaged.

Lisbon, May 23. — (Special) — The county infirmary was struck by lgihtning last evening, the bolt coming in on a telephone wire and exploding on the porch. Considerable damage was done to the woodwork.

One of the women inmates was so frightened that she, with a little child, hid in the woods and could not be found for several hours.

CERAMIC COLLECTION

Valuable Gift Presented to the City of Trenton and Accepted.

The city of Trenton is the receipient of a handsome and valuable pottery collection given by Mrs. Alice Maddock, of New York. Mrs. Maddock tendered the gift through Mayor Katzenbach and the members of common council, and the latter formally accepted it. Only two conditions were imposed. One is that the collection be suitably housed and the other that it be known by the name of the donor. Both provisions were included in the acceptance, which authorized the location of the ware in the art school and christened it the "Alice Maddock collection." The collection, consisting of several hundred pieces, contains the research of a life time, embracing ancient and modern specimens of rare ceramics. In her letter offering it to the city Mrs. Maddock says: "I believe it contains no piece that would not be of some value to students of ceramics in glaze, shape, pattern or paste; and many of the pieces are of special importance."

BUT 16 SAVED OUT OF 150 MEN

BRITISH COLUMBIA THE SCENE OF A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Three Mines Blocked Up and Those Within Doomed to Awful Death.

Ternie, B. C., May 23.—A terrible explosion occurred today in No. 2 mine, which is connected wth No. 3 shaft and also with the high line shaft.

Three openings were blocked. One hundred and fifty men were at work and only 16 escaped. The remainder are missing and there is small hope of their safety.

BUT TWO OFFENDERS

Were Before the Mayor This Morning Each Charged With Drunkenness.

Patrick O'Brien and Jack Rowe, the former being arrested by Officer Dawson for being drunk, and the latter by Officer Mahoney for a like offense, constituted the lineup for the mayor this moring. O'Brien had been there before and was but little surprised when he was given his choice of six months or leaving the city. As upon the other occasions he chose the latter. Rowe was in a miserable plight, and was remanded to his cell where he will remain until he is thoroughly sober.

"Snake Eater Bill' was turned over to the township trustees last night, who furnished him with a new suit of clothes and transportation to Marietta, where he clams to have relatives.

A SEPARATE UNION

Talked of For the Employes of the Rock Springs Street Railway.

The employes of the Rock Springs street railway and the East Liverpool line will hold their regular monthly meeting in the East End at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, at which time it is thought the employes of the two lines will separate, the Rock Springs men forming a union of their own in Chester, and apply at Wheeling for a charter. It seems that the Rock Springs men were not satisfied with the East Liverpool wage settlement.

PROBATE MATTERS

Administratrix Ordered to Make Up Her Mind—Land Sale Confirmed.

Lisbon, May 23. — (Special) — Annie McPherson, of Lisbon, has been ordered by the probate court to elect whether she will take or renounce the administration of the estate of Lavina McClain, late of Irondale.

The probate court has confirmed the sale by Rosetta M. Arnold, of East Palestine, as executrix of the estate of William Arnold, of 25 acres of land in Unity township, to Helena Arnold for $5,848.

BONDS NOT SOLD

Finance Committee Failed to Get Together For a Meeting Today.

Notwithstanding that four bids for the purchase of the city's bonds, amounting to $5,413.91, issued for the payment of the outstanding indebtedness incident to the improvement of Fenton street, Grant street, Pleasant street and McKinnon avenue, were received by the city clerk by noon today, the designated time, the bonds were not sold, only two of the members of the finance committee of council being present at the time for opening of bids.

No time has been set for a called meeting.

MINERS GOING DOWN A COAL SHAFT TO WORK.

This is a familiar scene in the lives of the thousands of coal miners who recently went out on strike. The men are in the cage or elevator and are about to descend into the bowels of the earth to begin their daily toil.

ORDERS ISSUED TO THE POLICEMEN

ONE ARREST WAS MADE

Nearly a Dozen More Will Follow Unless the Warning Is Heeded and the Ordinance Observed—All Officers Directed to Enforce the Law.

After issuing repeated warnings against violating the city ordinance governing the display of merchandise and the leaving of boxes, barrels and other rubbish on the street, action on the part of the police has begun.

The proprietor of one store was placed under arrest last evening by Officer Morris, charged with the offense.

Awaiting an investigations and developments concerning other violators of the law, the mayor will not hear the case for a few days. A general cleaning up of the pavements will be the result. Officer Morris has informed the mayor that he intends to arrest the proprietors of nearly a dozen stores for the same offense, and the mayor has told him to go ahead.

The entire police force has been ordered to watch the pavements closely and make arrests upon the first violation. The lumber dealers and pottery manufacturers are to be included and all of them will be given notice immediately to conform with the ordinance or suffer the penalty.

In speaking on the subject this morning the mayor said: "The time has come when decisive steps must be taken. The business men understand the ordinance perfectly, and I propose to make those suffer who disregard it. It seems a little hard to resort to such measures in dealing with our best citizens, but I find that there is no other way."

A FINE PROGRAM

Musical And Literary at Y. M. C. A. Hall Tonight.

The musical and literary program arranged for the entertainment to be given in the Y. M. C. A. hall this evening for the benefit of the base ball club is as follows:

P. church, Mrs. Charles Hanley and Mrs. Jesse Smith; Second Presbyterian, Mrs. T. W. McCain and Mrs. John Grant; Second M. E., Mrs. Wallover, Mrs. Cora Dawson.

It is the intention to convert the money realized into the building fund and begin active work upon the proposed hospital as soon as possible.

HEAT PROSTRATION FATAL TO A COOK

James Conkle, residing in the East End, who was overcome by heat yesterday while at work at the Washington house, the details of which are given in another column, died just before noon today.

For many years Mr. Conkle was a steamboat cook and made many trips up and down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. Recently he had been in charge of the cooking department at the Washington house. He was about 55 years of age and was one of the best known men in the city. He is survived by a wife and several children.

RUNAWAY CARS CAUSE BAD SMASH

A TRESTLE AND THREE CARS WRECKED AT LISBON.

Standing on a Pottery Siding When They Started on a Ruinous Trip.

Lisbon, May 23. — (Special) — A train of 16 loaded freight cars ran away this morning on the switch leading to the Thomas China company's plant and smashed three cars and about 100 feet of a trestle 12 feet high.

The cars were left standing on the switch with no brakes set. Somehow they got started and rushed swiftly down a grade on a trestle alongside the coal and clay chutes. They crashed with great force into the bumpers, breaking down a large section of the trestle and badly smashing three loaded cars.

WORK STOPPED

On Wabash Bridge Pier on West Virginia Side by Pennsylvania Company.

A Steubenville paper says: "For some time the Pennsylvania company that gobbles county roads and claims all earth between the water's edge and sky, has been trying to stop the work on the Wabash bridge pier on the West Virginia side.

All efforts have been futile until yesterday, when they succeeded in having work stopped, but how has not been learned. It is hoped they will not be able to stop the progress of the Wabash work very long."

IN THE HOSPITAL

A Potter Badly Injured as the Result of a Friendly Boxing Bout.

Lisbon, May 23. — (Special) — William Bailey, an employe of the pottery here, is at the Riverside hospital, sick with inflammation of the side. He was visiting friends in East Liverpool last Saturday and during a friendly sparring contest was hit in the side.

The hurt gave him no serious trouble until yesterday, when it became painful and he went to the hospital. Mr. Bailey moved here from East Liverpool recently.

FOR COMMENCEMENT

Handsome Invitations Issued By the Class of 1902.

The members of the class of 1902 of the high school have issued invitations to the twenty-sixth annual commencement exercises, to be held in the opera house Friday evening, May 30, at 8:15 o'clock.

The invitations are very handsome and somewhat of a departure from the time-honored custom, as the commencement program is not included.

The annual baccaleaureate sermon will be preached at St. Stephen's Episcopal church Sunday evening next by Rev. Edwin Weary.

CROWDS WILL GO

The La Belleview Excursion Leaves for Steubenville at 8:05 a. m.

All those who go on the La Belleview excursion to Steubenville tomorrow will be required to go on train No. 335, leaving here at 8:05, city time, and leaving Wellsville at 8:30. Tickets will be good returning on any regular train.

George W. Guthrie, the agent, is highly gratified with the results of the land company's advertising and expects to do a great business in consequence. Those who want free tickets can procure them this evening from George H. Owen & Co. until 9 o'clock tonight.

PEACE ASSURED

Agreement Between Boers and British Looked For at Any Moment.

London, May 23.—(Special)—The announcement that peace terms with the Boers had been effected is hourly expected. In diplomatic circles it is asserted that peace is assured.

CARELESS PIECE OF LEGISLATION

BELIEVES IT IS BAD LAW

And That It Will Be Declared Unconstitutional—Assistant Fire Marshal After Incendiaries—Jubilee Convention Closes—Capital News.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 23.—Attorney General Sheets inclines to the belief that the Royer act which robs the supreme court of jurisdiction in about 5 per cent of the cases which it passes upon is unconstitutional. Error crept into the law inadvertently. Its purpose was to wipe out the provision barring cases involving less than $300 from the court, but in addition to repealing this section it repealed others, the effect of which will be, in the event that the amendment is permitted to stand, that circuit courts will have jurisdiction in the large majority of cases which otherwise would go to the supreme court.

Judge Sheets said that the amendment was a very careless piece of legislation, and expressed the belief that the difficulty could be obviated by applying well known rules of statutory construction. "There has been no change in any of the other provisions of the statute relative to proceedings in error and upon reading them it will appear that it is contemplated by these provisions that the supreme court has general jurisdiction in error," said the attorney general.

"The amended section is made to apply to all pending actions. Hence if it takes from the supreme court jurisdiction over all cases except the cases expressly enumerated, then it would result in the dismissal of a large majority of the cases now pending in that court. Such a construction in my judgment would render the act unconstitutional."

First Assistant Fire Marshal Beardsley has returned from a trip which included stops at Wellsville, Waynesburg, Stark county; Ravenna and Newcomerstown. He investigated a recent fire in Wellsville, but the evidence did not establish for a certainty that it was one of incendiary origin. He will look into the case further. The most suspicious case of the lot is the one at Ravenna. Two merchants of that place had a fire a short time ago which destroyed their place of business. A short time before the fire occurred they increased their insurance $11,000. One of them was seen leaving the building just before the blaze was discovered. The other two cases are still in abeyance. Deputy Fire Marshal Henry W. Hart, of Akron, assisted in the work of investigation at Wellsville and Ravenna.

The jubilee convention of the Ohio Christian Missionary society closed in this city Thursday night. Rev. J. G. Slaytor, pastor of the Christian church at Akron, was elected president. He is well known in Columbiana county, having frequently occupied the pulpits of the leading Christian churches of the county. Rev. Walter Mansell, of Salem, formerly pastor of the East Liverpool church, was made a member of the committee on nominations. Rev. J. Harrison Jones, of Alliance, who is 89 years of age, was the first president of the society. He was present at the convention and made an address on Thursday. President T. E. Cramblet, of Bethany college, a former pastor of the Salem Christian church, who was to have delivered the educational address to the convention, was called home by the death of his mother.

The Ohio spiritualists will hold their convention in this city Friday. D. A. Herrick, of Alliance, will make an address.

Arrested in Pittsburg.

John Allison, well known to the police authorities of this city, was arrested in Pittsburg Wednesday night on suspicion of being implicated in stealing a horse belonging to William Gutlett, of Wheeling.

The La Belleview Excursion Leaves for Steubenville at 8:05 a. m.

All those who go on the La Belleview excursion to Steubenville tomorrow will be required to go on train No. 335, leaving here at 8:05, city time, and leaving Wellsville at 8:30. Tickets will be good returning on any regular train.

George W. Guthrie, the agent, is highly gratified with the results of the land company's advertising and expects to do a great business in consequence. Those who want free tickets can procure them this evening from George H. Owen & Co. until 9 o'clock tonight.

PEACE ASSURED

Agreement Between Boers and British Looked For at Any Moment.

London, May 23.—(Special)—The announcement that peace terms with the Boers had been effected is hourly expected. In diplomatic circles it is asserted that peace is assured.

CARELESS PIECE OF LEGISLATION

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 23.—Attorney General Sheets inclines to the belief that the Royer act which robs the supreme court of jurisdiction in about 75 per cent of the cases which it passes upon is unconstitutional. Error crept into the law inadvertently. Its purpose was to wipe out the provision barring cases involving less than $300 from the court, but in addition to repealing this section it repealed others, the effect of which will be, in the event that the amendment is permitted to stand, that circuit courts will have jurisdiction in the large majority of cases which otherwise would go to the supreme court.

Judge Sheets said that the amendment was a very careless piece of legislation, and expressed the belief that the difficulty could be obviated by applying well known rules of statutory construction. "There has been no change in any of the other provisions of the statute relative to proceedings in error and upon reading them it will appear that it is contemplated by these provisions that the supreme court has general jurisdiction in error," said the attorney general.

"The amended section is made to apply to all pending actions. Hence if it takes from the supreme court jurisdiction over all cases except the cases expressly enumerated, then it would result in the dismissal of a large majority of the cases now pending in that court. Such a construction in my judgment would render the act unconstitutional."

First Assistant Fire Marshal Beardsley has returned from a trip which included stops at Wellsville, Waynesburg, Stark county; Ravenna and Newcomerstown. He investigated a recent fire in Wellsville, but the evidence did not establish for a certainty that it was one of incendiary origin. He will look into the case further. The most suspicious case of the lot is the one at Ravenna. Two merchants of that place had a fire a short time ago which destroyed their place of business. A short time before the fire occurred they increased their insurance $11,000. One of them was seen leaving the building just before the blaze was discovered. The other two cases are still in abeyance. Deputy Fire Marshal Henry W. Hart, of Akron, assisted in the work of investigation at Wellsville and Ravenna.

The jubilee convention of the Ohio Christian Missionary society closed in this city Thursday night. Rev. J. G. Slaytor, pastor of the Christian church at Akron, was elected president. He is well known in Columbiana county, having frequently occupied the pulpits of the leading Christian churches of the county. Rev. Walter Mansell, of Salem, formerly pastor of the East Liverpool church, was made a member of the committee on nominations. Rev. J. Harrison Jones, of Alliance, who is 89 years of age, was the first president of the society. He was present at the convention and made an address on Thursday. President T. E. Cramblet, of Bethany college, a former pastor of the Salem Christian church, who was to have delivered the educational address to the convention, was called home by the death of his mother.

The Ohio spiritualists will hold their convention in this city Friday. D. A. Herrick, of Alliance, will make an address.

Arrested in Pittsburg.

John Allison, well known to the police authorities of this city, was arrested in Pittsburg Wednesday night on suspicion of being implicated in stealing a horse belonging to William Gutlett, of Wheeling.

FINE HORSES

MANY NOW QUARTERED AT COLUMBIAN PARK.

A Number of Fast Animals Being Trained and Prepared For Racing.

There is great activity at Columbian park among the horsemen at present. Before another fortnight many more horses will be quartered there. The track has been thoroughly graded, and in the evenings there is some very spirited driving. There are no less than 11 horses quartered at the track at present, and many more will be sent there for training purposes, but there is not the room at this time. It may be that additional stalls will be erected soon, and in this event the horses will be sent there from several towns in this section of the state.

Sam Groves has charge of quite a number of good horses, among the number being the following: Mamie Hall, no record; Robert Harker, with a mark of 2:27; Robert L., with a pacing record of 2:24, owned by William Larkins; Ollie R., trotting record of 2:40, owned by Edward Neal; Demon, trotter, race record of 2:26, and a matinee record of 2:14, owned by C. A. Smith; John Webb, race record of 2:25 1-4, and a matinee record of 2:17 1-2, owned by C. A. Smith; Jim Weston, no record gven.

In the string looked after by James Moffatt, the following list of horses is given: Martha Lee, trotter, 2:26 1-2, H. S. Rinehart; Silver Thistle, pacer, 2:21 1-2, H. S. Rinehart; Ikey Boy, pacer, 2:22, Henry Deidrick; Dr. Hawker, pacer, 2:19 1-2, Mr. Fickes, New Cumberland.

These horses are driven over the Columbian park oval every day, some making a total of 16 laps during the heating, while others are driven less. After the drive the horses are taken back to their stalls where they are rubbed down. There is said to not be a horse at the track that could not be prepared for a race in a very short time. Many of these horses will be entered in the October races which will be held at the park.

NO FLAG THERE

O. U. A. W. Wants to See One Over the Horace Mann School Building.

"How does it come that there is no American flag at the Horace Mann school building?" in the East End is a question that is frequently heard. The matter is freely discussed by the Senior Mechanics in the East End. The order presented a flag to the old East End building, and a member of the order stated this morning that it was only occasionally seen on the building.

The members of the order claim these conditions should not exist, and at an early meeting it is likely action will be taken toward purchasing a flag for the new building, or else the board of education will be petitioned to buy one.

ARRESTS WILL FOLLOW

Board of Health Likely to End the East End Garbage Nuisance.

Sanitary Officer J. H. Burgess was in the East End yesterday for the purpose of investigating the matter of dumping garbage in the rear of the powder house of the American Sewer Pipe company, located on Lake's run. Officer Burgess found the conditions to be as related in this paper last evening, and even now the investigation is not at an end.

The nuisance has reached a stage that some harsh measures will be taken, and it is the purpose of the board of health to sift the matter to the bottom. It is predicted that several arrests will follow the investigations of Officer Burgess.

Wedded Last Week.

After succeeding in keeping the matter quiet for over a week the announcement was made this morning that on Wednesday evening of last week Frank Wherry, a well known politician of the East End, and Miss May Marsh were married at the home of relatives of the bride near Pittsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Wherry are now residing in Chester, where Mr. Wherry recently completed a modern eight room house.

Married at a Late Hour.

Although the event was to have taken place at 8 o'clock last evening the marriage of Miss Nellie May Barringer and Julius Glesencamp did not occur until 11 o'clock at the residence of Rev. George W. Orcutt. The young couple had been stopping in the Bradshaw addition and intended to go to the East End in the evening, but the trip was deferred until almost midnighth.

Overcome By Heat.

James Conkle, employed as a cook at the Washington house on Second street, was overcome by the heat yesterday, and it is feared he will not recover. Last evening he was removed to his home on Pennsylvania avenue in the city ambulance and this morning when seen by a physician his temperature was a little over 106. Last evening it was almost three degrees more.

Quieted the Discussion.

There was a family quarrel in the East End last evening, but it was in the main just talk, and no blows were struck. The matter was reported to the East End police while the heated discussion was in progress, and the home in question was visited by Officer Fisher. The appearance of the officer produced quiet.

Funeral of a Child.

The funeral services over the remains of Oscar, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of Elm street, were held yesterday afternoon. Interment was made at Riverview cemetery.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Frank Chambers spent the day n Pittsburg on business.

Mrs. Mattox, near Dry Run, is ill, suffering from typhoid fever.

Mrs. T. F. Anderson left yesterday for Steubenville and Holliday's Cove, where she will remain for several days visiting relatives and friends.

A number of young people from the East End left this morning for Steubenville where they propose to attend the circus, which is playing there today.

Mrs. Elizabeth Croupe, of Smith's Ferry, was brought to the home of her niece, Mrs. Archie Searight, of Pennsylvania avenue, yesterday. She has been ill for some time, and Mrs. Searight will nurse her.

There was to have been a meeting of the East End branch of the Prohibition Alliance last evening at the home of Archie Searight on Pennsylvania avenue, but the session was called off on account of the weather.

BETWEEN HEATS.

After raising two colts Maxim, 2:11¼, will be raced again.

George, 2:06¼, is in the Brooklyn stable of Charles Mower.

A three-year-old filly by Zombro, 2:11, showed a mile in 2:17½ recently at the Los Angeles track.

Morning Glory, 2:20½, is now the property of George H. Ketcham and will be bred to Cresceus.

Lady Pipes, 2:07¼, that was fired last fall, is now going perfectly sound and will be raced this season.

Both Era Chimes, 2:18½, and Gideon Patchen, 2:20¼, are now owned by I. Werteimer, East Buffalo, N. Y.

An Austrian owner has entered John A. McKerron in the stake race for the trotting championship of Europe.

Harvey D. Ernest, Syracuse, N. Y., is jogging Dumont W., 2:06½, and Birchwood, 2:11, for the season's campaign.

E. M. Chessman has a beautiful country seat at Cambridge Springs, Pa., and has got together a band of royally bred mares by such sires as Guy Wilkes, 2:15¼; Allerton, 2:09¼; Alcantara, etc.

Rest Before Meals.

The value of a slight rest before meals is, according to a physician, very great. Indigestion more often arises from eating when tired or excited than is understood. In his dietary for a consumptive patient a very well known specialist insists upon a full twenty minutes' rest before all meals except breakfast. Five minutes' complete rest, of mind as well as body, is none too much for the person of average health, and it should be taken regularly.—New York Post.

Draw Corks Easily.

If you want to amuse friends at an evening party, tell them that you can draw a cork out of any bottle without a corkscrew. Of course they will laugh, but very soon it will be your turn to laugh.

Take a piece of sealing wax and hold one end of it over a lamp or gas jet until it becomes soft; then let some drops of the wax fall on the cork in the bottle. As soon as the cork is covered with wax you must press the piece which you hold in your hand against the cork, and you must hold it there until the wax is quite dry. Then it will be easy for you to draw out the cork by using the stick of wax, which adheres to it in the same manner as you would use a screw.

No matter how firmly fixed the cork may be, it will almost immediately yield to the pressure. You must, however, take care not to wrench the stick of wax away from it while you are drawing it out, and you must also see that the cork is perfectly dry before you pour any wax on it.

Bengal Tigers.

The man eater is usually an older tiger, whose strength is failing and whose teeth have partly lost their sharpness. Such a beast finds it easier to lurk in the vicinity of settlements and to pick up an occasional man, woman or child than to run down wild cattle.

The largest, fiercest and most brightly colored tigers are found in the province of Bengal, near the mouths of the Ganges river and not far from Calcutta. A full grown Bengal tiger sometimes measures ten feet from nose to tip of tail. Such a monster makes no more account of springing upon a man that a cat does of seizing a mouse. He surpasses the lion in strength and ferocity and has no rival among beasts of prey except the grizzly bear and the recently discovered giant bear of Alaska.—St. Nicholas.

The Forgotten Dot.

A wedding took place a short time back in a large town in the north of England, the service being conducted by a rather eccentric vicar. Two days after the ceremony he called at the house of the bridegroom's mother, but she happened to be out, so he said he would call again, which he did later on in the day, carrying two large green bags under his arm.

This time he found her in. So he began by asking them to clear the table a little. Then he opened the greer bags, from which he took the registers. These he opened and in a most solemn tone said:

"Mrs. Williams, you have forgotten to dot the "i" in Elizabeth."

The family breathed once more.

MOB BURNS NEGRO.

Husband of His Victim Applied Match, at Longview, Texas.

WIFE PRESENT AT EXECUTION.

Unable to See Negro For Dense Crowd—Previously Identified Him. Negro Confessed Crime—Slowly Tortured to Death.

Longview, Tex., May 23.—A man hunt, which had been in progress since last Saturday, ended yesterday in the burning at the stake of Dudley Morgan, a negro, who assaulted Mrs. McKee, wife of a Texas and Pacific section foreman at Lansing, Tex.

The train bearing the prisoner and his captors arrived at Marshall and was met by a great crowd of people. Many more boarded the train at Hallville, and when it arrived at Lansing every available place on it was occupied. Waitng at Lansng was another large crowd from Longview and the surrounding country.

The negro was not taken from the train on the side where the crowd was, and when the engineer started to pull out several Winchesters were leveled at him and others of the train crew. They were told if they moved the train an inch they would be killed. The prisoner was identified by Mrs. McKee and several negroes who worked on the section with Morgan. The negro was escorted by about 200 men, armed with Winchesters, to the place of execution. As he was chained to the stake he made a statement, in which he implicated another negro named Franklin Heard, saying Heard was to get part of the money which wa sto be stolen.

Slowly Tortured to Death.

Morgan confessed to having committed the crime and after he had been securely chained to the rail, with his hands and legs free, the mob began to take railroad ties from a fire already started and burn out his eyes. They then held the red-hot and burning timbers to his neck, and, after burning his clothes off, to other parts of his body. The negro screamed in agony. He was tortured deliberately and slowly, with the crowd clamoring for a slow death, and the negro, writhing and groaning, begged piteously to be shot. Mrs. McKee was brought to the scene in a carriage, accompanied by four other women, and an effort was made to get the carriage close enough for her to see the negro. The crowd was so dense, however, that this was impossible.

Grewsome Search For Relics.

Persons held each other on their shoulders, taking turns looking at the awful sight. The negro's head finally dropped and the ties were piled around and over him. In half an hour only the trunk of his body remained. As soon as the heat would permit the crowd, with long sticks, began a grewsome search for relics. Parts of his skull and body were gathered up by some and carried away. As the fire died down the crowd took the two men who first caught the negro and held them on their shoulders, and, with their Winchesters in their hands, were photographed.

Section Foreman McKee, husband of the woman assaulted, applied the match to the faggots. Many women were present from the surrounding country, but owing to the great crush they had very little opportunity to see the negro until the heat forced the crowd to widen the circle and the flames leaped over them.

Forced Engineer to Stop.

The railroads brought crowds of people to Longview Junction, where they boarded the Texas and Pacific fast train. This ordinarily doesn't stop at Lansing. The engineer was forced at the point of a Winchester to stop at the scene of the lynching and the mob disembarked.

SOME WRITERS.

Buffon wrote in lace ruffles and Alexandre Dumas in shirt sleeves.

Milton composed his "Paradise Lost" on a large armchair, with his head thrown back.

Bret Harte's first literary success was a little book called "Condensed Novels," in which he parodied some prominent novelists of the day.

Austin Dobsin, the poet, wanted in early life to be an engineer and was preparing for that profession when his parents persuaded him to enter the civil service.

When Fox had eaten heartily, he would retire to his study, envelop his head in a napkin soaked in vinegar and water and work sometimes ten hours in succession.

Allison is said to have consumed twenty-four years in the preparation of his "History of Europe," but many important literary enterprises were also carried on by him during this time.

It is related of Hall Caine, the novelist, that he once worked in the Laxey lead mines, in the Manx mountains, in place of a young man who was ill to keep the young fellow's position for him.

Mrs. Bolton, the Indiana composer of the once popular song "Paddle Your Own Canoe," received the inspiration to write while sewing and fitting the first carpets for the old statehouse of Indiana.

The Versatile Weekes.

As an all round athlete Harold Weekes of Columbia has proved himself remarkable. There are few branches of sport in which he is not expert. He has a national reputation as a football player, is a good oarsman and can run 100 yards in 10 2-5 seconds. Weekes has now taken up baseball. He showed so well in practice that he has been given a place on the regular varsity team.

The trustees of Hanover township have appointed Homer O. Wilson, of Adair, roadmaster.

Two small wrecks occurred on the C. & P. railroad at Toronto on Wednesday evening, blocking the tracks and delaying traffic for some time.

The Buckeye Engine company, Salem, has received the largest order for engines from the Pennsylvania company that it ever received from any company.

A steam launch will be run between New Cumberland and Myers' landing at the upper end of Toronto to connect with the Steubenville trolley line.

William Mitchell, a brakeman on the Panhandle railroad, whose home is at Bishop Station, lost both arms by being caught between cars in the yards at Carnegie.

H. Seanor has just drilled an oil well on the Lawrence Knoll farm a short distance northwest of Homeworth. The well promises to be a good producer.

The Lisbon high school class, which will be graduated May 29, consists of Mabel Marquis, James A. Arter, Eva Deemer, Clarence Lesterly, Carrie Esther Boone, Hazel Burnett and Charles W. Metts.

The mammoth trestle of the Lake Erie, Alliance and Wheeling extension over the Panhandle railroad at Carmon's is completed, and is now ready to carry the heavy coal trains from the new mines soon to be opened in Jefferson county.

J. B. Vandergrift, Brooke county's millionaire resident, has made a proposition to the Wellsburg council to donate $750 toward macadamizing Pleasant avenue. Although this avenue runs through the wealthiest and most beautiful residence portion of the city, it is in little better condition than a country road.

SOME WRITERS.

Buffon wrote in lace ruffles and Alexandre Dumas in shirt sleeves.

Milton composed his "Paradise Lost" on a large armchair, with his head thrown back.

Bret Harte's first literary success was a little book called "Condensed Novels," in which he parodied some prominent novelists of the day.

Austin Dobsin, the poet, wanted in early life to be an engineer and was preparing for that profession when his parents persuaded him to enter the civil service.

When Fox had eaten heartily, he would retire to his study, envelop his head in a napkin soaked in vinegar and water and work sometimes ten hours in succession.

Allison is said to have consumed twenty-four years in the preparation of his "History of Europe," but many important literary enterprises were also carried on by him during this time.

It is related of Hall Caine, the novelist, that he once worked in the Laxey lead mines, in the Manx mountains, in place of a young man who was ill to keep the young fellow's position for him.

Mrs. Bolton, the Indiana composer of the once popular song "Paddle Your Own Canoe," received the inspiration to write while sewing and fitting the first carpets for the old statehouse of Indiana.

The Versatile Weekes.

As an all round athlete Harold Weekes of Columbia has proved himself remarkable. There are few branches of sport in which he is not expert. He has a national reputation as a football player, is a good oarsman and can run 100 yards in 10 2-5 seconds. Weekes has now taken up baseball. He showed so well in practice that he has been given a place on the regular varsity team.

The honors paid the kaiser's brother on his recent visit are being duplicated, though perhaps on a less princely scale, in the attentions given the national guests from France. No distinguished foreigner ever need have reason to complain of the warmth and cordiality of American hospitality. Uncle Sam is a bigger figure in the world than he used to be, but he is not puffed up, and always meets half way all tnose who manifest a disposition to be friendly.

Again the rumor is current that John R. McLean, of Washington, is about to take a hand in Democratic politics in Ohio. Many of the unterrified are hoping it is true, not because they love McLean so much, but because they love his barrel more. But they should stop and reflect and ask themselves what McLean has ever done for them save to put them in the hole, where they still grope darkly.

Some of the Democratic papers are learning for the first time that Thomas Jefferson prepared for himself and left among his literary remains a personally edited copy of the New Testament. Yet there seems to be no Democratic rush to recognize this fact as the long-sought issue for 1904.

Charles M. Schwab has given $150,000 to Braddock churches, and shows no disposition to stop at that. When he gets through with his home town, if he still feels in a generous mood, he will doubtless not lack an opportunity to place more cash in the same way.

The action of the house in demanding an educational qualification for immigrants to be admitted to this country is a wise one. This nation believes in free schools and cannot afford to welcome or encourage illiteracy.

Perhaps it is just as well that Uncle Sam should not pay for those Danish West India islands until the season of volcanic activity is past. He might awaken some morning and look around in vain for his purchases.

The Presbyterian general assembly has done a wise thing in settling the creed revision controversy. But what will the Presbyterians do now to make their annual meetings earnest and exciting?

Pennsylvania politics are becoming sadly muddled. It seems to be a case of too many cooks spoiling the broth. There was more harmony when would-be bosses were less numerous.

The Democrats are boasting that they will carry the next house of representatives. When they carry anything it will be something of less weight.

Texas is boastful of her greatness, but she will never be truly great as long as her people defy the law and countenance and encorage barbarism.

Congress should lose no time in agreeing on a canal route and enacting legislation that will enable the work to start before the year ends.

Congress seems determined to fight its battles out if it takes all summer. And unless there is more business and less talk, it will.

Troubles never come singly. Mont Pelee is again in eruption and Tillman is likely to break forth at any moment.

The promised street signs are mighty slow in materializing. Yet the necessity for them grows every day.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Charles B. Craig is visiting his parents in Wellsburg.

Mrs. Oyster and daughter, Miss Ida, left yesterday to spend a few days with Toronto friends.

James Henry left last evening for Wheeling, where he has secured a position with a shoe firm.

W. H. Herdweiler, who has been visiting I. Bentley Pope, Calcutta road, left today for his home in Trenton, N. J.

Dr. Jean Covert, of New Castle, is visiting her father, Dr. W. J. Sloan, of Fifth street. She will return home tomorrow.

Mrs. J. S. Milligan, who has been visiting friends in this cty for several days, returned to her home in Steubenville yesterday.

The Oldest Force Storage.

The water wheel is probably the oldest method of obtaining mechanical force apart from the employment of animal force. These wheels were no doubt at first worked by a flowing river and then by a falling stream, and it would not be a very great advance on this method to dam back the stream so as to obtain a continuous supply of force even in times of drought. Such storing of water at a sufficiently high level is the simplest and even at the present time the most successful method of storing force. If carefully arranged, the loss by evaporation and leakage is small and may be partly or wholly replaced by rain, so the force is always available, and but little labor is needed to keep such works in repair. The water clock of the Romans was an elaboration of this method of storing force and was for them the only form of "motor."

Diet and Character.

An exclusively pork diet tends infallibly to pessimism. Beef, if persevered in for months, makes a man strong, energetic and audacious. A mutton diet continued for any length of time tends to melancholia, while veal eaters gradually lose energy and gayety. The free use of eggs and milk tends to make women healthy and vivacious. Butter used in excess renders its users phlegmatic and lazy. Apples are excellent for brain workers, and everybody who has much intellectual work to do should eat them freely. Potatoes, on the contrary, render one dull, invidious and lazy when eaten constantly and in excess. To preserve the memory, even to an advanced age, nothing is better than mustard.—London Chronicle.

The Art Treasures of Europe.

"What did I like best in France?" she repeated. "Why, Paris, of course. But I'll tell you where we had the most fun, and so cheap too. We went to Reims. Phil wanted to see the Joan of Arc statue, which is considered very fine. It stands in front of an appallingly ancient inn, where her parents stayed, I blieve.

"While Phil was studying Joan and her rapt expression Charlie and Sally and I went to visit the wine cellars of Pomeroy—they call them 'caves,' my dear—and what do you think? They gave us each a bottle of champagne for nothing! It is the custom. Phil lost all interest in Joan and her statue when we told him of it afterward."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

The Dinner Horn.

Details in regard to the manner in which meals were served during the dark ages do not abound. It is only toward the twelfth century that we begin to have a little light on this interesting subject. When a meal was ready in the thirteenth century, the guests of a castle, with the vassals, were assembled to the sound of a horn, a method of summoning that appears to have been the privilege only of the greatest lords. Some hundreds of years later a bell was used for the purpose.

Office of the Lungs.

"What is the office of the lungs?" a teacher asked a small pupil in a class in physiology.

"The chest," she promptly replied.

"And," said the teacher, telling the story, "I guess she was somewhat near right, for the lungs certainly do business in the chest."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

POTTERY NEWS

The strike of the coal miners in the eastern Pennsylvania district is being felt by the pottery trade, and some manufacturers who have had salesmen in that territory have recalled and sent them elsewhere. Especially is this true of the several firms in this city who have been selling assortments in that section. The trade of these firms has been confined in the main to the small dealers, who would give ware away as premiums or make a run on some special line of goods which they have received. Ever since the strike of the coal miners was anticipated the manufacturers have been watching the territory closely, and now it is said there is not a pottery salesman in the entire strike district.

A delegate to the recent convention at Trenton said today: "Everybody cannot be pleased, and while the convention tried to treat all trades fairly, it may be that some locals are sore over the actions which were taken." Another delegate said: "There were some very warm discussions at times, but when it was all over we shook hands and parted friends. I cannot see why any friction should exist."

Clay found on a farm a short distance back of Chester is extensively used in the making of knobs. A company has been purchasing the clay found in this section for some time, and the claim is made that it is the best for the purpose found in this section in recent years. The clay is brought to the factory by the owners of the farm upon which it is found.

No less than four locals will meet this evening. They are packers, No. 25; warehousemen, No 48; kilnmen, No. 9; dippers, No. 18, and finishers, No. 53. Some very important business will be transacted by the finishers, relative to matters which were acted upon at the last convention.

Sherman Campbell, who has been employed as a kilnman at the old end, has resigned his position and will spend the summer on a farm. He has secured a long lease on the old farm near Chester, and within a few days will remove his family to the country.

John Johnson, of the East End, who until recently was employed at the Union and Brunt's as a dipper, has gone to Lisbon where he has taken charge of the dipping department of the Thomas China company.

Several new glaze mills are being built at the Union, which are expected to be ready to operate within two weeks. The machinery for these mills has been installed.

John Densmore, a glost kilnhand at the Laughlin No. 2, has returned from a short trip to Lisbon,, where he has purchased a number of premium chickens.

William Farrell is a new kilnhand at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery at Chester. He was formerly engaged on biscuit at the Union.

John Demmering, a glost kilnhand at the Union, has been unable to work for several days on account of illness.

James Price has taken a position as presser at the old end. He has been selling waffles during the winter.

John Hisler, of this city, has taken a position in the warehouse of the American china plant at Toronto.

Burmese Ambition.

The highest ambition of a Burman's life is to build a pagoda, by which he wins the title of Kyanng Taga during this incarnation and secures a mortgage on Nirvana. A Burman does not become a Christian easily, but when he does he brings with him the conviction he had as a Buddhist that to build a place of worship is the most meritorious act of a man's life.

This accounts for the present cathedral of Mandalay, built at a cost of 60,000 rupees by Kyanng Taga Paul Obon, a Burmese ruby merchant of that city. The old church of Amarapura was built by an Armenian and the two churches of the Tennessarim coast by a gentleman named De Castro.

Many of the 700 and more chapels and churches throughout Burma are built of jungle wood, which is destroyed in a few years by the white ants. To replace them by teak or pyingkado, not to speak of modest structures, is a matter of hope with every priest, but in their straitened finances they do the best they can and pray for Kyanng Tages to came along.—Donahoe's Magazine.

Halifax.

The evil repute of Halifax implied in the adage "Go to Halifax!" came to it by inheritance from Halifax in Yorkshire, England. Halifax law, as may be gathered from a letter of Lord Leicester quoted by Motley, was that criminals should be "condemned first and inquired upon afterward."

Halifax lay within the forest of Hardwick, where the law was that if a felon was taken with 13½ pence worth of stolen goods he should be tried by four firth burgers from four of the precinct towns and if condemned by them be hanged the next day. After this proceeding had been carried out to the letter the case might be sent to a jury.

Halifax is also credited with being the home of the guillotine, which the regent, Earl Morton, introduced into Scotland only to have his own head chopped off with it.

Rubinstein's Reply.

When Rubinstein was traveling through the United States upon a concert tour, it chanced that Barnum's circus followed almost exactly the same route chosen by the great Russian. On one occasion, when the train was filled with snake charmers, acrobats, clowns and the like, the guard, noticing perhaps Rubinstein's remarkable appearance, asked him, "Do you belong to the show?"

Turning his leonine head with a savage shake Rubinstein answered fiercely, "Sir, I am the show."

Doubling Up.

A boy of eight years was asked by his teacher where the zenith was. He replied, "That spot in the heavens directly over one's head."

To test his knowledge further the teacher asked:

"Can two persons have the same zenith at the same time?"

"They can."

"How?"

"If one stand on the other's head."

Don't Be a Waiter.

There are too many people in the world waiting for favorable conditions. Don't do it. While you are hesitating some one else is plowing ahead of you. Wait for nothing; map out a course and pursue it, rain or shine, mud or dust, storm or lull, cold or heat, good times or bad times. Wait for nothing. —Atchison Globe.

Known Too Late.

"Do you remember," said Mrs. Grumps, "when you asked me to marry you?"

"Yes," said Mr. Grumps.

"And I said 'Yes?'"

"I remember it. We both always did talk too much."—Washington Star.

Giants and Pygmies of Space.

There is an immense range of difference in the brightness of the stars when the sun is taken for a standard of comparison. Some of the stars emit only one one-hundredth as much light as the sun emits. Others emit a thousand times as much light as he does. Indeed, one scientist thinks there are at least two stars each of which is probably 10,000 times as bright as the sun, which signifies that if either of those stars were as near to us as the sun is it would outshine him 10,000 times in brightness. The two stars are Canopus, which is in the southern hemisphere and invisible from our part of the earth, and Rigel, one of the two brightest stars in the constellation Orion.

The Size of Great Britain.

Great Britain is only half as big as Sumatra and double the size of Newfoundland. It stands fifth in point of size in the list of the world's islands. England without Wales is almost identical in point of size with Roumania. It is less than one-quarter as big as France or Germany. The whole British isles only occupy the one sixteenhundredth part of the surface of this globe. Great Britain is widest between Land's End and Kent. The utmost width is 325 miles. It is narrowest between Lock Broom, on the west coast of Scotland, and Bornoch firth, on the east coast. The distance between the heads of these two inlets is but twenty-four miles.

Perhaps it is just as well that Uncle Sam should not pay for those Danish West India islands until the season of volcanic activity is past. He might awaken some morning and look around in vain for his purchases.

The Presbyterian general assembly has done a wise thing in settling the creed revision controversy. But what will the Presbyterians do now to make their annual meetings earnest and exciting?

Pennsylvania politics are becoming sadly muddled. It seems to be a case of too many cooks spoiling the broth. There was more harmony when would-be bosses were less numerous.

The Oldest Force Storage.

The water wheel is probably the oldest method of obtaining mechanical force apart from the employment of animal force. These wheels were no doubt at first worked by a flowing river and then by a falling stream, and it would not be a very great advance on this method to dam back the stream so as to obtain a continuous supply of force even in times of drought. Such storing of water at a sufficiently high level is the simplest and even at the present time the most successful method of storing force. If carefully arranged, the loss by evaporation and leakage is small and may be partly or wholly replaced by rain, so the force is always available, and but little labor is needed to keep such works in repair. The water clock of the Romans was an elaboration of this method of storing force and was for them the only form of "motor."

Diet and Character.

An exclusively pork diet tends infallibly to pessimism. Beef, if persevered in for months, makes a man strong, energetic and audacious. A mutton diet continued for any length of time tends to melancholia, while veal eaters gradually lose energy and gayety. The free use of eggs and milk tends to make women healthy and vivacious. Butter used in excess renders its users phlegmatic and lazy. Apples are excellent for brain workers, and everybody who has much intellectual work to do should eat them freely. Potatoes, on the contrary, render one dull, invidious and lazy when eaten constantly and in excess. To preserve the memory, even to an advanced age, nothing is better than mustard.—London Chronicle.

The Art Treasures of Europe.

"What did I like best in France?" she repeated. "Why, Paris, of course. But I'll tell you where we had the most fun, and so cheap too. We went to Reims. Phil wanted to see the Joan of Arc statue, which is considered very fine. It stands in front of an appallingly ancient inn, where her parents stayed, I believe.

"While Phil was studying Joan and her rapt expression Charlie and Sally and I went to visit the wine cellars of Pomeroy—they call them 'caves,' my dear—and what do you think? They gave us each a bottle of champagne for nothing! It is the custom. Phil lost all interest in Joan and her statue when we told him of it afterward."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

The Dinner Horn.

Details in regard to the manner in which meals were served during the dark ages do not abound. It is only toward the twelfth century that we begin to have a little light on this interesting subject. When a meal was ready in the thirteenth century, the guests of a castle, with the vassals, were assembled to the sound of a horn, a method of summoning that appears to have been the privilege only of the greatest lords. Some hundreds of years later a bell was used for the purpose.

Office of the Lungs.

"What is the office of the lungs?" a teacher asked a small pupil in a class in physiology.

"The chest," she promptly replied.

"And," said the teacher, telling the story, "I guess she was somewhat near right, for the lungs certainly do business in the chest."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

POTTERY NEWS

The strike of the coal miners in the eastern Pennsylvania district is being felt by the pottery trade, and some manufacturers who have had salesmen in that territory have recalled and sent them elsewhere. Especially is this true of the several firms in this city who have been selling assortments in that section. The trade of these firms has been confined in the main to the small dealers, who would give ware away as premiums or make a run on some special line of goods which they have received. Ever since the strike of the coal miners was anticipated the manufacturers have been watching the territory closely, and now it is said there is not a pottery salesman in the entire strike district.

A delegate to the recent convention at Trenton said today: "Everybody cannot be pleased, and while the convention tried to treat all trades fairly, it may be that some locals are sore over the actions which were taken." Another delegate said: "There were some very warm discussions at times, but when it was all over we shook hands and parted friends. I cannot see why any friction should exist."

Clay found on a farm a short distance back of Chester is extensively used in the making of knobs. A company has been purchasing the clay found in this section for some time, and the claim is made that it is the best for the purpose found in this section in recent years. The clay is brought to the factory by the owners of the farm upon which it is found.

No less than four locals will meet this evening. They are packers, No. 25; warehousemen, No. 48; kilnmen, No. 9; dippers, No. 18, and finishers, No. 53. Some very important business will be transacted by the finishers, relative to matters which were acted upon at the last convention.

Sherman Campbell, who has been employed as a kilnman at the old end, has resigned his position and will spend the summer on a farm. He has secured a long lease on the old farm near Chester, and within a few days will remove his family to the country.

John Johnson, of the East End, who until recently was employed at the Union and Brunt's as a dipper, has gone to Lisbon where he has taken charge of the dipping department of the Thomas China company.

Several new glaze mills are being built at the Union, which are expected to be ready to operate within two weeks. The machinery for these mills has been installed.

John Densmore, a glost kilnhand at the Laughlin No. 2, has returned from a short trip to Lisbon,, where he has purchased a number of premium chickens.

William Farrell is a new kilnhand at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery at Chester. He was formerly engaged on biscuit at the Union.

John Demmering, a glost kilnhand at the Union, has been unable to work for several days on account of illness.

James Price has taken a position as presser at the old end. He has been selling waffles during the winter.

Burmese Ambition.

The highest ambition of a Burman's life is to build a pagoda, by which he wins the title of Kyanng Taga during this incarnation and secures a mortgage on Nirvana. A Burman does not become a Christian easily, but when he does he brings with him the conviction he had as a Buddhist that to build a place of worship is the most meritorious act of a man's life.

This accounts for the present cathedral of Mandalay, built at a cost of 60,000 rupees by Kyanng Taga Paul Obon, a Burmese ruby merchant of that city. The old church of Amarapura was built by an Armenian and the two churches of the Tennessarim coast by a gentleman named De Castro.

Many of the 700 and more chapels and churches throughout Burma are built of jungle wood, which is destroyed in a few years by the white ants. To replace them by teak or pyingkado, not to speak of modest structures, is a matter of hope with every priest, but in their straitened finances they do the best they can and pray for Kyanng Tages to came along.—Donahoe's Magazine.

Halifax.

The evil repute of Halifax implied in the adage "Go to Halifax!" came to it by inheritance from Halifax in Yorkshire, England. Halifax law, as may be gathered from a letter of Lord Leicester quoted by Motley, was that criminals should be "condemned first and inquired upon afterward."

Halifax lay within the forest of Hardwick, where the law was that if a felon was taken with 13½ pence worth of stolen goods he should be tried by four firth burgers from four of the precinct towns and if condemned by them be hanged the next day. After this proceeding had been carried out to the letter the case might be sent to a jury.

Halifax is also credited with being the home of the guillotine, which the regent, Earl Morton, introduced into Scotland only to have his own head chopped off with it.

Rubinstein's Reply.

When Rubinstein was traveling through the United States upon a concert tour, it chanced that Barnum's circus followed almost exactly the same route chosen by the great Russian. On one occasion, when the train was filled with snake charmers, acrobats, clowns and the like, the guard, noticing perhaps Rubinstein's remarkable appearance, asked him, "Do you belong to the show?"

Turning his leonine head with a savage shake Rubinstein answered fiercely, "Sir, I am the show."

Doubling Up.

A boy of eight years was asked by his teacher where the zenith was. He replied, "That spot in the heavens directly over one's head."

To test his knowledge further the teacher asked:

"Can two persons have the same zenith at the same time?"

"They can."

"How?"

"If one stand on the other's head."

Don't Be a Waiter.

There are too many people in the world waiting for favorable conditions. Don't do it. While you are hesitating some one else is plowing ahead of you. Wait for nothing; map out a course and pursue it, rain or shine, mud or dust, storm or lull, cold or heat, good times or bad times. Wait for nothing. —Atchison Globe.

There is an immense range of difference in the brightness of the stars when the sun is taken for a standard of comparison. Some of the stars emit only one one-hundredth as much light as the sun emits. Others emit a thousand times as much light as he does. Indeed, one scientist thinks there are at least two stars each of which is probably 10,000 times as bright as the sun, which signifies that if either of those stars were as near to us as the sun is it would outshine him 10,000 times in brightness. The two stars are Canopus, which is in the southern hemisphere and invisible from our part of the earth, and Rigel, one of the two brightest stars in the constellation Orion.

The Size of Great Britain.

Great Britain is only half as big as Sumatra and double the size of Newfoundland. It stands fifth in point of size in the list of the world's islands. England without Wales is almost identical in point of size with Roumania. It is less than one-quarter as big as France or Germany. The whole British isles only occupy the one sixteenhundredth part of the surface of this globe. Great Britain is widest between Land's End and Kent. The utmost width is 325 miles. It is narrowest between Lock Broom, on the west coast of Scotland, and Bornoch firth, on the east coast. The distance between the heads of these two inlets is but twenty-four miles.

LABORERS ENGAGE IN SERIOUS FIGHT

WILLIAM HAMS KNOCKED SENSELESS BY A BRI...

His Skull Was Crushed And Scalp Badly Cut—John Ingram Jailed for the Crime.

A fight which came near resulting in the death of a colored laborer occurred shortly after 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the neighborhood of Fifteenth and Commerce streets.

Two colored laborers named John Ingram and William Hams, who had been teasing each other all of the fore part of the afternoon, finally came to blows and the affair resulted in Hams having the back part of his skull crushed in with a brick thrown by Ingram.

The men were working with a gang for Rinehart Bros. on the new Commerce street paving and were unloading brick. Their joking had continued but a short time when Hams picked up a shovel and spanked Ingram in a friendly way, not meaning any harm. Ingram, however, took exceptions to Hams' action and retaliated with a brick, which he picked up from the pile laying on the side of the street. Hams had his back turned at the time and the brick hit him on the back of the head, cutting a deep gash and crushing the skull.

Ingram seeing what he had done took to his heels and ran up Commerce street at the top of his speed. He was pursued by a dozen of his fellow laborers, who overtook him in front of J. M. Russell's property, near Fourteenth street, and brought him back to where the deed was committed. He was permitted to continue with his work until Officers Thorne and Pittinger arrived by street car and conveyed him to the city lockup. He will appear before the mayor today.

Hams was carried to a West End livery stable at the corner of Eighteenth and Commerce street in an unconscious condition, where Drs. Frazer and Duncan were called and dressed his wounds.

Roy Rinehart, who is foreman of the gang, was not present at the time, and was, therefore, unable to put a stop to the affair. He states that both of the men are from Danville, Va., and have been working for Rinehart Bros. for some time. They were always very friendly toward each other.

Ingram, in giving his statement of the trouble, states that Hams had been picking on him for some time, and, when he was spanked by his fellow laborer, become excited and threw the brick at him. The prisoner does not seem to realize that the charge against him is a serious one, although he is considerably scared.

Railroad Clerical Changes.

Many changes in the clerical department of the C. & P. shops and depots are to be made next Monday. W. W. Love, now chief clerk of the Third street freight office, will take the place of W. E. Shultz, who will commence firing on a freight run. Edward Horrigan, now bill clerk at the Twelfth street depot, will take Mr. Love's place. John Cameron, of the uppper depot, will take Mr. Horrigan's place. William Grafton, now of Bellaire, but formerly of this city, has been offered Cameron's position, and it is thought he will accept.

Mrs. Gordon's Divorce Suit.

A rather sensational divorce suit has been entered in the court at Lisbon, a hearing of which is to be had in a few days. Mrs. Martha Gordon filed suit for divorce from her husband, James H. Gordon, whose whereabouts, she states, are unknown.

A Rare Entertainment.

An entertainment or rare worth entitled "Dogma of Faith or the Catholic Doctrine Illustrated," will be given in the Immaculate Conception church Sunday evening for the benefit of the church. It will be under the direction of Rev. Father James H. Halligan and will be accompanied by an illustrated explanatory lecture.

RAILROAD VETERANS

Of Pennsylvania Lines West Soon to Hold a Big Reunion in Pittsburg.

On June 17 the sixth annual meeting of the Veteran Employes' Association of the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad will be held at Hotel Anderson, Pittsburg. This association is one of the largest of its kind in the United States and only employes of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg who were employed prior to 1870 are eligible to membership.

Transportation will be furnished to all employes and their wives by the secretary or sub-secretaries, while the present employes will receive their transportation by applying to the head of their respective departments.

A banquet will be held at the hotel at 8 o'clock in the evening and a moonlight excursion up the Monongahela river has been planned for after the banquet.

MASONIC BANQUET

Enjoyable Affair Under the Auspices of Wellsville Chapter, R. A. M.

A banquet was given last evening by Wellsville chapter, No. 55, Royal Arch Masons, in their hall on Main street in honor of the wives and friends of the members of the order, 60 in number. Plate were laid for 100 people.

The committee on ararngements was Rev. R. H. Edwards, T. R. Snowden and A. P. Dennis. The lodge room was decorated with potted plants and the tables with red carnations symbolic of the chapter's colors. No addresses of toasts were offered, by the special request of the committee, who wished to make the occasion a purely social one.

After the banquet was over a dance was enjoyed the remainder of the evening. Ormes brothers' orchestra, of East Liverpool, furnished the music.

Kelly Avenue Grading.

Work has been commenced on the grading of Kelly avenue by Contractor Rinehart. This, together with the paving of Commerce street and many other needed city improvements, has been hanging fire for some time, but all of the work will now be rushed to completion.

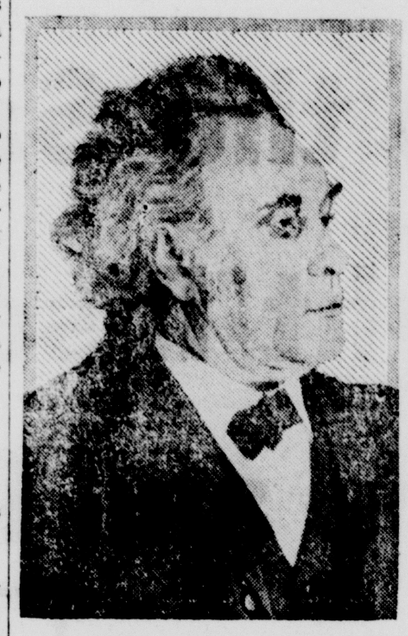
REBUKED KING EDWARD.

Clergyman Accused His Majesty of Violating the Sabbath.

Because King Edward VII. of England attended a Sunday concert he has been taken to task by the famous Congregationalist preacher, Rev. Joseph Parker, D. D., of London. During the course of a recent sermon in the City Temple Dr. Parker said that what the king does is likely to be imitated by others therefore if the king goes to a Sunday concert he deals a deadly blow to the Englishman's Sunday. This sentiment was warmly applauded by the congregation.

Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker, D. D., has been preaching since 1848. Since 1869 he has been in London, where he built the City Temple at a cost of $350,000.



REV. DR. JOSEPH PARKER.

This church has many branches and missions throughout London and enjoys large revenues. The pastor is one of the finest orators and most popular ministers in the great metropolis. He declares he wears a gown in the pulpit because he has the worst coat in the congregation. Rev. Dr. Parker has published a "People's Bible" in twenty-five volumes, being a series of sermons expounding the books of the Bible.

Dry Rubs Versus Baths.

"I used to take a bath every morning, but two a week is my limit now," said a well known athlete. "Instead I use a flesh brush every morning for an hour, and I've never been in better shape in my life. I start at the top of my head with a hairbrush, then take the fleshbrush—it is made specially for the purpose—and finish the job down to my feet until my skin is nearly the color of a boiled lobster. There's nothing like it in the world. It keeps the pores free and open, clears away the dead cuticle, doesn't enervate the system like a bath and above all is the finest exercise you can get. Rubbing the body vigorously with the brush, changing from hand to hand as the muscles of one arm tire, will keep you supple and limber. It's a great thing."—Philadelphia Record.

Why Rabbits Do Not Kill.

Cheese to be digestible should be cooked, says a scientific cook. Some people think it is only a fad to put grated cheese on crackers and cook them in the oven, but that is an excellent way of preparing this food. The Welsh rarebit, or rabbit, if properly made, is another good way of cooking cheese and is more digestible than the piece of cheese we eat with apple pie. When adding cheese to a dish, do not sprinkle it in layers, but melt it thoroughly in heated butter. Cheese to be digestible should be crumpled finely or grated, if eaten raw, and when cooked should be dissolved with milk or broth or vegetable juices.

The Canary Household.

To insure the hatching of canaries' eggs more nearly at one time the first eggs are sometimes taken away by the fanciers and replaced by artificial ones, all being put back in the nest when the bird ceases to lay. While she is sitting the prospective father lives up to his responsibilities and devotes his time to seeing that his mate does her duty, and when she leaves her nest, if she shows an inclination to dally, sharp pecks drive her back.

SOUNDING BOARD

A new sounding board is being placed at the rear of the new orchestra platform at Rock Springs park pavilion. The board is in the shape of a dome and surrounds the rear of the platform, making a very neat appearance and at the same time making the music of the orchestra carry a much further distance than heretofore.

This is a much needed improvement and will be greatly appreciated by the dancing public, as much better time can be kept in this manner. Incandescent electric lights will surround the new platform, giving the stage a very showy appearance.

MUCH INTERESTED

Are Chester Citizens in the Proposed Street Railway Line to the County Seat.

The application for a franchise for a street railway from Chester to Congo and New Cumberland will be heard by the county court at the latter town June 9. The promoters are leading citizens of New Cumberland and Hancock county, whose names have already been published.

It is said they certainly mean business, and Chester is much interested. Attorney J. R. Donehoo will represent the company.

KICKED BY ITS MATE

Valuable Horse So Injured That It Had to Be Killed.

Edward McGahan was forced to kill a very fine horse last evening. He had a good team of working horses, and has been accustomed to turning them loose in a lot near the planing mill. Last night they began kicking each other. The best one had a hind leg broken, and was so injured that it had to be killed.

Valuable Horse Badly Hurt.

Sheriff Allison, of New Cumberland, will probably lose a very valuable driving horse. Patrick Dubb, one of the sheriff's assistants, recently turned the horse into a vacant lot with several ponies. The ponies ran the horse into a barbed wire fence injuring the horse so that it nearly bled to death.

Inspecting the New Road.

J. Wesley Flower, J. H. Campbell and E. W. Hewitt, the county commissioners from New Cumberland, were in Chester this morning, inspect the new county road which has just been completed by C. A. Smith and others, with a view to its acceptance by the county.

Coming Wedding.

Charles Hobbs, a well known traveling man residing in New Cumberland, and Miss Leona Stewart, daughter of Robert Stewart, of Gas Valley, will be married at the home of the bride next Tuesday. They will reside in New Cumberland.

No Council Meeting.

There was no quorum present, and the town council held no meeting last evening. Manager Maxwell, of the Rock Springs park, was present with written promises of what the street railway would do regarding paving.

CHESTER NOTES.

A. M. Noling has returned to Wheeling after visiting a day in Chester.

'Squire W. C. Johnston has returned from a three days' business trip.

'Squire W. C. Johnston is away on a business trip for a week or ten days.

Curious Ways of Hopi Maids.

In this age of advanced views on matrimonial entanglements and obligations it is refreshing to read of the curious marriage customs of the gentle savages of the Hopi tribe in Arizona. Here the Hopi maid does the wooing, for the women of the Hopi brand are held in much higher respect than are the coppery sisters of kindred tribes. And when the Hopi maid has selected the youth of her choice she goes to his house as a suitor for his hand and testifies both to her devotion and her industry by grinding corn beneath his roof until he is sufficiently impressed with her qualities to yield and name the day.

When the Hopi maid leads the man of her choice to the tribal altar, she does so in the midst of elaborate ceremonials of long duration, and when all is over she takes him to her home. Nor does she yield this ownership when she weds. On the contrary, the house, the fields and all the property save the herds belong to the wife. This, as will be seen, greatly facilitates the Hopi method of obtaining a divorce, for when the wife tires of her husband she simply takes his saddle from her floor and tosses it out through her door, and the divorce is completed. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

No Chance For Him.

"Now that we are engaged," said the fair young thing, "I will tell you that I do not fear mice."

"That is nice," said the prospective groom.

"And," continued the fiancee, "I can drive nails without hitting my thumb, and I know how to use a paper cutter without ruining a book, and I can add a row of figures without making a separate sum for each consecutive figure, and I can build a fire, and I can tell when a picture is hung straight on the wall."

Here the man drew himself up with much dignity and sorrow and cried:

"Then I cannot marry you alas!"

"Why?" gasped the girl.

"What prospect is there for my ever being able to demonstrate the superiority of man over woman if I marry a woman who possesses such traits of character as you?"—Baltimore American.

The Cocoa Plantation.

A traveler in South America, where the cocoa tree is largely cultivated, speaks of the great care with which the young plants have to be protected from the sun, which, if very strong, is fatal to them. To secure this protection the planters shield them by banana trees and plantain trees, the broad leaves of which give them the needed shade. And even when they are fully grown they need protection, which is given by trees known as "immortels," or, as the planters call them, "the mother of the cocoa." Thus the whole cocoa plantation has a sort of canopy.

LABORERS ENGAGE IN SERIOUS FIGHT

WILLIAM HAMS KNOCKED SENSELESS BY A BRI...

His Skull Was Crushed And Scalp Badly Cut—John Ingram Jailed for the Crime.

A fight which came near resulting in the death of a colored laborer occurred shortly after 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the neighborhood of Fifteenth and Commerce streets.

Two colored laborers named John Ingram and William Hams, who had been teasing each other all of the fore part of the afternoon, finally came to blows and the affair resulted in Hams having the back part of his skull crushed in with a brick thrown by Ingram.

The men were working with a gang for Rinehart Bros. on the new Commerce street paving and were unloading brick. Their joking had continued but a short time when Hams picked up a shovel and spanked Ingram in a friendly way, not meaning any harm. Ingram, however, took exceptions to Hams' action and retaliated with a brick, which he picked up from the pile laying on the side of the street. Hams had his back turned at the time and the brick hit him on the back of the head, cutting a deep gash and crushing the skull.

Ingram seeing what he had done took to his heels and ran up Commerce street at the top of his speed. He was pursued by a dozen of his fellow laborers, who overtook him in front of J. M. Russell's property, near Fourteenth street, and brought him back to where the deed was committed. He was permitted to continue with his work until Officers Thorne and Pittinger arrived by street car and conveyed him to the city lockup. He will appear before the mayor today.

Hams was carried to a West End livery stable at the corner of Eighteenth and Commerce street in an unconscious condition, where Drs. Frazer and Duncan were called and dressed his wounds.

Roy Rinehart, who is foreman of the gang, was not present at the time, and was, therefore, unable to put a stop to the affair. He states that both of the men are from Danville, Va., and have been working for Rinehart Bros. for some time. They were always very friendly toward each other.

Ingram, in giving his statement of the trouble, states that Hams had been picking on him for some time, and, when he was spanked by his fellow laborer, become excited and threw the brick at him. The prisoner does not seem to realize that the charge against him is a serious one, although he is considerably scared.

Railroad Clerical Changes.

Many changes in the clerical department of the C. & P. shops and depots are to be made next Monday. W. W. Love, now chief clerk of the Third street freight office, will take the place of W. E. Shultz, who will commence firing on a freight run. Edward Horrigan, now bill clerk at the Twelfth street depot, will take Mr. Love's place. John Cameron, of the uppper depot, will take Mr. Horrigan's place. William Grafton, now of Bellaire, but formerly of this city, has been offered Cameron's position, and it is thought he will accept.

Mrs. Gordon's Divorce Suit.

A rather sensational divorce suit has been entered in the court at Lisbon, a hearing of which is to be had in a few days. Mrs. Martha Gordon filed suit for divorce from her husband, James H. Gordon, whose whereabouts, she states, are unknown.

A Rare Entertainment.

An entertainment or rare worth entitled "Dogma of Faith or the Catholic Doctrine Illustrated," will be given in the Immaculate Conception church Sunday evening for the benefit of the church. It will be under the direction of Rev. Father James H. Halligan and will be accompanied by an illustrated explanatory lecture.

RAILROAD VETERANS

Of Pennsylvania Lines West Soon to Hold a Big Reunion in Pittsburg.

On June 17 the sixth annual meeting of the Veteran Employes' Association of the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad will be held at Hotel Anderson, Pittsburg. This association is one of the largest of its kind in the United States and only employes of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg who were employed prior to 1870 are eligible to membership.

Transportation will be furnished to all employes and their wives by the secretary or sub-secretaries, while the present employes will receive their transportation by applying to the head of their respective departments.

A banquet will be held at the hotel at 8 o'clock in the evening and a moonlight excursion up the Monongahela river has been planned for after the banquet.

MASONIC BANQUET

Enjoyable Affair Under the Auspices of Wellsville Chapter, R. A. M.

A banquet was given last evening by Wellsville chapter, No. 55, Royal Arch Masons, in their hall on Main street in honor of the wives and friends of the members of the order, 60 in number. Plate were laid for 100 people.

The committee on ararngements was Rev. R. H. Edwards, T. R. Snowden and A. P. Dennis. The lodge room was decorated with potted plants and the tables with red carnations symbolic of the chapter's colors. No addresses of toasts were offered, by the special request of the committee, who wished to make the occasion a purely social one.

After the banquet was over a dance was enjoyed the remainder of the evening. Ormes brothers' orchestra, of East Liverpool, furnished the music.

Kelly Avenue Grading.

Work has been commenced on the grading of Kelly avenue by Contractor Rinehart. This, together with the paving of Commerce street and many other needed city improvements, has been hanging fire for some time, but all of the work will now be rushed to completion.

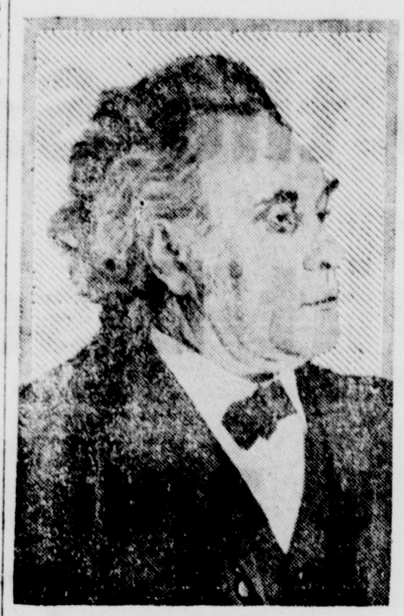
REBUKED KING EDWARD.

Clergyman Accused His Majesty of Violating the Sabbath.

Because King Edward VII. of England attended a Sunday concert he has been taken to task by the famous Congregationalist preacher, Rev. Joseph Parker, D. D., of London. During the course of a recent sermon in the City Temple Dr. Parker said that what the king does is likely to be imitated by others therefore if the king goes to a Sunday concert he deals a deadly blow to the Englishman's Sunday. This sentiment was warmly applauded by the congregation.

Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker, D. D., has been preaching since 1848. Since 1869 he has been in London, where he built the City Temple at a cost of $350,000.



REV. DR. JOSEPH PARKER.

This church has many branches and missions throughout London and enjoys large revenues. The pastor is one of the finest orators and most popular ministers in the great metropolis. He declares he wears a gown in the pulpit because he has the worst coat in the congregation. Rev. Dr. Parker has published a "People's Bible" in twenty-five volumes, being a series of sermons expounding the books of the Bible.

Dry Rubs Versus Baths.

"I used to take a bath every morning, but two a week is my limit now," said a well known athlete. "Instead I use a flesh brush every morning for an hour, and I've never been in better shape in my life. I start at the top of my head with a hairbrush, then take the fleshbrush—it is made specially for the purpose—and finish the job down to my feet until my skin is nearly the color of a boiled lobster. There's nothing like it in the world. It keeps the pores free and open, clears away the dead cuticle, doesn't enervate the system like a bath and above all is the finest exercise you can get. Rubbing the body vigorously with the brush, changing from hand to hand as the muscles of one arm tire, will keep you supple and limber. It's a great thing."—Philadelphia Record.

Why Rabbits Do Not Kill.

Cheese to be digestible should be cooked, says a scientific cook. Some people think it is only a fad to put grated cheese on crackers and cook them in the oven, but that is an excellent way of preparing this food. The Welsh rarebit, or rabbit, if properly made, is another good way of cooking cheese and is more digestible than the piece of cheese we eat with apple pie. When adding cheese to a dish, do not sprinkle it in layers, but melt it thoroughly in heated butter. Cheese to be digestible should be crumpled finely or grated, if eaten raw, and when cooked should be dissolved with milk or broth or vegetable juices.

The Canary Household.

To insure the hatching of canaries' eggs more nearly at one time the first eggs are sometimes taken away by the fanciers and replaced by artificial ones, all being put back in the nest when the bird ceases to lay. While she is sitting the prospective father lives up to his responsibilities and devotes his time to seeing that his mate does her duty, and when she leaves her nest, if she shows an inclination to dally, sharp pecks drive her back.

SOUNDING BOARD

A new sounding board is being placed at the rear of the new orchestra platform at Rock Springs park pavilion. The board is in the shape of a dome and surrounds the rear of the platform, making a very neat appearance and at the same time making the music of the orchestra carry a much further distance than heretofore.

This is a much needed improvement and will be greatly appreciated by the dancing public, as much better time can be kept in this manner. Incandescent electric lights will surround the new platform, giving the stage a very showy appearance.

MUCH INTERESTED

Are Chester Citizens in the Proposed Street Railway Line to the County Seat.

The application for a franchise for a street railway from Chester to Congo and New Cumberland will be heard by the county court at the latter town June 9. The promoters are leading citizens of New Cumberland and Hancock county, whose names have already been published.

It is said they certainly mean business, and Chester is much interested. Attorney J. R. Donehoo will represent the company.

Valuable Horse So Injured That It Had to Be Killed.

Edward McGahan was forced to kill a very fine horse last evening. He had a good team of working horses, and has been accustomed to turning them loose in a lot near the planing mill. Last night they began kicking each other. The best one had a hind leg broken, and was so injured that it had to be killed.

Valuable Horse Badly Hurt.

Sheriff Allison, of New Cumberland, will probably lose a very valuable driving horse. Patrick Dubb, one of the sheriff's assistants, recently turned the horse into a vacant lot with several ponies. The ponies ran the horse into a barbed wire fence injuring the horse so that it nearly bled to death.

Inspecting the New Road.

THE VERY WORST YET

PROMPTLY SHIPPED HOME

Score Yesterday Stood 15 to 0 in East Liverpool's Favor—The Question Is: Has Pittsburg Any Amateurs Who Can Play Ball?

A climax was reached in East Liverpool base ball yesterday afternoon in West End park when the locals played the Iron City Athletic club, of Pittsburg. Nobody thought that the time would come again when a poorer exhibition than the one put up by the Civics, of Allegheny, would be witnessed within the city limits. When the visitors yesterday showed themselves far inferior to any team that ever walked on a Columbiana county diamond the chagrin of the fans can be imagined.

At the end of the eighth inning the game was called much to the satisfaction of all and the Smoky City aspirants were given railroad fare with instructions to leave East Liverpool within two hours. They left on the 6:40 train and showed good judgment in doing so. Manager Walsh and Associate Manager Rose have the sympathy of every one. They did the best they could to get an attraction. Certainly they cannot be censured when they date teams that have been given a reputation by the Pittsburg sporting editors. There is a growing belief here among those who watch ball records that every amateur team in Pittsburg has been overrated. Some day Allegheny county may wake up and become proficient enough in the sport at least to make a contest with East Liverpool interesting. Up to date teams sent here from Pittsburg have been so easy that it has had anything but a good effect on base ball.

Only 15 runs were scored yesterday by the locals and only a goose egg by the visitors. The next time they may do better.

Hamilton, Davis and F. Heckathorn batted the ball unmercifully, while Kennedy and J. Heckathorn had but little compassion on it. A total of 14 hits without the least exertion was the result of the onslaught.

Patterson pitched just as hard as he does when he is against a good team. He improves in every game and will no doubt be one of the strongest twirlers in the state ere the season closes. The remaining members of the team played well and got a little practice which they appreciate very much, having had but about a dozen practice games this season.

A STUPENDOUS ERROR

In a New Law Robs Supreme Court of Much of Its Jurisdiction.

Columbus, May 23.—(Special)—A stupendous error was discovered yesterday in the Royer law, enacted by the last general assembly, by Judge Okey, of Columbus.

The law was enacted to repeal the section prohibiting the admission of cases involving less than $300 in the supreme court, but it develops that it takes away from the court jurisdiction in about 95 per cent of the cases which it passes upon.

AUTHOR OF "AUDREY."

Talented Author Spent but Three Months at School.

The success of Mary Johnston, author of the novel "Audrey," probably the most successful book of the year, seems the more remarkable when it is known that the talented writer spent but three months of her life at school. Her health was so frail as to forbid continued application to study. Although taught at home, at first by her family and later by governesses, her education was always conducted with due regard for her physical limitations. While still in her early teens the future author was sent to a finishing school at Atlanta, but in three months her health broke down, and she was taken home. That ended Miss Johnston's school days.

Mary Johnston was born thirty-one years ago at Buchanan, Va. Here the early years of her life were spent. When fifteen years old, her father moved to Birmingham, Ala., where she still makes her home. A year later her mother died, and the girl of sixteen, the eldest of several brothers and sisters, was called upon to direct the affairs of the household. But Miss Johnston was not an ordinary girl and in doing for others found that inspiration which has brought success.

Miss Johnston's literary favorites are Shakespeare, Marlowe, Spenser, the essayists of the eighteenth century, the balladists of Scotland and Shelley, Keats and Browning. To a course of reading which has left a mind impregnated with the spirit and idiom of the times of which she writes is added an imagination so fertile and vivid as to be almost a sixth sense.

Miss Johnston's writing is done at no particular hour and in no particular place, although a very great deal of it has been accomplished in the open air. "Prisoners of Hope," which was begun when the author was living in New York city, was largely written in a secluded nook in Central park. Much of "To Have and to Hold" was written at a small mountain resort in Virginia.

THE VERY WORST YET

Score Yesterday Stood 15 to 0 in East Liverpool's Favor—The Question Is: Has Pittsburg Any Amateurs Who Can Play Ball?

A climax was reached in East Liverpool base ball yesterday afternoon in West End park when the locals played the Iron City Athletic club, of Pittsburg. Nobody thought that the time would come again when a poorer exhibition than the one put up by the Civics, of Allegheny, would be witnessed within the city limits. When the visitors yesterday showed themselves far inferior to any team that ever walked on a Columbiana county diamond the chagrin of the fans can be imagined.

At the end of the eighth inning the game was called much to the satisfaction of all and the Smoky City aspirants were given railroad fare with instructions to leave East Liverpool within two hours. They left on the 6:40 train and showed good judgment in doing so. Manager Walsh and Associate Manager Rose have the sympathy of every one. They did the best they could to get an attraction. Certainly they cannot be censured when they date teams that have been given a reputation by the Pittsburg sporting editors. There is a growing belief here among those who watch ball records that every amateur team in Pittsburg has been overrated. Some day Allegheny county may wake up and become proficient enough in the sport at least to make a contest with East Liverpool interesting. Up to date teams sent here from Pittsburg have been so easy that it has had anything but a good effect on base ball.

Only 15 runs were scored yesterday by the locals and only a goose egg by the visitors. The next time they may do better.

Hamilton, Davis and F. Heckathorn batted the ball unmercifully, while Kennedy and J. Heckathorn had but little compassion on it. A total of 14 hits without the least exertion was the result of the onslaught.

Patterson pitched just as hard as he does when he is against a good team. He improves in every game and will no doubt be one of the strongest twirlers in the state ere the season closes. The remaining members of the team played well and got a little practice which they appreciate very much, having had but about a dozen practice games this season.

A STUPENDOUS ERROR

Columbus, May 23.—(Special)—A stupendous error was discovered yesterday in the Royer law, enacted by the last general assembly, by Judge Okey, of Columbus.

The law was enacted to repeal the section prohibiting the admission of cases involving less than $300 in the supreme court, but it develops that it takes away from the court jurisdiction in about 95 per cent of the cases which it passes upon.

Ben Hur Tribe at Sebring.

A tribe of Ben Hur, having on its charter the names of 32 of the citizens of Sebring, was organized Wednesday night. The tribe is No. 140, and officers elected were as follows: David Duncan, past chief; John Graham, chief; Ed Bordman, judge; Bertha Leonard, scribe; Alonzo Aiken, keeper of tribute; Lizzie Graham, teacher; Henry Morgan, captain; Caleb Halen, guide; Tom Wiggins, keeper of outer gate; David Watt, keeper of inner gate. Dr. Haggart, Ed Bordman and Harriet Johnson, trustees.

AUTHOR OF "AUDREY."

Talented Author Spent but Three Months at School.

The success of Mary Johnston, author of the novel "Audrey," probably the most successful book of the year, seems the more remarkable when it is known that the talented writer spent but three months of her life at school. Her health was so frail as to forbid continued application to study. Although taught at home, at first by her family and later by governesses, her education was always conducted with due regard for her physical limitations. While still in her early teens the future author was sent to a finishing school at Atlanta, but in three months her health broke down, and she was taken home. That ended Miss Johnston's school days.

Mary Johnston was born thirty-one years ago at Buchanan, Va. Here the early years of her life were spent. When fifteen years old, her father moved to Birmingham, Ala., where she still makes her home. A year later her mother died, and the girl of sixteen, the eldest of several brothers and sisters, was called upon to direct the affairs of the household. But Miss Johnston was not an ordinary girl and in doing for others found that inspiration which has brought success.

Miss Johnston's literary favorites are Shakespeare, Marlowe, Spenser, the essayists of the eighteenth century, the balladists of Scotland and Shelley, Keats and Browning. To a course of reading which has left a mind impregnated with the spirit and idiom of the times of which she writes is added an imagination so fertile and vivid as to be almost a sixth sense.

Miss Johnston's writing is done at no particular hour and in no particular place, although a very great deal of it has been accomplished in the open air. "Prisoners of Hope," which was begun when the author was living in New York city, was largely written in a secluded nook in Central park. Much of "To Have and to Hold" was written at a small mountain resort in Virginia.

CROWDS TO COME

To This City Memorial Day for K. of C. Installation Exercises.

On Memorial day the Knights of Columbus of this city will initiate a class of 45 new members into the order, this work consuming the greater part of the entire day. Arrangements have been completed to entertain not less than 500 visitors, and this number may be largely increased. Members of the order and their friends will be present from Dennison, Wheeling, Steubenville, Alliance, Pittsburg and Youngstown.

A special train will be run to this city from Dennison, which will return about 11 o'clock in the evening. Three halls have been secured to carry out the program of the day, which will be under the point direction of the East Liverpool and Wellsville councils.

WAR ON BREWERS

Declared By Saloon Men, Who Say the Beer Makers Are in a Trust.

Columbus, May 23.—(Special)—The retail liquor dealers will bring suit in the common pleas court of this county and in the United States court against the Ohio Brewers' association of the Brewers' Protective association to oust them from their charter rights for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. The claim is made that both associations are restricting trade, maintaining prices and doing other things contrary to the law.

The Brewers' Protective association met in this city this week and decided to raise the price of beer, which caused a general uprising among the saloon keepers. The papers in the suit will be filed in a few days. The financial backing necessary to prosecute the case will be furnished by the retail liquor dealers' league.

CHARGED WITH ARSON

An Alliance Woman Under Arrest For Setting Fire to Her Home.

Alliance, May 23.—Mrs. Jeff Callahan was arrested here yesterday afternoon on an affidavit filed by Deputy Fire Marshal Hart, of Akron, charging her with arson.

Fire was discovered in Mrs. Callahan's house Tuesday night Suspicious circumstances connected with the fire led to the belief that she had attempted to destroy her home in order to get insurance money.

Before a charge was filed aganst the woman she started away from the city on foot, in company with her little boy. Chief of Police Howell overtook her yesterday afternoon and brought her back to the city. She denies the charge against her and will have a preliminary hearing today before the mayor.

Mrs. Callahan's maiden name was Ware. She has a number of relatives living at Patmos, near Salem, and also a sister in Salem.

EDUCATIONAL TEST.

House Adopted Amendment to Immigration Bill.

Washington, May 23.—The house yesterday resumed discussion of the immigration bill. Almost the entire day was taken up with the amendment offered by Mr. Underwood, of Alabama, requiring an educational test for immigrants to this country. It was adopted. The house disagreed to the amendments of the senate to the omnibus public building bill and it was sent to conference.

ARMORED CANOES USED ON PHILIPPINE RIVERS.

Large ships are of little use among the innumerable islands of the Philippines, and the authorities have had constructed a number of armored canoes which carry rapid firing guns and are very formidable in a fight. They are sent up small rivers and into shallow bays and are proving of great value in police work and guerilla warfare. Since the rebellion began in the Philippines, many boats full of American soldiers and sailors have been ambushed while passing up rivers or through narrow straits between the various islands that lie near together. Since the armored canoes were constructed, however, the number of these ambushes has greatly decreased and the canoes are really of more practical value than big ships like the battleships, armored cruisers and gunboats. The quick firing guns are protected by metal shields.

DESERTING FORT DE FRANCE.

Those That Have Not Left Are Anxious to Go—Morne Rouge Evacuated.

Fort De France, May 23.—The recent rains of ashes and volcano rocks weighing as much as 75 grammes which have fallen here caused so much consternation among the inhabitants of Fort de France that those who have not left the city are anxious to do so, and large numbers are emigrating to the island of Guadeloupe, where, it is estimated here, 1,200 people from Martinique have already sought shelter.

During her last exploring trip about the island, the French cruiser Suchet, which did not stop at St. Pierre, noticed that all the formerly cultivated land between Grande Reviere and Marigot has been completely destroyed. The inhabitants of those two towns have suffered and are still suffering a great deal, but they have not yet determined to abandon those localities, and efforts are being made to supply them with provisions.

The Suchet also reported that as she approached that part of the island where the land was in a better state of preservation, especially between Macouba and Lorraine, a shower of stones and sulphur caused those of the population of Morne Rouge who had remained there to hastily evacuate that place.

The French gunboat Joffroy took on board about 150 of the inhabitants of the neighborhood of Le Carbet.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY UNION.

Returned Missionaries Made Speeches. Dr. Hahn Addressed General Session.

St. Paul, May 23.—The Baptist American Missionary union was addressed yesterday by a number of returned missionaries. The speakers were Dr. Josephine M. Bixby, from China; Mrs. A. A. Bennett, of Yokohama, Japan; Dr. John E. Clough and Mrs. Clough, of India, and Dr. Naomi Garton, of Burmah. Similar addresses occupied much of the general session which followed.

The principal address of the day was by Dr. Benjamin D. Hahn, of Springfield, Mass., on the development of the far east.

A message of love and greeting was ordered sent to Dr. George D. Boardman, former president of the union, who is in very feeble health.

Other speakers were Rev. W. F. Armstrong, missionary at Rangoon, Burmah, and Rev. Joseph Clark, of the Congo mission in Africa.

Ex-Bank Officials Held For Trial.

Detroit, May 23.—Frank C. Andrews and H. R. Andrews, vice president and cashier respectively of the wrecked City Savings bank, and who are charged with the collapse of that institution, were held for trial in the recorder's court on July 2 by Judge Whelan, at the close of the police court examination yesterday, and last night at a special session of the police court they were admitted to bail in the sum of $30,000 each.

AUTHOR AND SOLDIER.

Descendant of "Old Put" Writes Novel, With Scene Laid In Philippines.

Mr. Israel Putnam, the author of "Daniel Everton, Volunteer-Regular," is a resident of Saratoga Springs, N. Y. He is a great-grandson of Gideon Putnam, who founded that village, and a collateral kinsman of the famous Revolutionary general whose name he bears. He is a son of the late Justice John R. Putnam of the New York supreme court.

Mr. Putnam has spent many years in travel and is familiar with the far east. At the outbreak of hostilities in the Philippines, two years ago, he found himself in Manila and was a witness of the events which took place in and about that city at the time when it was held virtually in a state of siege by the Filipinos. Later on, when the aggressive operations on the part of our forces were begun, he accompanied several of the expeditions into the interior. At this time he was commissioned a second lieutenant and assigned to the Fourteenth infantry.

After serving with that regiment south of Manila for about two months Mr. Putnam was transferred to the Sixth infantry and went to the island of Negros, where he remained for over a year. It was during his service on this island that he gathered the material for "Daniel Everton." His duties brought him into contact with the opulent sugar planters as well as with the Filipinos, and the types of native character which he has presented in his novel have at this time a strong claim upon national interest.

On his return to the United States, eighteen months ago, Mr. Putnam resigned from the army, but he did not relinquish his keen interest in the Filipino race. He is giving evidence of this by returning to the islands as editor in chief of the Manila Cablenews, a daily paper about to be established there by the Manila Publishing company.

Physical Formation of Mexico.

Mexico possesses a curious physical formation. Rising rapidly by a succession of terraces from the low, sandy coasts on the east and west, it culminates in a central plateau, running in a northwesterly and southeasterly direction and having an elevation varying from 4,000 to 8,000 feet above the sea. High above this plateau tower the snow capped crests of several volcanoes, most of which are extinct. Ten of them are over 12,000 feet in height, and three look down upon fertile valleys from altitudes of 17,782, 17,356 and 16,060. These are Popocatapetl, Orizaba and Ixtaccihuatl.

The Voice of Experience.

Old Gentleman—Won't pay. I tried that. My boy drew the money and got married with it, and now I've got to support him and his wife and eight children.

Ptolemy's Nuptial Yacht.

Ptolemy Philopater possessed a nuptial yacht, the Thalamegon, 312 feet long and 45 feet deep. A graceful gallery supported by curiously carved columns ran round the vessel, and within were temples of Venus and of Bacchus. Her masts were 100 feet high, and her sails and cordage of royal purple hue.

Had a Chance.

Mother—Do you think that young man has saved anything?

Daughter—Undoubtedly, ma. He says he has never loved before.

TWO MEN AND A MORAL.

An Incident That Supplies Considerable Food For Thought.

These ought ye to do and not to leave the others undone.

A pale young man sat down on a bench in the park. He put a torn bag of tools under the bench.

A small, red faced man came behind him. He stooped to steal the bag.

The pale man turned and said in a slow, tired way: "Drop that. It ain't worth stealing."

The ruddy man said, "Not if you're lookin'."

The pale man set the bag at his feet and said:

"It's a poor business you're in."

"You don't look as if yours was any better." He sat down. "What's your callin'?"

"I'm an ironworker; bridge work."

"Don't look strong enough."

"That's so. I'm just out of the hospital; got hurt three months ago."

"I'm just out of hospital, too," he grinned.

"What hospital?"

"Sing Sing."

"What? Jail?"

"Yes; not bad in winter, either. There's a society helps a fellow after you quit that hospital. Gives you good clothes too."

"Clothes? Is that so?"

"Gets you work"—

"Work—good God! I wish they'd get me some."

"You ain't bad enough. Go and grab somethin'. Get a short sentence; first crime. Come out and get looked after by nice ladies."

"My God!"

"Didn't they do nothin' for you when you got out of that hospital?"

"No! Why the devil should they? I'm only an honest mechanic. Are you goin'?"

"Yes. I've got to go after that job. It'll give me time to look about me. Gosh, but you look bad! Goodby."

The ruddy man rose, looked back, jingled the few coins in his pocket, hesitated and walked away whistling.

The pale man sat still on the bench, staring down at the ragged bag of tools at his feet.—Dr. Weir Mitchell in Century.

Beyond Belief.

When Abraham Lincoln was a young man, his prodigious strength and his skill in wrestling were matters of note throughout central Illinois. Few indeed were the men who could boast of having laid him on his back.

Somewhere along in the thirties there was a case on trial in one of the circuit courts in that section in which an effort was made to impeach the testimony of one of the witnesses. The evidence was conflicting. Some would believe the witness on oath and others would not.

At last a middle aged man with a determined expression of countenance was called to the stand. The usual question was put touching the reputation of the witness for truth and veracity:

"Would you believe him on oath?"

"No, I wouldn't," he answered, and before the lawyer on the opposite side could interpose he gave his reason:

"I heerd him braggin' onct that he'd throwed Abe Lincoln in a fair an' square rassle."

No other witnesses were called. The attempt to impeach was successful.—Youth's Companion.

WAR ON BREWERS

Declared By Saloon Men, Who Say the Beer Makers Are in a Trust.

Columbus, May 23.—(Special)—The retail liquor dealers will bring suit in the common pleas court of this county and in the United States court against the Ohio Brewers' association of the Brewers' Protective association to oust them from their charter rights for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. The claim is made that both associations are restricting trade, maintaining prices and doing other things contrary to the law.

The Brewers' Protective association met in this city this week and decided to raise the price of beer, which caused a general uprising among the saloon keepers. The papers in the suit will be filed in a few days. The financial backing necessary to prosecute the case will be furnished by the retail liquor dealers' league.

An Alliance Woman Under Arrest For Setting Fire to Her Home.

Alliance, May 23.—Mrs. Jeff Callahan was arrested here yesterday afternoon on an affidavit filed by Deputy Fire Marshal Hart, of Akron, charging her with arson.

Fire was discovered in Mrs. Callahan's house Tuesday night Suspicious circumstances connected with the fire led to the belief that she had attempted to destroy her home in order to get insurance money.

Before a charge was filed aganst the woman she started away from the city on foot, in company with her little boy. Chief of Police Howell overtook her yesterday afternoon and brought her back to the city. She denies the charge against her and will have a preliminary hearing today before the mayor.

Mrs. Callahan's maiden name was Ware. She has a number of relatives living at Patmos, near Salem, and also a sister in Salem.

EDUCATIONAL TEST.

House Adopted Amendment to Immigration Bill.

Washington, May 23.—The house yesterday resumed discussion of the immigration bill. Almost the entire day was taken up with the amendment offered by Mr. Underwood, of Alabama, requiring an educational test for immigrants to this country. It was adopted. The house disagreed to the amendments of the senate to the omnibus public building bill and it was sent to conference.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Ohio—Partly cloudy today, with showers in east and cooler in north portions; fresh south to southwest winds. Tomorrow, fair.

Western Pennsylvania — Showers today; cooler in south portion. Tomorrow, probably fair; fresh to brisk south to southwest winds.

West Virginia—Partly cloudy today, probably showers and cooler. Tomorrow, fair.

Topeka at Port-Au-Prince.

Washington, May 23.—A cablegram received at the state department from Minister Powell, at Port-Au-Prince, announces the arrival there yesterday of the United States steamship Topeka. The ship will watch the town during the progress of the revolution and protect the foreign element.

Pauncefote But Slightly Improved.

Washington, May 23.—The condition of Lord Pauncefote was reported to be but slightly improved yesterday, and he still continues very weak.

Claims Peace Is Assured.

London, May 23.—The Daily Chronicle this morning claims authority for saying that peace is assured in South Africa.

Physically, Not Mentally.

Dick—You were born to be a writer, Charlie.

Charlie (blushingly)—Ah, you've seen one of the things I've turned off.

Dick—No. I was thinking what a splendid ear you have for carrying a pen.—Stray Stories.

ARMORED CANOES USED ON PHILIPPINE RIVERS.

Large ships are of little use among the innumerable islands of the Philippines, and the authorities have had constructed a number of armored canoes which carry rapid firing guns and are very formidable in a fight. They are sent up small rivers and into shallow bays and are proving of great value in police work and guerilla warfare. Since the rebellion began in the Philippines, many boats full of American soldiers and sailors have been ambushed while passing up rivers or through narrow straits between the various islands that lie near together. Since the armored canoes were constructed, however, the number of these ambushes has greatly decreased and the canoes are really of more practical value than big ships like the battleships, armored cruisers and gunboats. The quick firing guns are protected by metal shields.

DESERTING FORT DE FRANCE.

Those That Have Not Left Are Anxious to Go—Morne Rouge Evacuated.

Fort De France, May 23.—The recent rains of ashes and volcano rocks weighing as much as 75 grammes which have fallen here caused so much consternation among the inhabitants of Fort de France that those who have not left the city are anxious to do so, and large numbers are emigrating to the island of Guadeloupe, where, it is estimated here, 1,200 people from Martinique have already sought shelter.

During her last exploring trip about the island, the French cruiser Suchet, which did not stop at St. Pierre, noticed that all the formerly cultivated land between Grande Reviere and Marigot has been completely destroyed. The inhabitants of those two towns have suffered and are still suffering a great deal, but they have not yet determined to abandon those localities, and efforts are being made to supply them with provisions.

The Suchet also reported that as she approached that part of the island where the land was in a better state of preservation, especially between Macouba and Lorraine, a shower of stones and sulphur caused those of the population of Morne Rouge who had remained there to hastily evacuate that place.

The French gunboat Joffroy took on board about 150 of the inhabitants of the neighborhood of Le Carbet.

Returned Missionaries Made Speeches. Dr. Hahn Addressed General Session.

St. Paul, May 23.—The Baptist American Missionary union was addressed yesterday by a number of returned missionaries. The speakers were Dr. Josephine M. Bixby, from China; Mrs. A. A. Bennett, of Yokohama, Japan; Dr. John E. Clough and Mrs. Clough, of India, and Dr. Naomi Garton, of Burmah. Similar addresses occupied much of the general session which followed.

The principal address of the day was by Dr. Benjamin D. Hahn, of Springfield, Mass., on the development of the far east.

A message of love and greeting was ordered sent to Dr. George D. Boardman, former president of the union, who is in very feeble health.

Other speakers were Rev. W. F. Armstrong, missionary at Rangoon, Burmah, and Rev. Joseph Clark, of the Congo mission in Africa.

Ex-Bank Officials Held For Trial.

Detroit, May 23.—Frank C. Andrews and H. R. Andrews, vice president and cashier respectively of the wrecked City Savings bank, and who are charged with the collapse of that institution, were held for trial in the recorder's court on July 2 by Judge Whelan, at the close of the police court examination yesterday, and last night at a special session of the police court they were admitted to bail in the sum of $30,000 each.

AUTHOR AND SOLDIER.

Descendant of "Old Put" Writes Novel, With Scene Laid In Philippines.

Mr. Israel Putnam, the author of "Daniel Everton, Volunteer-Regular," is a resident of Saratoga Springs, N. Y. He is a great-grandson of Gideon Putnam, who founded that village, and a collateral kinsman of the famous Revolutionary general whose name he bears. He is a son of the late Justice John R. Putnam of the New York supreme court.

Mr. Putnam has spent many years in travel and is familiar with the far east. At the outbreak of hostilities in the Philippines, two years ago, he found himself in Manila and was a witness of the events which took place in and about that city at the time when it was held virtually in a state of siege by the Filipinos. Later on, when the aggressive operations on the part of our forces were begun, he accompanied several of the expeditions into the interior. At this time he was commissioned a second lieutenant and assigned to the Fourteenth infantry.

After serving with that regiment south of Manila for about two months Mr. Putnam was transferred to the Sixth infantry and went to the island of Negros, where he remained for over a year. It was during his service on this island that he gathered the material for "Daniel Everton." His duties brought him into contact with the opulent sugar planters as well as with the Filipinos, and the types of native character which he has presented in his novel have at this time a strong claim upon national interest.

On his return to the United States, eighteen months ago, Mr. Putnam resigned from the army, but he did not relinquish his keen interest in the Filipino race. He is giving evidence of this by returning to the islands as editor in chief of the Manila Cablenews, a daily paper about to be established there by the Manila Publishing company.

Physical Formation of Mexico.

Mexico possesses a curious physical formation. Rising rapidly by a succession of terraces from the low, sandy coasts on the east and west, it culminates in a central plateau, running in a northwesterly and southeasterly direction and having an elevation varying from 4,000 to 8,000 feet above the sea. High above this plateau tower the snow capped crests of several volcanoes, most of which are extinct. Ten of them are over 12,000 feet in height, and three look down upon fertile valleys from altitudes of 17,782, 17,356 and 16,060. These are Popocatapetl, Orizaba and Ixtaccihuatl.

The Voice of Experience.

Young Father—I've just made a big deposit in a savings bank in trust for my baby boy. When he is twenty-one, I will hand him the bankbook, tell him the amount of the original deposit and let him see how things count up at compound interest.

Old Gentleman—Won't pay. I tried that. My boy drew the money and got married with it, and now I've got to support him and his wife and eight children.

Ptolemy's Nuptial Yacht.

Ptolemy Philopater possessed a nuptial yacht, the Thalamegon, 312 feet long and 45 feet deep. A graceful gallery supported by curiously carved columns ran round the vessel, and within were temples of Venus and of Bacchus. Her masts were 100 feet high, and her sails and cordage of royal purple hue.

Had a Chance.

Mother—Do you think that young man has saved anything?

Daughter—Undoubtedly, ma. He says he has never loved before.

The Best Liniment

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlan's Pain Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Nagelgans, of Tuckahoe, N. J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I have ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

TWO MEN AND A MORAL.

An Incident That Supplies Considerable Food For Thought.

These ought ye to do and not to leave the others undone.

A pale young man sat down on a bench in the park. He put a torn bag of tools under the bench.

A small, red faced man came behind him. He stooped to steal the bag.

The pale man turned and said in a slow, tired way: "Drop that. It ain't worth stealing."

The ruddy man said, "Not if you're lookin'."

The pale man set the bag at his feet and said:

"It's a poor business you're in."

"You don't look as if yours was any better." He sat down. "What's your callin'?"

"I'm an ironworker; bridge work."

"Don't look strong enough."

"That's so. I'm just out of the hospital; got hurt three months ago."

"I'm just out of hospital, too," he grinned.

"Sing Sing."

"What? Jail?"

"Yes; not bad in winter, either. There's a society helps a fellow after you quit that hospital. Gives you good clothes too."

"Clothes? Is that so?"

"Gets you work"—

"Work—good God! I wish they'd get me some."

"You ain't bad enough. Go and grab somethin'. Get a short sentence; first crime. Come out and get looked after by nice ladies."

"My God!"

"Didn't they do nothin' for you when you got out of that hospital?"

"No! Why the devil should they? I'm only an honest mechanic. Are you goin'?"

"Yes. I've got to go after that job. It'll give me time to look about me. Gosh, but you look bad! Goodby."

The ruddy man rose, looked back, jingled the few coins in his pocket, hesitated and walked away whistling.

The pale man sat still on the bench, staring down at the ragged bag of tools at his feet.—Dr. Weir Mitchell in Century.

Beyond Belief.

When Abraham Lincoln was a young man, his prodigious strength and his skill in wrestling were matters of note throughout central Illinois. Few indeed were the men who could boast of having laid him on his back.

Somewhere along in the thirties there was a case on trial in one of the circuit courts in that section in which an effort was made to impeach the testimony of one of the witnesses. The evidence was conflicting. Some would believe the witness on oath and others would not.

At last a middle aged man with a determined expression of countenance was called to the stand. The usual question was put touching the reputation of the witness for truth and veracity:

"Would you believe him on oath?"

"No, I wouldn't," he answered, and before the lawyer on the opposite side could interpose he gave his reason:

"I heerd him braggin' onct that he'd throwed Abe Lincoln in a fair an' square rassle."

No other witnesses were called. The attempt to impeach was successful.—Youth's Companion.

Children's Party—Sarah, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, of the West End, has issued invitations to a number of her youthful friends for a party on Tuesday next from 2 to 5 p. m.

Challenge Issued—The clothing and shoe salesmen's base ball team is endeavoring to arrange for a game with the shirt waist salesmen's team. A challenge has been issued and the players are eager for the fray.

Wedding Tomorrow—The announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Nannie Delaney and Calvin Smith was made this morning. The wedding will take place tomorrow evening at the home of the bride, No. 132 Greasley street.

Interesting Game Promised — The Crockery City base ball team and the Emeralds will cross bats in West End park tomorrow afternoon. The batteries will be: Crockery City, Davidson and Meredith; Emeralds, Hickey and Gibbons. An interesting game is promised.

Insurance Union Meets—At a meeting of American Insurance Union, chapter 45, which will be held this evening in Fowler hall, 25 new members will be received, and officers for the new year elected. Further arrangements for the Lentz meeting which will be held in this city early next month, will be considered.

Alumni Reception—The East Liverpool Alumni association has invitations out for the reception at Rock Springs park Friday evening, June 6, in honor of the class of 1902.

Pistol Shots Heard—The sound of three pistol shots near the K., T. & K. pottery on Walnut street last night, shortly before midnight, caused considerable excitement for a few minuates, but when it was learned that a resident of the locality was simply using bullets as an exterminator for a gang of dogs, which has been pestering the populace for weeks, the disturber of slumbers was simply asked to form a gatling gun club and keep on.

STICK TO ONE THING.

A Man Who Wishes He Had Lived Up to That Rule.

"The only way for a man on a salary to make a success of life financially and otherwise is to stick to one thing," said a government employee to a reporter. "Twenty years ago I had plenty of energy, a little money and a huge stock of ideas. I determined to become a power in the money market and as a starter dabbled for six months or more in stocks. That experience cost me $4,000. I soon became convinced that I was cut out for a druggist and straightway invested $2,000 in a pharmacy. Cut rates were unknown in those days, and in a short time I was doing well, but one day I read of a prominent lawyer receiving $25,000 as a fee for some case, and instantly I became imbued with the idea that I would make a great lawyer. I neglected my drug business to such an extent that in two years I was $500 to the bad. In the meantime I read law diligently. After a time I graduated as a full fledged disciple of Blackstone and hung out my shingle. Business not coming my way as fast as I thought it should, I opened a small hotel; result, $1,800 in the hole.

"Then I tried my hand at real estate, my legal training helping me greatly, but the same old story will have to be recorded here—failure. By this time my money was nearly all gone. What to do next was the all absorbing question. One day a friend convinced me that big money could be made out of chickens. I invested every cent I had left, $1,200, in hens. At the end of six months I sold out my hennery for $300. Then I got a government job, and here I've been ever since. Shortly after my arrival in this town I purchased a little land in the northwest section. That investment has yielded me a very handsome return, and I am now thoroughly satisfied that the only thing for a man on a salary to do is to either put a little each month in some good savings bank or invest his surplus in land or bricks and mortar. Remember one thing—this is an age of specialists. Stick to one thing, make a success of it, and maybe one of these days some big company will offer you a princely salary for your knowledge. A rolling stone gathers no moss or money."—Washington Star.

Children's Party—Sarah, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, of the West End, has issued invitations to a number of her youthful friends for a party on Tuesday next from 2 to 5 p. m.

Challenge Issued—The clothing and shoe salesmen's base ball team is endeavoring to arrange for a game with the shirt waist salesmen's team. A challenge has been issued and the players are eager for the fray.

Wedding Tomorrow—The announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Nannie Delaney and Calvin Smith was made this morning. The wedding will take place tomorrow evening at the home of the bride, No. 132 Greasley street.

Interesting Game Promised — The Crockery City base ball team and the Emeralds will cross bats in West End park tomorrow afternoon. The batteries will be: Crockery City, Davidson and Meredith; Emeralds, Hickey and Gibbons. An interesting game is promised.

Insurance Union Meets—At a meeting of American Insurance Union, chapter 45, which will be held this evening in Fowler hall, 25 new members will be received, and officers for the new year elected. Further arrangements for the Lentz meeting which will be held in this city early next month, will be considered.

Alumni Reception—The East Liverpool Alumni association has invitations out for the reception at Rock Springs park Friday evening, June 6, in honor of the class of 1902.

Pistol Shots Heard—The sound of three pistol shots near the K., T. & K. pottery on Walnut street last night, shortly before midnight, caused considerable excitement for a few minuates, but when it was learned that a resident of the locality was simply using bullets as an exterminator for a gang of dogs, which has been pestering the populace for weeks, the disturber of slumbers was simply asked to form a gatling gun club and keep on.

STICK TO ONE THING.

A Man Who Wishes He Had Lived Up to That Rule.

"The only way for a man on a salary to make a success of life financially and otherwise is to stick to one thing," said a government employee to a reporter. "Twenty years ago I had plenty of energy, a little money and a huge stock of ideas. I determined to become a power in the money market and as a starter dabbled for six months or more in stocks. That experience cost me $4,000. I soon became convinced that I was cut out for a druggist and straightway invested $2,000 in a pharmacy. Cut rates were unknown in those days, and in a short time I was doing well, but one day I read of a prominent lawyer receiving $25,000 as a fee for some case, and instantly I became imbued with the idea that I would make a great lawyer. I neglected my drug business to such an extent that in two years I was $500 to the bad. In the meantime I read law diligently. After a time I graduated as a full fledged disciple of Blackstone and hung out my shingle. Business not coming my way as fast as I thought it should, I opened a small hotel; result, $1,800 in the hole.

"Then I tried my hand at real estate, my legal training helping me greatly, but the same old story will have to be recorded here—failure. By this time my money was nearly all gone. What to do next was the all absorbing question. One day a friend convinced me that big money could be made out of chickens. I invested every cent I had left, $1,200, in hens. At the end of six months I sold out my hennery for $300. Then I got a government job, and here I've been ever since. Shortly after my arrival in this town I purchased a little land in the northwest section. That investment has yielded me a very handsome return, and I am now thoroughly satisfied that the only thing for a man on a salary to do is to either put a little each month in some good savings bank or invest his surplus in land or bricks and mortar. Remember one thing—this is an age of specialists. Stick to one thing, make a success of it, and maybe one of these days some big company will offer you a princely salary for your knowledge. A rolling stone gathers no moss or money."—Washington Star.

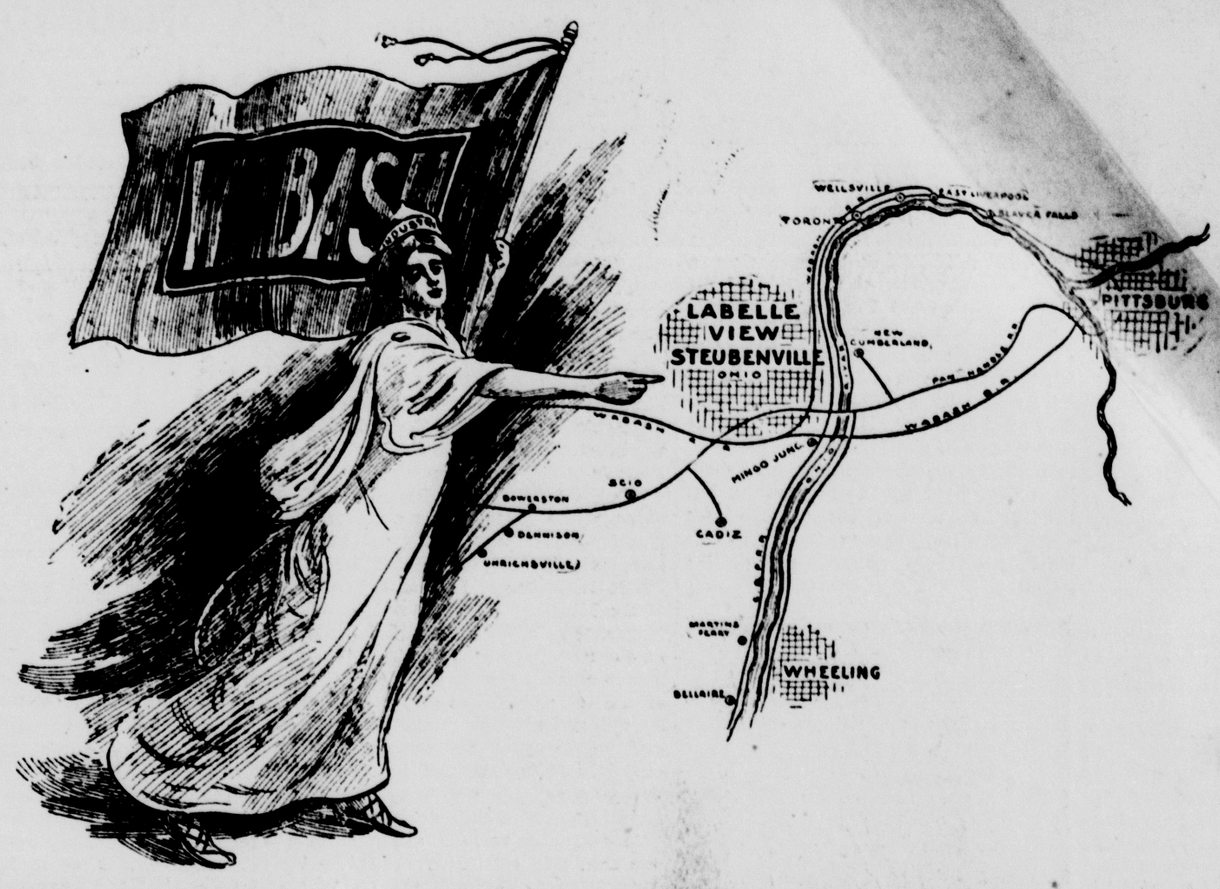
HEED INDUSTRY'S PIERCING CRY TO INVESTORS:

Follow The Flag to Steubenville, O



ON

GRAND FREE EXCURSION SATURDAY, MAY 24.

Send in by earliest mail to our Steubenville, O., or Pittsburg, Pa. office for free return-trip excursion tickets! If you do not live on line of excursion send for excursion train time schedule and see whether you can make connections. Read bottom of ad for dates when special agents will be in your town or your nearest town to distribute free tickets to applicants whose letters arrive too late to be answered.

Remember tickets will be absolutely free, but that we reserve the right to reject applications after the number of tickets for which coaches have been provided are all given out.

If you do not live in Steubenville, Ohio, in the Great Ohio Valley District, where the colossal new plants constituting the La Belle Steel Works and Pope Tinplate Works, and a wonderful wealth of diversified industry is spreading out beyond all anticipated bounds, now's the time to investigate—now before your greatest opportunity to make money flies and what might be your earnings go into other pockets.

But now as to the purpose of this Great Introductory Sale—It was organized to disseminate the advantages of the property to the greatest number of investors in the shortest possible time, with a view to getting building operations started at once and thus meet the mighty cry for homes now going up from the throats of hundreds and hundreds of the 10,000 additional iron workers, tinplate workers, glass workers, clay workers, coal miners, etc., about to invade this field for employment.

As an introductory method lots will be sold in many instances at 20 to 100 per cent. below the prices which will rule at the second sale. No argument that mortal man could put forward will speak as forcefully to the investor as this fact, when considered with the actual progress that he will see here with his own eyes.

THE IMMENSE NEW INDUSTRIES WILL CALL 10,000 MORE WORKMEN TO EMPLOYMENT.

Among the names of the great organizations which are erecting new works and adding buildings and improvements are the La Belle Steel Co., Pope Tinplate Co., Ohio Valley Clay Co., National Steel Co., American Steel Hoop Co., Ohio Foundry Co., Steubenville Pottery Co., Steubenville Wall Paper Co., Riverside Blast Furnace Co., Acme Glass Works, Hartje Bros., Paper Manufacturers, Jefferson Glass Co., Means Foundry and Machine Co., Robinson & Irwin Machine Co., National Marble Co., and many planing mills.

The National Steel Co. will employ about 2,000 men in the billet and rod mills; the Pope Tinplate Works start with 800 men and increase to double this number in the next fourteen months; the La Belle Steel works employ 2,100 men at present at their new open hearth furnaces and at the new tube mills. When completed this industry alone will give employment to 6,000 men.

It is estimated that the army of workmen in Steubenville and vicinity will be increased to 15,000, and that in less than ten years there will be a compact commercial metropolis of more than 50,000 souls, built up solidly with no vacant land intervening.

Lots at the Grand Introductory Sale will go at $50, $75, $100, $125, $150, $175, and $200, on terms of $5 and $10 down and $1.00 per week.

Some on the boulevard and business street will be sold at prices a little higher, but in no instance at figures as high as the advance which must be made thirty days after date of introductory sale.

Ten Per Cent. Discount will be allowed for cash when full amount is paid within sixty days from date of purchase, and in the event of sickness or loss of employment no interest will be charged on deferred payments. Should the death of the purchaser occur, his or her heirs will receive free deed or title to lot without requirement of any further payment if purchaser has paid one-fourth of purchase price.

It might be well to remember that the lots on the boulevard and many of the streets run from 50 x 110 to 55 x 125 and 50 x 150.

Here is another interesting point: Between the hours of 10:30 and noon on day of FREE EXCURSION, ten of the finest lots in the plan will be put up separately at auction to be knocked down to the highest bidders, with the understanding that they will agree to commence the erection of a creditable house on each lot before October 1. None of the lots will be offered at this auction contest for a longer period than five minutes, and not more than one lot will be sold to any one person.

Two extra lots will be given also to the purchaser who completes the building of the first house costing $2,000 on any lot that is purchased on day of the introductory sale. Purchasers who build the second, third, fourth and fifth houses will each be given one lot.

La Belle View Will Have Every Modern City Improvement.

La Belle View is a part of Steubenville, lying in the third and fifth wards on a beautiful tableland just above the Panhandle Passenger depot. It will inherit every up-to-date convenience that belongs to a progressive municipality whose population is now fifteen thousand and growing at the rate of forty-two per cent.

Arrangements have been made to pave a portion of the boulevard and the business street. Other extensive street improvements will follow.

There will be city water, natural gas and electric light.

Increase in Real Estate Values due largely to Tremendous Railroad Constuction and Improved River Navigation.

The dam to be built in the Ohio at Brilliant station will give Steubenville a six foot harbor, and has so encouraged capital to pry into the coal developing possibilities of this locality that thousands of acres of coal land have been bought up and preparations made to erect immense shafts, with railways to carry the outputs of the mines to the river front.

The coal syndicates which have been coming in have discovered that the Steubenville coal is identical in quality with the great gas and coking veins which have made Pittsburg and Connellsville famous.

Two million dollars will be expended by these syndicates during the coming summer in this field, and the number of miners employed will be increased from 175 to 600. An authority on coal development says that in less than two years there will be coal shafts enough located between Wheeling and Toronto to employ not less than two thousand men.

When you stop to realize what an effect this will have in sending up the value of La Belle View property you will be one of the men who will not wait for the free excursion train to take you to Steubenville.

WICKED AND FOOLISH

Chapter In Our History, Hoar Declared Philippine Policy.

FUNSTON'S TAKING AGUINALDO

Might Have Prevented His Confirmation, if Methods by Which He Did It Had Been Known—Senate and Galleries Applauded Speech.

Washington, May 23.—A notable contribution to the discussion of the Philippine question was made in the senate yesterday by Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts. His views on the subject are well understood, but his expression of them yesterday was profoundly interesting and even impressive. When the venerable senator began to speak every senator at the capitol was in his seat, and for the two hours and a half his address consumed he was accorded the most careful attention, not only by his colleagues on the floor, but also by the people in the thronged galleries.

Mr. Hoar confined himself closely to his manuscript. He denounced the attitude of the government in the Philippines as one of the most wicked and foolish chapters in American history. He urged that the United States should withdraw from the islands and permit the people there to erect their own government, as had been done in Cuba. He sharply arraigned General Funston for the methods he had pursued in the capture of Aguinaldo, and intimated strongly that had the senate been aware of the facts Funston might not have been confirmed in his recent promotion. He hoped that as the irrevocable step had not been taken by the United States better counsels would yet prevail and that this government would leave the Philippines.

Spontaneous applause swept over the senate and the galleries at the conclusion of the speech. Such a demonstration is unusual on the floor of the senate. So pronounced was it that the presiding officer called the attention of senators to the rule prohibiting any expression of approval or disapproval.

Mr. Teller, of Colorado, delivered a speech in the nature of a history of the legislative proceedings through which the new Cuban republic was erected.

PRESIDENT RECEIVED FRENCH.

Brugere Placed Wreath on Washington's Tomb—Dinner at White House.

Washington, May 23.—Surrounded by the members of his cabinet and by officials high in all branches of the government, President Roosevelt yesterday received as the guests of the nation the distinguished Frenchmen sent by President Loubet to take part in the Rochambeau exercises. The arrival in the city of the brilliantly uniformed French army and navy officers and their escort through Pennsylvania avenue by a troop of United States cavalry gave picturesque interest to the occasion, and to this was added the international significance of an extremely cordial exchange of greetings between the representatives of the two nations. After the president's reception at the White House the French visitors exchanged calls with members of the cabinet and Lieutenant General Miles and Admiral Dewey. Yesterday afternoon they journeyed to Mount Vernon, where General Brugere, of the French army, placed a laurel wreath on the tomb of Washington and Count de Rochambeau planted a tree taken from the battleground of Yorktown.

Entertained at Dinner.

A state dinner was given at the White House last night by President and Miss Roosevelt in honor of the distinguished visitors from France who are in this country in connection with the Rochambeau statue ceremonies. The company invited to meet the visitors was a thoroughly representative one, including the members of the cabinet, senators and representatives in congress, and high officials of the army and navy. Cardinal Gibbons and others were present.

An interesting event of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Roosevelt of a rare collection of sketches and engravings, a gift from the premier of the French cabinet, M. Waldeck-Rousseau. The sketches are by the distinguished Parisian artist, M. Renouard, who is one of the members of the mission now here, and who personally made the presentation last night. The sketches are some 40 in number, showing glimpses of Paris during the exposition.

First Case For Hague Tribunal.

Washington, May 23.—Secretary Hay and Mr. Aspiros, the Mexican ambassador yesterday afternoon signed a convention providing for the arbitration of the famous "Pius claim," based on the application of the Catholic church in California for overdue interest on trust funds in the custody of the Mexican government. The claim involves about $1,000,000 and is the first cause to go before The Hague tribunal in any form.

The CLUBWOMEN'S Meet at Los Angeles

Eight Day Festival of Flowers to Greet Convention Delegates

LOS ANGELES is preparing a glorious welcome for the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which holds its sixth biennial session during the first week of May in that ideal city, called by Paderewski "the paradise of America." Not only have the clubwomen of California been working to make this convention the most brilliant ever held by the federation, but the business men of Los Angeles have decided to hold the annual Fiesta de les Flores, that magnificent spectacular pageant, during the convention week.

HOME OF MRS. ROBERT J. BURDETTE, LOS ANGELES.

So to the allurements of the convention, sufficient in itself to attract the clubwomen, will be added the glamour of Los Angeles in the season of flowers.

The serious part of the programme is in the hands of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, assisted by the four local clubs of Los Angeles. Delegates will be in attendance from all parts of the United States, as well as from Canada, Europe and Australia, so the state and city organizations are on their mettle to give them a reception that shall surpass in open hearted hospitality, variety and novelty of entertainment all previous efforts in this line.

This work is going forward under the direction of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, wife of the humorist, who has shown great capacity for organization and has the situation well in hand. Mrs. Burdette is president of the California federation and is prominently mentioned as president of the General Federation to succeed Mrs. Rebecca Douglas Lowe. Mrs. D. T. S. Denison, the vice president of the general body, is the logical candidate, but may not accept. Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker of Denver is also in the field.

Sunny Crest, Mrs. Burdette's home, is one of the finest in Los Angeles. The Spanish mission architecture is particularly pleasing, to begin with, while the wealth of roses, palm and pepper trees could only appear to such profuse advantage in the land of sunshine. The house occupies an eminence in a fifteen-acre flower garden.

The business session of the convention will extend over eight days, beginning Thursday, May 1. The most important matter to come before the delegates is the color question. There is great diversity of opinion on this subject, but it is hoped to settle it for good and all at the coming session.

The programme presents many features of great interest to woman clubdom. One of the most delightful meetings of the week will be on Thursday evening. This will be an entertainment offered by the Los Angeles clubwomen in special compliment to the biennial visitors. It will be an interpretation of the Wagner festivals of Baireuth, illustrated with stereopticon and musical accompaniment, Mrs. C. W. Rhodes of Chicago being the lecturer of the evening. At the educational session President Jordan of Stanford university, Mrs. E. C. Sabin of Downer college, Milwaukee; Mrs. Ella Hoes Neville of Wisconsin, and Miss M. C. Craft of San Francisco will be the speakers.

Much interest is anticipated in the presentation of a plan for a central reciprocity plan for the General Federation, which will be offered by Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis, president of the Missouri State federation. Mrs. Moore, who has served with distinction on the national board and who is a college woman as well as a clubwoman of trained experience and proved ability, will undoubtedly present a practical and well worked out outline for this project. It is intended to make this bureau a reliable source of suggestion for all phases of club work.

Among the various other subjects one that will especially appeal to the convention is the address on "Clubhouses" to be delivered by Mrs. James D. Whitmore of Denver. Mrs. Whitmore's skill as an orator and her experience in club life insure entertainment as well as instruction.

The festivities being prepared by the citizens of Los Angeles are extensive and unique. To begin with, the city will be brilliantly illuminated and gorgeously decorated. "Unity In Diversity," the General Federation's motto, will be repeated in electric lights throughout the business streets.

The abundance of flowers in southern California makes possible a lavish display. The buildings that front on the retail streets of the city will be fairly covered with blossoms and green shrubs. The broad spreading leaves of the fan palm and the graceful, drooping leaves of the date palm, as well as much other semitropical vegetation will cover every ugly telegraph pole or other object that would detract from the festive spectacle.

Most of the figures will be emblematic of the General Federation, but there will also be the regulation colors of La Fiesta. These colors consist of red, emblematic of wine; orange, of fruit, and green, the olive. The gaudy effect that is produced by these colors is peculiarly Spanish, and it is this as much as anything else that characterizes La Fiesta.

La Fiesta will open with a grotesque parade of Elks of southern California. Until the men have marched down the streets on the opening day no one not in authority will know of what the foolishness will consist. These matters, as well as many other arrangements for the fiesta, are always kept profoundly secret. Like the Mardi Gras in New Orleans, La Fiesta in Los Angeles has acquired many customs that could not well be broken.

On the second day will be held the floral parade. This will consist of gorgeously decorated carriages and turnouts. It is the floral parade that is the unique feature of La Fiesta and the part that Los Angelans claim cannot be reproduced elsewhere in America. The vehicles, ranging in size and shape from the dogcart to the tallyho and the automobile, will be so buried in blossoms and green leaves as to cover any suggestion of wood or iron work.

In conformity with the custom that always obtains in La Fiesta, the name of the queen will be kept secret until the day of the parade. Great care is always taken in selecting the queen, who is always one of the most prominent society women of the city. Another society woman will be chosen as grand marshal of the floral parade.

There will be a company of richly dressed caballeros, mounted on spirited horses, covered with bejeweled caparisons. Gold and silver bridles and saddles, mounted with lavish displays of the precious metals, will mark their appearance. As they ride through the streets they will give exhibitions of Mexican vaquero riding.

A WINNING TRICK.

He Lost All His Bets and Made Money by Doing So.

The captain of one rather old and slow steamer of years ago, finding that he would have to be a long time in China before he received a full cargo of tea and would have probably to return in ballast, began, to every one's astonishment, to say that, owing to the repairs that had been done to his engines, he hoped to make a racing passage back to England. Then, still more to the astonishment of the captains of the fast steamers and the world at large, he commenced to back himself to make the fastest passage home.

In such very considerable sums of money did he wager that people began to think there was something in it, and the merchants sent their tea almost entirely to his ship, arguing that as the captain stood to lose £500 the repairs to his steamer's engines had probably put him in a position to bet almost on a certainty.

Of course the steamer, whose greatest speed was eight knots an hour, arrived in England weeks after the others, and the captain lost £250, but instead of having to lie in China waiting his chance of cargo coming in from the interior, a probable delay of weeks, he had cleared in a few days after his bets became known to the public with a full ship, thus recouping to his owners, who of course paid his betting losses, a considerable number of thousands of pounds profit.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Cheese.

Cheese may generally be classified as hard and soft, and the different varieties are obtained by varying the proportions of cream. When made of cream alone and at a low temperature with little pressure, we have the soft or cream cheeses. These must be used while comparatively fresh, as they soon decompose and become rancid.

WICKED AND FOOLISH

FUNSTON'S TAKING AGUINALDO

Might Have Prevented His Confirmation, if Methods by Which He Did It Had Been Known—Senate and Galleries Applauded Speech.

Washington, May 23.—A notable contribution to the discussion of the Philippine question was made in the senate yesterday by Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts. His views on the subject are well understood, but his expression of them yesterday was profoundly interesting and even impressive. When the venerable senator began to speak every senator at the capitol was in his seat, and for the two hours and a half his address consumed he was accorded the most careful attention, not only by his colleagues on the floor, but also by the people in the thronged galleries.

Mr. Hoar confined himself closely to his manuscript. He denounced the attitude of the government in the Philippines as one of the most wicked and foolish chapters in American history. He urged that the United States should withdraw from the islands and permit the people there to erect their own government, as had been done in Cuba. He sharply arraigned General Funston for the methods he had pursued in the capture of Aguinaldo, and intimated strongly that had the senate been aware of the facts Funston might not have been confirmed in his recent promotion. He hoped that as the irrevocable step had not been taken by the United States better counsels would yet prevail and that this government would leave the Philippines.

Spontaneous applause swept over the senate and the galleries at the conclusion of the speech. Such a demonstration is unusual on the floor of the senate. So pronounced was it that the presiding officer called the attention of senators to the rule prohibiting any expression of approval or disapproval.

Mr. Teller, of Colorado, delivered a speech in the nature of a history of the legislative proceedings through which the new Cuban republic was erected.

PRESIDENT RECEIVED FRENCH.

Brugere Placed Wreath on Washington's Tomb—Dinner at White House.

Washington, May 23.—Surrounded by the members of his cabinet and by officials high in all branches of the government, President Roosevelt yesterday received as the guests of the nation the distinguished Frenchmen sent by President Loubet to take part in the Rochambeau exercises. The arrival in the city of the brilliantly uniformed French army and navy officers and their escort through Pennsylvania avenue by a troop of United States cavalry gave picturesque interest to the occasion, and to this was added the international significance of an extremely cordial exchange of greetings between the representatives of the two nations. After the president's reception at the White House the French visitors exchanged calls with members of the cabinet and Lieutenant General Miles and Admiral Dewey. Yesterday afternoon they journeyed to Mount Vernon, where General Brugere, of the French army, placed a laurel wreath on the tomb of Washington and Count de Rochambeau planted a tree taken from the battleground of Yorktown.

Entertained at Dinner.

A state dinner was given at the White House last night by President and Miss Roosevelt in honor of the distinguished visitors from France who are in this country in connection with the Rochambeau statue ceremonies. The company invited to meet the visitors was a thoroughly representative one, including the members of the cabinet, senators and representatives in congress, and high officials of the army and navy. Cardinal Gibbons and others were present.

An interesting event of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Roosevelt of a rare collection of sketches and engravings, a gift from the premier of the French cabinet, M. Waldeck-Rousseau. The sketches are by the distinguished Parisian artist, M. Renouard, who is one of the members of the mission now here, and who personally made the presentation last night. The sketches are some 40 in number, showing glimpses of Paris during the exposition.

First Case For Hague Tribunal.

Washington, May 23.—Secretary Hay and Mr. Aspiros, the Mexican ambassador yesterday afternoon signed a convention providing for the arbitration of the famous "Pius claim," based on the application of the Catholic church in California for overdue interest on trust funds in the custody of the Mexican government. The claim involves about $1,000,000 and is the first cause to go before The Hague tribunal in any form.

LOS ANGELES is preparing a glorious welcome for the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which holds its sixth biennial session during the first week of May in that ideal city, called by Paderewski "the paradise of America." Not only have the clubwomen of California been working to make this convention the most brilliant ever held by the federation, but the business men of Los Angeles have decided to hold the annual Fiesta de les Flores, that magnificent spectacular pageant, during the convention week.

HOME OF MRS. ROBERT J. BURDETTE, LOS ANGELES.

So to the allurements of the convention, sufficient in itself to attract the clubwomen, will be added the glamour of Los Angeles in the season of flowers.

The serious part of the programme is in the hands of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, assisted by the four local clubs of Los Angeles. Delegates will be in attendance from all parts of the United States, as well as from Canada, Europe and Australia, so the state and city organizations are on their mettle to give them a reception that shall surpass in open hearted hospitality, variety and novelty of entertainment all previous efforts in this line.

This work is going forward under the direction of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, wife of the humorist, who has shown great capacity for organization and has the situation well in hand. Mrs. Burdette is president of the California federation and is prominently mentioned as president of the General Federation to succeed Mrs. Rebecca Douglas Lowe. Mrs. D. T. S. Denison, the vice president of the general body, is the logical candidate, but may not accept. Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker of Denver is also in the field.

Sunny Crest, Mrs. Burdette's home, is one of the finest in Los Angeles. The Spanish mission architecture is particularly pleasing, to begin with, while the wealth of roses, palm and pepper trees could only appear to such profuse advantage in the land of sunshine. The house occupies an eminence in a fifteen acre flower garden.

The business session of the convention will extend over eight days, beginning Thursday, May 1. The most important matter to come before the delegates is the color question. There is great diversity of opinion on this subject, but it is hoped to settle it for good and all at the coming session.

The programme presents many features of great interest to woman clubdom. One of the most delightful meetings of the week will be on Thursday evening. This will be an entertainment offered by the Los Angeles clubwomen in special compliment to the biennial visitors. It will be an interpretation of the Wagner festivals of Baireuth, illustrated with stereopticon and musical accompaniment, Mrs. C. W. Rhodes of Chicago being the lecturer of the evening. At the educational session President Jordan of Stanford university, Mrs. E. C. Sabin of Downer college, Milwaukee; Mrs. Ella Hoes Neville of Wisconsin, and Miss M. C. Craft of San Francisco will be the speakers.

Much interest is anticipated in the presentation of a plan for a central reciprocity plan for the General Federation, which will be offered by Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis, president of the Missouri State federation. Mrs. Moore, who has served with distinction on the national board and who is a college woman as well as a clubwoman of trained experience and proved ability, will undoubtedly present a practical and well worked out outline for this project. It is intended to make this bureau a reliable source of suggestion for all phases of club work.

Among the various other subjects one that will especially appeal to the convention is the address on "Clubhouses" to be delivered by Mrs. James D. Whitmore of Denver. Mrs. Whitmore's skill as an orator and her experience in club life insure entertainment as well as instruction.

The festivities being prepared by the citizens of Los Angeles are extensive and unique. To begin with, the city will be brilliantly illuminated and gorgeously decorated. "Unity In Diversity," the General Federation's motto, will be repeated in electric lights throughout the business streets.

The abundance of flowers in southern California makes possible a lavish display. The buildings that front on the retail streets of the city will be fairly covered with blossoms and green shrubs. The broad spreading leaves of the fan palm and the graceful, drooping leaves of the date palm, as well

Presbyterian Assembly Adopted Revision Report, Being Two Dissenting Votes.

SUPPLEMENTARY STATEMENT

Also Adopted—Presbyteries to Vote on Former—Session Closed With Impressive Devotional Service, Temperance Report Made.

New York, May 23.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church yesterday adopted the entire report of the committee on revision of the confession of faith.

The assembly first adopted all the report except the brief supplementary statement with only two dissenting votes.

By a like vote the supplementary statement was then adopted.

On the "supplementary statement" the action of the general assembly is final. It will not in any way affect the creed or become part of the organic law of the church. The other two parts, known as the "declaratory statement" and the "brief statement of the reformed faith," to become part of the law of the church, will have to be acted upon favorably by two-thirds of the entire number of presbyteries in the general assembly.

Prayer Meeting Held.

The business of the day was preceded by a prayer meeting conducted by the Rev. Dr. W. R. Taylor, of Rochester. When Dr. Van Dyke, the moderator, called the assembly to order almost every commissioner was in his seat. The first half hour was devoted to routine matters and then the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Minton, chairman of the committee on revision, opened the discussion on the committee's report.

Dr. Minton asked that the first part of the report be adopted. Dr. Van Dyke said there would be no division in the report. Dr. Minton, who is a member of the committee on creed revision, then said that the report had been adopted unanimously, and that the committee had worked in good faith. No man in the committee, he said, had had his own way and there was ever mutual consideration among the members. He spoke of some of the considerations which had guided the committee in its work. He said that the object of the revision was to remove misapprehension regarding the confession, and several of its unguarded statements, of which the section referring to the pope is one. It reads that the pope "is anti-Christ, a man of sin and a son of perdition."

Dr. Minton said that while the committee might hold that this was true, yet the members believed it had no place in the revised faith. So far as he was concerned, he said, the section rightly applied to a man who usurped the crown right of Jesus Christ. The report of the committee asks for the following as a substitute: "The Lord Jesus Christ is the only head of the church and the claim of any man to be the vicar of Christ and the head of the church is unscriptural, without warrant in fact, and is a usurpation dishonoring the Lord Jesus Christ."

Infants Not Condemned.

Dr. Minton took up the section of the Westminster confession referring to "infant damnation." This section states that infants who do not die in the faith are eternally lost." Dr. Minton in speaking of this section said that "such statements were false and unwarranted." This frank and decided statement brought out a salvo of applause. Dr. Minton then took up various overtures in the old confession, showing certain ambiguities and antagonstic statements.

Dr. James D. Moffat moved that the report be adopted and this was seconded by the Rev. Dr. Duffield; the Rev. Dr. R. G. Kerr, of Bellevue, Neb.; Dr. Robert R. Booth, New York city; Dr. Palmer, of St. Louis, and Elder Jeremiah Baker, of Madison, N. J., all spoke in favor of the motion.

The question was called for and on a yea and nay vote was carried with only two dissenting votes. Dr. Duffield then moved that the adoption be made unanimous, but the motion was not seconded.

Dr. Francis L. Goff, of Hopkinsville, Ky., said that while he had voted against the report for conscientious reasons, he was willing to withhold his vote if thereby a unanimous adoption could be obtained.

Elder Daniel Raden, of Greensville, Tenn., who also opposed the report, gave like reasons for his opposition.

Wept Over Proposed Revision.

The Rev. Fleming G. Railey, of Kissimmee, Fla., opposed revision. "I am against the adoption of the report," he said. "I have never found any difficulty with the old standards. They have lighted the way for me and mine across the river, all the way. I feel that this revision is the entering wedge, and how far it will go no one can tell." Here the speaker broke down and wept.

The question was then put and the resolution ordering the report published was carried with only two dissenting votes.

The motion for adoption of the supplementary statement was made by Dr. Minton and seconded by the Rev. Dr. Howard Duffield, of the Old First Presbyterian church, this city.

"We are face to face with a babel and a pentecost," said Dr. Duffield, "a babel of confession and a pentecost where souls will be won and blessings gained. Which shall it be?

"It would be a great thing if by unanimous vote we could take out from our vocabulary the words 'Liberal' and 'Conservative' and merge them into that glorious name 'Presbyterian.' Let us tell the world that the Presbyterian church is not only the revered guardian of the past, but also the sympathetic interpreter of the present and the heir apparent to the throne of the future. I hope the statement will be unanimously adopted."

Dr. Richard S. Holmes, of Pittsburg, said he represented the conservative element of the church. He said he had only voiced the sentiment of that element when he asked the assembly for the unanimous adoption of the supplementary report.

The entire report was adopted and the session was closed with an impressive devotional service, in which the Rev. Dr. Johnson, of Chcago, and the Rev. Dr. Dickey offered prayer and Dr. R. R. Booth, of this city, pronounced the benediction.

Made Report on Temperance.

At the afternoon session Dr. William Henry Roberts offered a resolution, which was carried, providing for the printing of the "brief statement of the reformed faith" in pamphlet form for the use of the commissioners of the assembly, pastors of the churches and others.

The Rev. Dr. D. Stuart Dodge, as chairman of the standing committee on temperance, then presented the report of that committee.

Dr. Dodge made reference to the adopted creed revision, evoking great applause.

"My fathers and brothers," he said, "we are now on a different plane from which we were 24 hours ago. By the grace of God and our Lord Jesus Christ, who kept us in unanimity and entire harmony this forenoon, there are now no differences among us. We now have a creed, thank God, on which we can stand together henceforth, as a united church without discord, to go forward in the work for the Lord's cause."

The assembly adjourned until today.

C. P. ASSEMBLY ADJOURNED.

Theological Seminary Question Settled—Next Meeting to Be In Nashville, Tenn.

Springfield, Mo., May 23.—The Cumberland Presbyterian general assembly was treated to a parliamentary surprise yesterday morning, when a motion prevailed, 135 to 70, to table the whole home mission board matter, including the majority and minority reports and President Fullerton's substitute for both. The matter is thus left in the same status as previously. The leaders on both sides of the question are much displeased and reconsideration may occur.

The devotional exercises yesterday were in the nature of a memorial service for Mrs. William Kelly, who died recently in China, the first Cumberland Presbyterian missionary to die in service since the war.

The ways and means commttee announced that it could pay only 94 per cent of the commissioners' traveling expenses.

A rule adopted in 1899 taking from the boards and permanent committees the right to nominate their own members and conferring this right on the assembly was rescinded almost unanimously.

Should Not Hold Membership.

The assembly determined that a minister, being a member of the presbytery, should not hold membership in any particular church.

The clerk was authorized to send greetings to the Northern Presbyterian assembly at New York and to the southern assembly at Jackson, Miss.

Much enthusiasm was aroused at the close of the morning session by the announcement that the theological seminary committee had reached a unanimous understanding on a report.

Early in the afternoon session the theological seminary matter was taken up and a report was adopted, upon which, during the morning, the theological seminary committee had agreed. This report appoints a new committee to settle the matter with the trustees of Cumberland university, the general assembly's right being conserved and every effort made to promote the seminary's interests. A commission was appointed to prepare an exhibit for the St. Louis world's fair.

Numerous standing committees were appointed. Twenty-two delegates were elected to the Pan-Presbyterian council at Liverpool, in July, 1904.

At 9 o'clock last night the seventy-second general assembly adjourned.

The assembly will meet at Nashville, Tenn., in May, 1903.

WORK WOMAN'S CURE FOR HEAD AND HEART ACHES

By the COUNTESS OF WARWICK

EVERY WOMAN SHOULD DO SOME WORK. IF IT IS UNNECESSARY FOR HER TO WORK FOR HERSELF, SHE OUGHT TO DO SOMETHING FOR OTHERS. THEN THERE WOULD BE FEWER HEADACHES AND FEWER HEARTACHES.

THE SUM OF HUMAN HAPPINESS COULD BE ENLARGED BY WOMEN IF THEY WOULD UNDERTAKE IT. GRUMBLING NEVER INCREASES OUR HAPPINESS NOR ADDS TO OUR LENGTH OF LIFE. THE WOMAN WHO THINKS SHE MAKES PEOPLE BETTER BY A PERPETUAL WHINE MISTAKES THE SITUATION.

FIND THE SUNNY SIDE.

Try to Get Out of the Gloom and the Shadows of Life.

Nothing contributes more to the highest success than the formation of the habit of enjoying things. Whatever your calling in life may be, whatever misfortunes or hardships may come to you, make up your mind resolutely that, come what may, you will get the most possible real enjoyment out of every day; that you will increase your capacity for enjoying life by trying to find the sunny side of every experience of the day. Resolutely determine that you will see the humorous side of things. No matter how hard or unyielding your environment may seem to be, there is a sunny side if you can only see it. The mirth provoking faculty, even under trying circumstances, is worth more to a young man or woman starting out in life than a fortune without it. Make up your mind that you will be an optimist; that there shall be nothing of the pessimist about you; that you will carry your own sunshine wherever you go.

There is longevity in the sunny soul that eases our jolts and makes our sides shake with laughter.

There is a wonderful medicinal effect in good cheer. Good news and glad tidings have a magic effect even upon invalids.

We often see a whole store or factory or home transformed by one sunny soul. On the other hand, we have seen them blighted and made dark by a gloomy, morose, fault finding person.—Christian Advocate.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the sallow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

Mrs. Ida McDonald.

"For four years I suffered with torpid liver until my skin looked yellow and dull. I then found my kidneys were affected and had severe pains across my back, and I felt that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Thedford's Black-Draught.

A rule adopted in 1899 taking from the boards and permanent committees the right to nominate their own members and conferring this right on the assembly was rescinded almost unanimously.

Should Not Hold Membership.

The assembly determined that a minister, being a member of the presbytery, should not hold membership in any particular church.

The clerk was authorized to send greetings to the Northern Presbyterian assembly at New York and to the southern assembly at Jackson, Miss.

Much enthusiasm was aroused at the close of the morning session by the announcement that the theological seminary committee had reached a unanimous understanding on a report.

Early in the afternoon session the theological seminary matter was taken up and a report was adopted, upon which, during the morning, the theological seminary committee had agreed. This report appoints a new committee to settle the matter with the trustees of Cumberland university, the general assembly's right being conserved and every effort made to promote the seminary's interests. A commission was appointed to prepare an exhibit for the St. Louis world's fair.

Numerous standing committees were appointed. Twenty-two delegates were elected to the Pan-Presbyterian council at Liverpool, in July, 1904.

At 9 o'clock last night the seventy-second general assembly adjourned.

The assembly will meet at Nashville, Tenn., in May, 1903.

SCROFULA.

"Scattered consumption" is a good way of describing this disease. It is in fact a real consumption of the little glands under the skin.

Scott's Emulsion cures it. Scott's Emulsion is good for all kinds of consumption but especially good for scrofula.

It heals the sores—but doesn't stop there for the weakness and loss of flesh is the worst part of scrofula.

Scott's Emulsion feeds and strengthens scrofulous children.

By the COUNTESS OF WARWICK

EVERY WOMAN SHOULD DO SOME WORK. IF IT IS UNNECESSARY FOR HER TO WORK FOR HERSELF, SHE OUGHT TO DO SOMETHING FOR OTHERS. THEN THERE WOULD BE FEWER HEADACHES AND FEWER HEARTACHES.

THE SUM OF HUMAN HAPPINESS COULD BE ENLARGED BY WOMEN IF THEY WOULD UNDERTAKE IT. GRUMBLING NEVER INCREASES OUR HAPPINESS NOR ADDS TO OUR LENGTH OF LIFE. THE WOMAN WHO THINKS SHE MAKES PEOPLE BETTER BY A PERPETUAL WHINE MISTAKES THE SITUATION.

FIND THE SUNNY SIDE.

Try to Get Out of the Gloom and the Shadows of Life.

Nothing contributes more to the highest success than the formation of the habit of enjoying things. Whatever your calling in life may be, whatever misfortunes or hardships may come to you, make up your mind resolutely that, come what may, you will get the most possible real enjoyment out of every day; that you will increase your capacity for enjoying life by trying to find the sunny side of every experience of the day. Resolutely determine that you will see the humorous side of things. No matter how hard or unyielding your environment may seem to be, there is a sunny side if you can only see it. The mirth provoking faculty, even under trying circumstances, is worth more to a young man or woman starting out in life than a fortune without it. Make up your mind that you will be an optimist; that there shall be nothing of the pessimist about you; that you will carry your own sunshine wherever you go.

There is longevity in the sunny soul that eases our jolts and makes our sides shake with laughter.

There is a wonderful medicinal effect in good cheer. Good news and glad tidings have a magic effect even upon invalids.

We often see a whole store or factory or home transformed by one sunny soul. On the other hand, we have seen them blighted and made dark by a gloomy, morose, fault finding person.—Christian Advocate.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the sallow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

Mrs. Ida McDonald.

"For four years I suffered with torpid liver until my skin looked yellow and dull. I then found my kidneys were affected and had severe pains across my back, and I felt that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Thedford's Black-Draught.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

CROWD OF BOYS NEARLY DROWNED

Upset From a Skiff in the River in the Midst of a Storm.

MANAGED TO SWIM ASHORE

But One of Them the Worse For Their Frightful Experience—Storm Caused Great Excitement and Did Considerable Damage.

The terrible wind storm which prevailed in this vicinity last evening came near resulting in the death by drowning of Frank Moore, Joe Judge, Harry Carey, William Bridge, Stanley Stevenson, Tom Meredith and Clyde Smith, all boys of not more than 17 years of age. They were swimming in the river on the West Virginia side when the storm approached, and being very much frightened at the awfulness of the storm's appearance, hurriedly jumped into their clothes and started for the Ohio side in a skiff.

When about half way across, the waves, which were running exceedingly high, commenced rocking the boat up and down and finally they completely enveloped the skiff, sinking it almost instantly, throwing the boys out. Luckily all are good swimmers and succeeded in battling their way to shore and safety. How they managed to do so, however, is considered marvelous, as the average swimmer finds it difficult to swim the same distance under favorable circumstances. But one of the boys, Frank Moore, is any the worse for the experience. He was hurt about the lower limbs in escaping from the boat and in consequence is suffering considerably.

Glass was broken and several small outhouses wrecked or overturned.

A terrific wind storm passed over the city at about 7:30 last evening, and for a few moments hats were flying all over the streets, signs were blown down, awnings torn and general excitement reigned. On Sixth street several serious accidents were narrowly averted.

The dust that blew along the street between the Diamond and Washington street was so thick that persons driving buggies could hardly tell where they were going. One carriage containing two ladies almost struck a street car going west, and at the corner of Sixth and Washington, a horse became frightened at flying paper. It was with difficulty that the driver kept the animal from running off. At the corner of Fifth and Washington streets the driver of a beer wagon failed to heed the sounding of the gong on a Southside car, and had the motorman not have acted quickly in stopping, the car would have struck the horse.

The wind blew so strong that the large door leading to the hallway of the Oyster building, on Sixth street, was blown shut, breaking a large plate glass in the door, causing it to fall all over the sidewalk.

A number of outbuildings were overturned on the North Side and several chimneys demolished. The windows of several dwellings were also broken and many trees damaged, some being entrely ruined.

Several Hours' Hunt Necessary In Order to Find Her—Building Damaged.

Lisbon, May 23. — (Special) — The county infirmary was struck by lgihtning last evening, the bolt coming in on a telephone wire and exploding on the porch. Considerable damage was done to the woodwork.

One of the women inmates was so frightened that she, with a little child, hid in the woods and could not be found for several hours.

CERAMIC COLLECTION

Valuable Gift Presented to the City of Trenton and Accepted.

The city of Trenton is the recipient of a handsome and valuable pottery collection given by Mrs. Alice Maddock, of New York. Mrs. Maddock tendered the gift through Mayor Katzenbach and the members of common council, and the latter formally accepted it. Only two conditions were imposed. One is that the collection be suitably housed and the other that it be known by the name of the donor. Both provisions were included in the acceptance, which authorized the location of the ware in the art school and christened it the "Alice Maddock collection." The collection, consisting of several hundred pieces, contains the research of a life time, embracing ancient and modern specimens of rare ceramics. In her letter offering it to the city Mrs. Maddock says: "I believe it contains no piece that would not be of some value to students of ceramics in glaze, shape, pattern or paste; and many of the pieces are of special importance."

BUT 16 SAVED OUT OF 150 MEN

BRITISH COLUMBIA THE SCENE OF A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Three Mines Blocked Up and Those Within Doomed to Awful Death.

Ternie, B. C., May 23.—A terrible explosion occurred today in No. 2 mine, which is connected wth No. 3 shaft and also with the high line shaft.

Three openings were blocked. One hundred and fifty men were at work and only 16 escaped. The remainder are missing and there is small hope of their safety.

Were Before the Mayor This Morning Each Charged With Drunkenness.

Patrick O'Brien and Jack Rowe, the former being arrested by Officer Dawson for being drunk, and the latter by Officer Mahoney for a like offense, constituted the lineup for the mayor this moring. O'Brien had been there before and was but little surprised when he was given his choice of six months or leaving the city. As upon the other occasions he chose the latter. Rowe was in a miserable plight, and was remanded to his cell where he will remain until he is thoroughly sober.

"Snake Eater Bill' was turned over to the township trustees last night, who furnished him with a new suit of clothes and transportation to Marietta, where he clams to have relatives.

A SEPARATE UNION

Talked of For the Employes of the Rock Springs Street Railway.

The employes of the Rock Springs street railway and the East Liverpool line will hold their regular monthly meeting in the East End at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, at which time it is thought the employes of the two lines will separate, the Rock Springs men forming a union of their own in Chester, and apply at Wheeling for a charter. It seems that the Rock Springs men were not satisfied with the East Liverpool wage settlement.

PROBATE MATTERS

Administratrix Ordered to Make Up Her Mind—Land Sale Confirmed.

Lisbon, May 23. — (Special) — Annie McPherson, of Lisbon, has been ordered by the probate court to elect whether she will take or renounce the administration of the estate of Lavina McClain, late of Irondale.

The probate court has confirmed the sale by Rosetta M. Arnold, of East Palestine, as executrix of the estate of William Arnold, of 25 acres of land in Unity township, to Helena Arnold for $5,848.

BONDS NOT SOLD

Finance Committee Failed to Get Together For a Meeting Today.

Notwithstanding that four bids for the purchase of the city's bonds, amounting to $5,413.91, issued for the payment of the outstanding indebtedness incident to the improvement of Fenton street, Grant street, Pleasant street and McKinnon avenue, were received by the city clerk by noon today, the designated time, the bonds were not sold, only two of the members of the finance committee of council being present at the time for opening of bids.

No time has been set for a called meeting.

Nearly a Dozen More Will Follow Unless the Warning Is Heeded and the Ordinance Observed—All Officers Directed to Enforce the Law.

After issuing repeated warnings against violating the city ordinance governing the display of merchandise and the leaving of boxes, barrels and other rubbish on the street, action on the part of the police has begun.

The proprietor of one store was placed under arrest last evening by Officer Morris, charged with the offense.

Awaiting an investigations and developments concerning other violators of the law, the mayor will not hear the case for a few days. A general cleaning up of the pavements will be the result. Officer Morris has informed the mayor that he intends to arrest the proprietors of nearly a dozen stores for the same offense, and the mayor has told him to go ahead.

The entire police force has been ordered to watch the pavements closely and make arrests upon the first violation. The lumber dealers and pottery manufacturers are to be included and all of them will be given notice immediately to conform with the ordinance or suffer the penalty.

In speaking on the subject this morning the mayor said: "The time has come when decisive steps must be taken. The business men understand the ordinance perfectly, and I propose to make those suffer who disregard it. It seems a little hard to resort to such measures in dealing with our best citizens, but I find that there is no other way."

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE HOSPITAL

Two Days' Festival and Garden Party to Be Given at Rock Springs.

JUNE 3 AND 4 THE DATES

A Fine Musical Program And Attractive Booths Will Be Features—List of Committees Chosen to Prepare for the Elaborate Entertainment.

Arrangements are progressing finely for the festival to be given for the benefit of the hospital. At the meeting yesterday the committee decided to accept with thanks the offer of C. A. Smith for use of Rock Springs grounds and orchestra music for the evenings of June 3 and 4.

George Hamilton is chairman of the arrangements committee and Miss E. P. Hazlett treasurer.

The festival will be in the nature of a garden party with refreshment booths in abundance. Special committees have been named as follows:

Booth for Flowers—Mrs. A. S. Young, chairman; Mrs. H. A. Keffer, Misses Mame Simms, Minnie Thompson and Laura Moore.

Candy—Mrs. Walter B. Hill, Mrs. Charles Hall, Misses Georgella Ikirt, Pearl Shrader, Nellie Porter and Florence Hall.

Lemonade—Messrs. Will Leech, Sam Larkins, Homer West, Ben Laughlin, Harry Koch and Hal Huston.

The music will also be a special feature and a very fine program has been arranged, which will probably last an hour and a half. The music committee is composed of Mrs. Stein, Mrs. E. M. Knowles, Mrs. J. C. Thompson and Ed Lewis.

Strawberries and ice cream — Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Monroe Patterson, Mrs. J. R. Warner, Miss Mollie Hazlett, Mrs. W. A. Hobbs.

Tables—First Presbyterian church, Mrs. Will Smith; First M. E. church, Mrs. W. L. Taylor and Mrs. John Patterson; First U. P. church, Mrs. Joe Wilson and Mrs. George Grosshans; Catholic church, Mrs. Will Davidson, Mrs. W. T. Tebbutts; Christian, Mrs. C. C. Thompson and Miss Mary Vodrey; Episcopal, Mrs. E. L. Trimmer and Mrs. W. C. Lynch; Lutheran, Mrs Henry Scheiber and Miss Minnie Agner; M. P. church, Mrs. Rizer and Miss Hannah Hall; Baptist, Mrs. Sanford Fisher; Second U. P. church, Mrs. Charles Hanley and Mrs. Jesse Smith; Second Presbyterian, Mrs. T. W. McCain and Mrs. John Grant; Second M. E., Mrs. Wallover, Mrs. Cora Dawson.

It is the intention to convert the money realized into the building fund and begin active work upon the proposed hospital as soon as possible.

A TRESTLE AND THREE CARS WRECKED AT LISBON.

Standing on a Pottery Siding When They Started on a Ruinous Trip.

Lisbon, May 23. — (Special) — A train of 16 loaded freight cars ran away this morning on the switch leading to the Thomas China company's plant and smashed three cars and about 100 feet of a trestle 12 feet high.

WORK STOPPED

On Wabash Bridge Pier on West Virginia Side by Pennsylvania Company.

A Steubenville paper says: "For some time the Pennsylvania company that gobbles county roads and claims all earth between the water's edge and sky, has been trying to stop the work on the Wabash bridge pier on the West Virginia side.

All efforts have been futile until yesterday, when they succeeded in having work stopped, but how has not been learned. It is hoped they will not be able to stop the progress of the Wabash work very long."

IN THE HOSPITAL

A Potter Badly Injured as the Result of a Friendly Boxing Bout.

Lisbon, May 23. — (Special) — William Bailey, an employe of the pottery here, is at the Riverside hospital, sick with inflammation of the side. He was visiting friends in East Liverpool last Saturday and during a friendly sparring contest was hit in the side.

The hurt gave him no serious trouble until yesterday, when it became painful and he went to the hospital. Mr. Bailey moved here from East Liverpool recently.

FOR COMMENCEMENT

Handsome Invitations Issued By the Class of 1902.

The members of the class of 1902 of the high school have issued invitations to the twenty-sixth annual commencement exercises, to be held in the opera house Friday evening, May 30, at 8:15 o'clock.

The invitations are very handsome and somewhat of a departure from the time-honored custom, as the commencement program is not included.

The annual baccaleaureate sermon will be preached at St. Stephen's Episcopal church Sunday evening next by Rev. Edwin Weary.

CROWDS WILL GO

The La Belleview Excursion Leaves for Steubenville at 8:05 a. m.

All those who go on the La Belleview excursion to Steubenville tomorrow will be required to go on train No. 335, leaving here at 8:05, city time, and leaving Wellsville at 8:30. Tickets will be good returning on any regular train.

George W. Guthrie, the agent, is highly gratified with the results of the land company's advertising and expects to do a great business in consequence. Those who want free tickets can procure them this evening from George H. Owen & Co. until 9 o'clock tonight.

PEACE ASSURED

Agreement Between Boers and British Looked For at Any Moment.

London, May 23.—(Special)—The announcement that peace terms with the Boers had been effected is hourly expected. In diplomatic circles it is asserted that peace is assured.

CARELESS PIECE OF LEGISLATION

And That It Will Be Declared Unconstitutional—Assistant Fire Marshal After Incendiaries—Jubilee Convention Closes—Capital News.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 23.—Attorney General Sheets inclines to the belief that the Royer act which robs the supreme court of jurisdiction in about 75 per cent of the cases which it passes upon is unconstitutional. Error crept into the law inadvertently. Its purpose was to wipe out the provision barring cases involving less than $300 from the court, but in addition to repealing this section it repealed others, the effect of which will be, in the event that the amendment is permitted to stand, that circuit courts will have jurisdiction in the large majority of cases which otherwise would go to the supreme court.

Judge Sheets said that the amendment was a very careless piece of legislation, and expressed the belief that the difficulty could be obviated by applying well known rules of statutory construction. "There has been no change in any of the other provisions of the statute relative to proceedings in error and upon reading them it will appear that it is contemplated by these provisions that the supreme court has general jurisdiction in error," said the attorney general.

"The amended section is made to apply to all pending actions. Hence if it takes from the supreme court jurisdiction over all cases except the cases expressly enumerated, then it would result in the dismissal of a large majority of the cases now pending in that court. Such a construction in my judgment would render the act unconstitutional."

First Assistant Fire Marshal Beardsley has returned from a trip which included stops at Wellsville, Waynesburg, Stark county; Ravenna and Newcomerstown. He investigated a recent fire in Wellsville, but the evidence did not establish for a certainty that it was one of incendiary origin. He will look into the case further. The most suspicious case of the lot is the one at Ravenna. Two merchants of that place had a fire a short time ago which destroyed their place of business. A short time before the fire occurred they increased their insurance $11,000. One of them was seen leaving the building just before the blaze was discovered. The other two cases are still in abeyance. Deputy Fire Marshal Henry W. Hart, of Akron, assisted in the work of investigation at Wellsville and Ravenna.

The jubilee convention of the Ohio Christian Missionary society closed in this city Thursday night. Rev. J. G. Slaytor, pastor of the Christian church at Akron, was elected president. He is well known in Columbiana county, having frequently occupied the pulpits of the leading Christian churches of the county. Rev. Walter Mansell, of Salem, formerly pastor of the East Liverpool church, was made a member of the committee on nominations. Rev. J. Harrison Jones, of Alliance, who is 89 years of age, was the first president of the society. He was present at the convention and made an address on Thursday. President T. E. Cramblet, of Bethany college, a former pastor of the Salem Christian church, who was to have delivered the educational address to the convention, was called home by the death of his mother.

The Ohio spiritualists will hold their convention in this city Friday. D. A. Herrick, of Alliance, will make an address.

Arrested in Pittsburg.

John Allison, well known to the police authorities of this city, was arrested in Pittsburg Wednesday night on suspicion of being implicated in stealing a horse belonging to William Gutlett, of Wheeling.

HEAT PROSTRATION FATAL TO A COOK

James Conkle, residing in the East End, who was overcome by heat yesterday while at work at the Washington house, the details of which are given in another column, died just before noon today.

For many years Mr. Conkle was a steamboat cook and made many trips up and down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. Recently he had been in charge of the cooking department at the Washington house. He was about 55 years of age and was one of the best known men in the city. He is survived by a wife and several children.

EAST END

FINE HORSES

MANY NOW QUARTERED AT COLUMBIAN PARK.

A Number of Fast Animals Being Trained and Prepared For Racing.

There is great activity at Columbian park among the horsemen at present. Before another fortnight many more horses will be quartered there. The track has been thoroughly graded, and in the evenings there is some very spirited driving. There are no less than 11 horses quartered at the track at present, and many more will be sent there for training purposes, but there is not the room at this time. It may be that additional stalls will be erected soon, and in this event the horses will be sent there from several towns in this section of the state.

Sam Groves has charge of quite a number of good horses, among the number being the following: Mamie Hall, no record; Robert Harker, with a mark of 2:27; Robert L., with a pacing record of 2:24, owned by William Larkins; Ollie R., trotting record of 2:40, owned by Edward Neal; Demon, trotter, race record of 2:26, and a matinee record of 2:14, owned by C. A. Smith; John Webb, race record of 2:25 1-4, and a matinee record of 2:17 1-2, owned by C. A. Smith; Jim Weston, no record gven.

In the string looked after by James Moffatt, the following list of horses is given: Martha Lee, trotter, 2:26 1-2, H. S. Rinehart; Silver Thistle, pacer, 2:21 1-2, H. S. Rinehart; Ikey Boy, pacer, 2:22, Henry Deidrick; Dr. Hawker, pacer, 2:19 1-2, Mr. Fickes, New Cumberland.

These horses are driven over the Columbian park oval every day, some making a total of 16 laps during the heating, while others are driven less. After the drive the horses are taken back to their stalls where they are rubbed down. There is said to not be a horse at the track that could not be prepared for a race in a very short time. Many of these horses will be entered in the October races which will be held at the park.

NO FLAG THERE

O. U. A. W. Wants to See One Over the Horace Mann School Building.

"How does it come that there is no American flag at the Horace Mann school building?" in the East End is a question that is frequently heard. The matter is freely discussed by the Senior Mechanics in the East End. The order presented a flag to the old East End building, and a member of the order stated this morning that it was only occasionally seen on the building.

The members of the order claim these conditions should not exist, and at an early meeting it is likely action will be taken toward purchasing a flag for the new building, or else the board of education will be petitioned to buy one.

ARRESTS WILL FOLLOW

Board of Health Likely to End the East End Garbage Nuisance.

Sanitary Officer J. H. Burgess was in the East End yesterday for the purpose of investigating the matter of dumping garbage in the rear of the powder house of the American Sewer Pipe company, located on Lake's run. Officer Burgess found the conditions to be as related in this paper last evening, and even now the investigation is not at an end.

The nuisance has reached a stage that some harsh measures will be taken, and it is the purpose of the board of health to sift the matter to the bottom. It is predicted that several arrests will follow the investigations of Officer Burgess.

Wedded Last Week.

After succeeding in keeping the matter quiet for over a week the announcement was made this morning that on Wednesday evening of last week Frank Wherry, a well known politician of the East End, and Miss May Marsh were married at the home of relatives of the bride near Pittsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Wherry are now residing in Chester, where Mr. Wherry recently completed a modern eight room house.

Married at a Late Hour.

Although the event was to have taken place at 8 o'clock last evening the marriage of Miss Nellie May Barringer and Julius Glesencamp did not occur until 11 o'clock at the residence of Rev. George W. Orcutt. The young couple had been stopping in the Bradshaw addition and intended to go to the East End in the evening, but the trip was deferred until almost midnighth.

Overcome By Heat.

James Conkle, employed as a cook at the Washington house on Second street, was overcome by the heat yesterday, and it is feared he will not recover. Last evening he was removed to his home on Pennsylvania avenue in the city ambulance and this morning when seen by a physician his temperature was a little over 106. Last evening it was almost three degrees more.

Quieted the Discussion.

There was a family quarrel in the East End last evening, but it was in the main just talk, and no blows were struck. The matter was reported to the East End police while the heated discussion was in progress, and the home in question was visited by Officer Fisher. The appearance of the officer produced quiet.

Funeral of a Child.

The funeral services over the remains of Oscar, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of Elm street, were held yesterday afternoon. Interment was made at Riverview cemetery.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Frank Chambers spent the day n Pittsburg on business.

Mrs. Mattox, near Dry Run, is ill, suffering from typhoid fever.

Mrs. T. F. Anderson left yesterday for Steubenville and Holliday's Cove, where she will remain for several days visiting relatives and friends.

A number of young people from the East End left this morning for Steubenville where they propose to attend the circus, which is playing there today.

Mrs. Elizabeth Croupe, of Smith's Ferry, was brought to the home of her niece, Mrs. Archie Searight, of Pennsylvania avenue, yesterday. She has been ill for some time, and Mrs. Searight will nurse her.

There was to have been a meeting of the East End branch of the Prohibition Alliance last evening at the home of Archie Searight on Pennsylvania avenue, but the session was called off on account of the weather.

Rest Before Meals.

The value of a slight rest before meals is, according to a physician, very great. Indigestion more often arises from eating when tired or excited than is understood. In his dietary for a consumptive patient a very well known specialist insists upon a full twenty minutes' rest before all meals except breakfast. Five minutes' complete rest, of mind as well as body, is none too much for the person of average health, and it should be taken regularly.—New York Post.

Draw Corks Easily.

If you want to amuse friends at an evening party, tell them that you can draw a cork out of any bottle without a corkscrew. Of course they will laugh, but very soon it will be your turn to laugh.

Take a piece of sealing wax and hold one end of it over a lamp or gas jet until it becomes soft; then let some drops of the wax fall on the cork in the bottle. As soon as the cork is covered with wax you must press the piece which you hold in your hand against the cork, and you must hold it there until the wax is quite dry. Then it will be easy for you to draw out the cork by using the stick of wax, which adheres to it in the same manner as you would use a screw.

No matter how firmly fixed the cork may be, it will almost immediately yield to the pressure. You must, however, take care not to wrench the stick of wax away from it while you are drawing it out, and you must also see that the cork is perfectly dry before you pour any wax on it.

Bengal Tigers.

The man eater is usually an older tiger, whose strength is failing and whose teeth have partly lost their sharpness. Such a beast finds it easier to lurk in the vicinity of settlements and to pick up an occasional man, woman or child than to run down wild cattle.

The largest, fiercest and most brightly colored tigers are found in the province of Bengal, near the mouths of the Ganges river and not far from Calcutta. A full grown Bengal tiger sometimes measures ten feet from nose to tip of tail. Such a monster makes no more account of springing upon a man that a cat does of seizing a mouse. He surpasses the lion in strength and ferocity and has no rival among beasts of prey except the grizzly bear and the recently discovered giant bear of Alaska.—St. Nicholas.

The Forgotten Dot.

A wedding took place a short time back in a large town in the north of England, the service being conducted by a rather eccentric vicar. Two days after the ceremony he called at the house of the bridegroom's mother, but she happened to be out, so he said he would call again, which he did later on in the day, carrying two large green bags under his arm.

This time he found her in. So he began by asking them to clear the table a little. Then he opened the greer bags, from which he took the registers. These he opened and in a most solemn tone said:

"Mrs. Williams, you have forgotten to dot the "i" in Elizabeth."

The family breathed once more.

MOB BURNS NEGRO.

Husband of His Victim Applied Match, at Longview, Texas.

WIFE PRESENT AT EXECUTION.

Longview, Tex., May 23.—A man hunt, which had been in progress since last Saturday, ended yesterday in the burning at the stake of Dudley Morgan, a negro, who assaulted Mrs. McKee, wife of a Texas and Pacific section foreman at Lansing, Tex.

The train bearing the prisoner and his captors arrived at Marshall and was met by a great crowd of people. Many more boarded the train at Hallville, and when it arrived at Lansing every available place on it was occupied. Waitng at Lansng was another large crowd from Longview and the surrounding country.

The negro was not taken from the train on the side where the crowd was, and when the engineer started to pull out several Winchesters were leveled at him and others of the train crew. They were told if they moved the train an inch they would be killed. The prisoner was identified by Mrs. McKee and several negroes who worked on the section with Morgan. The negro was escorted by about 200 men, armed with Winchesters, to the place of execution. As he was chained to the stake he made a statement, in which he implicated another negro named Franklin Heard, saying Heard was to get part of the money which wa sto be stolen.

Slowly Tortured to Death.

Morgan confessed to having committed the crime and after he had been securely chained to the rail, with his hands and legs free, the mob began to take railroad ties from a fire already started and burn out his eyes. They then held the red-hot and burning timbers to his neck, and, after burning his clothes off, to other parts of his body. The negro screamed in agony. He was tortured deliberately and slowly, with the crowd clamoring for a slow death, and the negro, writhing and groaning, begged piteously to be shot. Mrs. McKee was brought to the scene in a carriage, accompanied by four other women, and an effort was made to get the carriage close enough for her to see the negro. The crowd was so dense, however, that this was impossible.

Grewsome Search For Relics.

Persons held each other on their shoulders, taking turns looking at the awful sight. The negro's head finally dropped and the ties were piled around and over him. In half an hour only the trunk of his body remained. As soon as the heat would permit the crowd, with long sticks, began a grewsome search for relics. Parts of his skull and body were gathered up by some and carried away. As the fire died down the crowd took the two men who first caught the negro and held them on their shoulders, and, with their Winchesters in their hands, were photographed.

Section Foreman McKee, husband of the woman assaulted, applied the match to the faggots. Many women were present from the surrounding country, but owing to the great crush they had very little opportunity to see the negro until the heat forced the crowd to widen the circle and the flames leaped over them.

Forced Engineer to Stop.

The railroads brought crowds of people to Longview Junction, where they boarded the Texas and Pacific fast train. This ordinarily doesn't stop at Lansing. The engineer was forced at the point of a Winchester to stop at the scene of the lynching and the mob disembarked.

REFORMED PRESBYTERIANS.

Rev. J. B. Crawford Unanimously Elected Moderator of the General Synod.

Philadelphia, May 23.—The forty-ninth annual conference of the general synod of the Reformed Presbyterian church, which convened in this city last night, held its first business sesson yesterday. Delegates are in attendance from all parts of the United States and Canada.

The first business before the synod yesterday was the election of a moderator and other officers for the ensuing year. Rev. J. B. Crawford, of Waynesburg, N. Y., was unanimously elected moderator; Rev. Prof. James Y. Boyce, D. D., of Philadelphia, stated clerk, and Rev. John H. Kendall, Tarentum, Pa., assistant stated clerk. Rev. James Steele, of the Twelfth Street church, New York, presented the report of the special committee appointed by the last synod to raise funds for the India mission field, and it was approved. The synod will be in session for a week.

OCCUPATION ACT OF GOD.

Bishop Thoburn So Stated of Taking of Philippines — Patterson's Questioning Stopped.

Washington, May 23.—Bishop Thoburn, of the M. E. church of India and Malasia, was before the senate committee on Philippines yesterday. He said the American occupation of the Philippines should be continued. In the course of his examination he said that the American occupation was an act of God. This led to quite a long line of questions by Senator Patterson.

Senator Beveridge objected, saying the questions were unnecessary, and Senator Patterson remarked that whenever the questions were such as to bring out evidence which the majority did not want an excuse was made for objection.

Chairman Lodge sustained the objection. Bishop Thoburn will continue today.

At one point Senator Beveridge brought out the fact that the witness had resided for 43 years in the straits settlement, and asked him for his opinion of the capacity of the Malay for self-government. "I think they are very defective," he said. "It would be a crime in my opinion to remove the present American restraints in the Philippines."

Further along the bishop said he believed the Filipinos should have a protectorate, after the manner of the British protectorate. The bishop said he did not believe that originally the American government had, when Admiral Dewey went to Manila, any intention of taking control of the Philippines. President McKinley, he said, had told him that he had tried in every possible way to avoid the annexation of the Philippines.

MARKET WAS IRREGULAR.

Anxiety Over Coal Strike Because of Implied Threat of Engineers, Firemen and Pumpmen.

New York, May 23.—The stock market was extremely irregular throughout and closed with that tendency rather emphasized yesterday. The same stocks changed their course in some cases and the prevailing disposition of the speculation was hard to distingush, and was, n fact, much confused and mixed. The anxiety over the coal strike was rather deeper, on account of the implied threat of the engineers, firemen and pump-runners in the anthracite mines to come out, unless an eight-hour day is granted them. This would bring the struggle to an acute stage, as the safety of the mines is dependent upon this work being done.

May Consider Peace Proposals.

London, May 23.—While the government departments are discreetly silent it is generally accepted that the summoning of the cabinet is directly connected with the South African peace conference. Most of the ministers are out of town for the Whitsuntide races, though they left rather expecting to have their holiday broken up by just such a summons.

For a Weak Back.

The muscles of the bask may be very much strengthened and all pain and soreness removed by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and having the parts rubber vigorously for five minutes at each application. Twenty-five and fifty cent bottles of this liniment are for sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

J. D. Scott has been appointed road commissioner of Knox township.

Canton saloonkeepers have subscribed $50,000 in stock to run a co-operative brewery.

It is said that sheep near Hanoverton have been discovered eating their new-born lambs.

The trustees of Hanover township have appointed Homer O. Wilson, of Adair, roadmaster.

Two small wrecks occurred on the C. & P. railroad at Toronto on Wednesday evening, blocking the tracks and delaying traffic for some time.

The Buckeye Engine company, Salem, has received the largest order for engines from the Pennsylvania company that it ever received from any company.

A steam launch will be run between New Cumberland and Myers' landing at the upper end of Toronto to connect with the Steubenville trolley line.

William Mitchell, a brakeman on the Panhandle railroad, whose home is at Bishop Station, lost both arms by being caught between cars in the yards at Carnegie.

H. Seanor has just drilled an oil well on the Lawrence Knoll farm a short distance northwest of Homeworth. The well promises to be a good producer.

The Lisbon high school class, which will be graduated May 29, consists of Mabel Marquis, James A. Arter, Eva Deemer, Clarence Lesterly, Carrie Esther Boone, Hazel Burnett and Charles W. Metts.

The mammoth trestle of the Lake Erie, Alliance and Wheeling extension over the Panhandle railroad at Carmon's is completed, and is now ready to carry the heavy coal trains from the new mines soon to be opened in Jefferson county.

J. B. Vandergrift, Brooke county's millionaire resident, has made a proposition to the Wellsburg council to donate $750 toward macadamizing Pleasant avenue. Although this avenue runs through the wealthiest and most beautiful residence portion of the city, it is in little better condition than a country road.

SOME WRITERS.

Buffon wrote in lace ruffles and Alexandre Dumas in shirt sleeves.

Milton composed his "Paradise Lost" on a large armchair, with his head thrown back.

Bret Harte's first literary success was a little book called "Condensed Novels," in which he parodied some prominent novelists of the day.

Austin Dobsin, the poet, wanted in early life to be an engineer and was preparing for that profession when his parents persuaded him to enter the civil service.

When Fox had eaten heartily, he would retire to his study, envelop his head in a napkin soaked in vinegar and water and work sometimes ten hours in succession.

Allison is said to have consumed twenty-four years in the preparation of his "History of Europe," but many important literary enterprises were also carried on by him during this time.

It is related of Hall Caine, the novelist, that he once worked in the Laxey lead mines, in the Manx mountains, in place of a young man who was ill to keep the young fellow's position for him.

Mrs. Bolton, the Indiana composer of the once popular song "Paddle Your Own Canoe," received the inspiration to write while sewing and fitting the first carpets for the old statehouse of Indiana.

The Versatile Weekes.

As an all round athlete Harold Weekes of Columbia has proved himself remarkable. There are few branches of sport in which he is not expert. He has a national reputation as a football player, is a good oarsman and can run 100 yards in 10 2-5 seconds. Weekes has now taken up baseball. He showed so well in practice that he has been given a place on the regular varsity team.

The honors paid the kaiser's brother on his recent visit are being duplicated, though perhaps on a less princely scale, in the attentions given the national guests from France. No distinguished foreigner ever need have reason to complain of the warmth and cordiality of American hospitality. Uncle Sam is a bigger figure in the world than he used to be, but he is not puffed up, and always meets half way all tnose who manifest a disposition to be friendly.

Again the rumor is current that John R. McLean, of Washington, is about to take a hand in Democratic politics in Ohio. Many of the unterrified are hoping it is true, not because they love McLean so much, but because they love his barrel more. But they should stop and reflect and ask themselves what McLean has ever done for them save to put them in the hole, where they still grope darkly.

Some of the Democratic papers are learning for the first time that Thomas Jefferson prepared for himself and left among his literary remains a personally edited copy of the New Testament. Yet there seems to be no Democratic rush to recognize this fact as the long-sought issue for 1904.

Charles M. Schwab has given $150,000 to Braddock churches, and shows no disposition to stop at that. When he gets through with his home town, if he still feels in a generous mood, he will doubtless not lack an opportunity to place more cash in the same way.

The action of the house in demanding an educational qualification for immigrants to be admitted to this country is a wise one. This nation believes in free schools and cannot afford to welcome or encourage illiteracy.

Perhaps it is just as well that Uncle Sam should not pay for those Danish West India islands until the season of volcanic activity is past. He might awaken some morning and look around in vain for his purchases.

The Presbyterian general assembly has done a wise thing in settling the creed revision controversy. But what will the Presbyterians do now to make their annual meetings earnest and exciting?

Pennsylvania politics are becoming sadly muddled. It seems to be a case of too many cooks spoiling the broth. There was more harmony when would-be bosses were less numerous.

The Democrats are boasting that they will carry the next house of representatives. When they carry anything it will be something of less weight.

Texas is boastful of her greatness, but she will never be truly great as long as her people defy the law and countenance and encorage barbarism.

Congress should lose no time in agreeing on a canal route and enacting legislation that will enable the work to start before the year ends.

Congress seems determined to fight its battles out if it takes all summer. And unless there is more business and less talk, it will.

Troubles never come singly. Mont Pelee is again in eruption and Tillman is likely to break forth at any moment.

The promised street signs are mighty slow in materializing. Yet the necessity for them grows every day.

Wanted—A base ball team that can meet East Liverpool and make the game interesting.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

The Oldest Force Storage.

The water wheel is probably the oldest method of obtaining mechanical force apart from the employment of animal force. These wheels were no doubt at first worked by a flowing river and then by a failing stream, and it would not be a very great advance on this method to dam back the stream so as to obtain a continuous supply of force even in times of drought. Such storing of water at a sufficiently high level is the simplest and even at the present time the most successful method of storing force. If carefully arranged, the loss by evaporation and leakage is small and may be partly or wholly replaced by rain, so the force is always available, and but little labor is needed to keep such works in repair. The water clock of the Romans was an elaboration of this method of storing force and was for them the only form of "motor."

Diet and Character.

An exclusively pork diet tends infallibly to pessimism. Beef, if persevered in for months, makes a man strong, energetic and audacious. A mutton diet continued for any length of time tends to melancholia, while veal eaters gradually lose energy and gayety. The free use of eggs and milk tends to make women healthy and vivacious. Butter used in excess renders its users phlegmatic and lazy. Apples are excellent for brain workers, and everybody who has much intellectual work to do should eat them freely. Potatoes, on the contrary, render one dull, invidious and lazy when eaten constantly and in excess. To preserve the memory, even to an advanced age, nothing is better than mustard.—London Chronicle.

The Art Treasures of Europe.

"What did I like best in France?" she repeated. "Why, Paris, of course. But I'll tell you where we had the most fun, and so cheap too. We went to Reims. Phil wanted to see the Joan of Arc statue, which is considered very fine. It stands in front of an appallingly ancient inn, where her parents stayed, I blieve.

"While Phil was studying Joan and her rapt expression Charlie and Sally and I went to visit the wine cellars of Pomeroy—they call them 'caves,' my dear—and what do you think? They gave us each a bottle of champagne for nothing! It is the custom. Phil lost all interest in Joan and her statue when we told him of it afterward."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

The Dinner Horn.

Details in regard to the manner in which meals were served during the dark ages do not abound. It is only toward the twelfth century that we begin to have a little light on this interesting subject. When a meal was ready in the thirteenth century, the guests of a castle, with the vassals, were assembled to the sound of a horn, a method of summoning that appears to have been the privilege only of the greatest lords. Some hundreds of years later a bell was used for the purpose.

Office of the Lungs.

"The chest," she promptly replied.

POTTERY NEWS

The strike of the coal miners in the eastern Pennsylvania district is being felt by the pottery trade, and some manufacturers who have had salesmen in that territory have recalled and sent them elsewhere. Especially is this true of the several firms in this city who have been selling assortments in that section. The trade of these firms has been confined in the main to the small dealers, who would give ware away as premiums or make a run on some special line of goods which they have received. Ever since the strike of the coal miners was anticipated the manufacturers have been watching the territory closely, and now it is said there is not a pottery salesman in the entire strike district.

A delegate to the recent convention at Trenton said today: "Everybody cannot be pleased, and while the convention tried to treat all trades fairly, it may be that some locals are sore over the actions which were taken." Another delegate said: "There were some very warm discussions at times, but when it was all over we shook hands and parted friends. I cannot see why any friction should exist."

Clay found on a farm a short distance back of Chester is extensively used in the making of knobs. A company has been purchasing the clay found in this section for some time, and the claim is made that it is the best for the purpose found in this section in recent years. The clay is brought to the factory by the owners of the farm upon which it is found.

No less than four locals will meet this evening. They are packers, No. 25; warehousemen, No. 48; kilnmen, No. 9; dippers, No. 18, and finishers, No. 53. Some very important business will be transacted by the finishers, relative to matters which were acted upon at the last convention.

Sherman Campbell, who has been employed as a kilnman at the old end, has resigned his position and will spend the summer on a farm. He has secured a long lease on the old farm near Chester, and within a few days will remove his family to the country.

John Johnson, of the East End, who until recently was employed at the Union and Brunt's as a dipper, has gone to Lisbon where he has taken charge of the dipping department of the Thomas China company.

Several new glaze mills are being built at the Union, which are expected to be ready to operate within two weeks. The machinery for these mills has been installed.

John Densmore, a glost kilnhand at the Laughlin No. 2, has returned from a short trip to Lisbon,, where he has purchased a number of premium chickens.

William Farrell is a new kilnhand at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery at Chester. He was formerly engaged on biscuit at the Union.

John Demmering, a glost kilnhand at the Union, has been unable to work for several days on account of illness.

James Price has taken a position as presser at the old end. He has been selling waffles during the winter.

Burmese Ambition.

The highest ambition of a Burman's life is to build a pagoda, by which he wins the title of Kyanng Taga during this incarnation and secures a mortgage on Nirvana. A Burman does not become a Christian easily, but when he does he brings with him the conviction he had as a Buddhist that to build a place of worship is the most meritorious act of a man's life.

This accounts for the present cathedral of Mandalay, built at a cost of 60,000 rupees by Kyanng Taga Paul Obon, a Burmese ruby merchant of that city. The old church of Amarapura was built by an Armenian and the two churches of the Tennessarim coast by a gentleman named De Castro.

Many of the 700 and more chapels and churches throughout Burma are built of jungle wood, which is destroyed in a few years by the white ants. To replace them by teak or pyingkado, not to speak of modest structures, is a matter of hope with every priest, but in their straitened finances they do the best they can and pray for Kyanng Tages to came along.—Donahoe's Magazine.

Halifax.

The evil repute of Halifax implied in the adage "Go to Halifax!" came to it by inheritance from Halifax in Yorkshire, England. Halifax law, as may be gathered from a letter of Lord Leicester quoted by Motley, was that criminals should be "condemned first and inquired upon afterward."

Halifax lay within the forest of Hardwick, where the law was that if a felon was taken with 13½ pence worth of stolen goods he should be tried by four firth burgers from four of the precinct towns and if condemned by them be hanged the next day. After this proceeding had been carried out to the letter the case might be sent to a jury.

Halifax is also credited with being the home of the guillotine, which the regent, Earl Morton, introduced into Scotland only to have his own head chopped off with it.

Rubinstein's Reply.

When Rubinstein was traveling through the United States upon a concert tour, it chanced that Barnum's circus followed almost exactly the same route chosen by the great Russian. On one occasion, when the train was filled with snake charmers, acrobats, clowns and the like, the guard, noticing perhaps Rubinstein's remarkable appearance, asked him, "Do you belong to the show?"

Turning his leonine head with a savage shake Rubinstein answered fiercely, "Sir, I am the show."

Doubling Up.

A boy of eight years was asked by his teacher where the zenith was. He replied, "That spot in the heavens directly over one's head."

To test his knowledge further the teacher asked:

"Can two persons have the same zenith at the same time?"

"They can."

"How?"

"If one stand on the other's head."

Don't Be a Waiter.

There are too many people in the world waiting for favorable conditions. Don't do it. While you are hesitating some one else is plowing ahead of you. Wait for nothing; map out a course and pursue it, rain or shine, mud or dust, storm or lull, cold or heat, good times or bad times. Wait for nothing. —Atchison Globe.

There is an immense range of difference in the brightness of the stars when the sun is taken for a standard of comparison. Some of the stars emit only one one-hundredth as much light as the sun emits. Others emit a thousand times as much light as he does. Indeed, one scientist thinks there are at least two stars each of which is probably 10,000 times as bright as the sun, which signifies that if either of those stars were as near to us as the sun is it would outshine him 10,000 times in brightness. The two stars are Canopus, which is in the southern hemisphere and invisible from our part of the earth, and Rigel, one of the two brightest stars in the constellation Orion.

The Size of Great Britain.

Great Britain is only half as big as Sumatra and double the size of Newfoundland. It stands fifth in point of size in the list of the world's islands. England without Wales is almost identical in point of size with Roumania. It is less than one-quarter as big as France or Germany. The whole British isles only occupy the one sixteenhundredth part of the surface of this globe. Great Britain is widest between Land's End and Kent. The utmost width is 325 miles. It is narrowest between Lock Broom, on the west coast of Scotland, and Bornoch firth, on the east coast. The distance between the heads of these two inlets is but twenty-four miles.

LABORERS ENGAGE IN SERIOUS FIGHT

WILLIAM HAMS KNOCKED SENSELESS BY A BRI...

His Skull Was Crushed And Scalp Badly Cut—John Ingram Jailed for the Crime.

A fight which came near resulting in the death of a colored laborer occurred shortly after 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the neighborhood of Fifteenth and Commerce streets.

Two colored laborers named John Ingram and William Hams, who had been teasing each other all of the fore part of the afternoon, finally came to blows and the affair resulted in Hams having the back part of his skull crushed in with a brick thrown by Ingram.

The men were working with a gang for Rinehart Bros. on the new Commerce street paving and were unloading brick. Their joking had continued but a short time when Hams picked up a shovel and spanked Ingram in a friendly way, not meaning any harm. Ingram, however, took exceptions to Hams' action and retaliated with a brick, which he picked up from the pile laying on the side of the street. Hams had his back turned at the time and the brick hit him on the back of the head, cutting a deep gash and crushing the skull.

Ingram seeing what he had done took to his heels and ran up Commerce street at the top of his speed. He was pursued by a dozen of his fellow laborers, who overtook him in front of J. M. Russell's property, near Fourteenth street, and brought him back to where the deed was committed. He was permitted to continue with his work until Officers Thorne and Pittinger arrived by street car and conveyed him to the city lockup. He will appear before the mayor today.

Hams was carried to a West End livery stable at the corner of Eighteenth and Commerce street in an unconscious condition, where Drs. Frazer and Duncan were called and dressed his wounds.

Roy Rinehart, who is foreman of the gang, was not present at the time, and was, therefore, unable to put a stop to the affair. He states that both of the men are from Danville, Va., and have been working for Rinehart Bros. for some time. They were always very friendly toward each other.

Ingram, in giving his statement of the trouble, states that Hams had been picking on him for some time, and, when he was spanked by his fellow laborer, become excited and threw the brick at him. The prisoner does not seem to realize that the charge against him is a serious one, although he is considerably scared.

Railroad Clerical Changes.

Many changes in the clerical department of the C. & P. shops and depots are to be made next Monday. W. W. Love, now chief clerk of the Third street freight office, will take the place of W. E. Shultz, who will commence firing on a freight run. Edward Horrigan, now bill clerk at the Twelfth street depot, will take Mr. Love's place. John Cameron, of the uppper depot, will take Mr. Horrigan's place. William Grafton, now of Bellaire, but formerly of this city, has been offered Cameron's position, and it is thought he will accept.

Mrs. Gordon's Divorce Suit.

A rather sensational divorce suit has been entered in the court at Lisbon, a hearing of which is to be had in a few days. Mrs. Martha Gordon filed suit for divorce from her husband, James H. Gordon, whose whereabouts, she states, are unknown.

A Rare Entertainment.

An entertainment or rare worth entitled "Dogma of Faith or the Catholic Doctrine Illustrated," will be given in the Immaculate Conception church Sunday evening for the benefit of the church. It will be under the direction of Rev. Father James H. Halligan and will be accompanied by an illustrated explanatory lecture.

RAILROAD VETERANS

Of Pennsylvania Lines West Soon to Hold a Big Reunion in Pittsburg.

On June 17 the sixth annual meeting of the Veteran Employes' Association of the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad will be held at Hotel Anderson, Pittsburg. This association is one of the largest of its kind in the United States and only employes of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg who were employed prior to 1870 are eligible to membership.

Transportation will be furnished to all employes and their wives by the secretary or sub-secretaries, while the present employes will receive their transportation by applying to the head of their respective departments.

A banquet will be held at the hotel at 8 o'clock in the evening and a moonlight excursion up the Monongahela river has been planned for after the banquet.

MASONIC BANQUET

Enjoyable Affair Under the Auspices of Wellsville Chapter, R. A. M.

A banquet was given last evening by Wellsville chapter, No. 55, Royal Arch Masons, in their hall on Main street in honor of the wives and friends of the members of the order, 60 in number. Plate were laid for 100 people.

The committee on ararngements was Rev. R. H. Edwards, T. R. Snowden and A. P. Dennis. The lodge room was decorated with potted plants and the tables with red carnations symbolic of the chapter's colors. No addresses of toasts were offered, by the special request of the committee, who wished to make the occasion a purely social one.

After the banquet was over a dance was enjoyed the remainder of the evening. Ormes brothers' orchestra, of East Liverpool, furnished the music.

Kelly Avenue Grading.

Work has been commenced on the grading of Kelly avenue by Contractor Rinehart. This, together with the paving of Commerce street and many other needed city improvements, has been hanging fire for some time, but all of the work will now be rushed to completion.

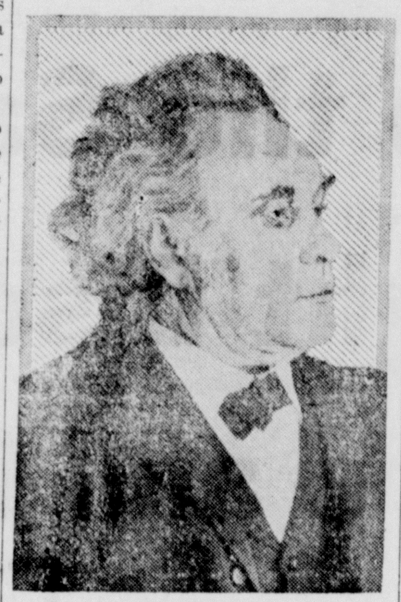
REBUKED KING EDWARD.

Clergyman Accused His Majesty of Violating the Sabbath.

Because King Edward VII. of England attended a Sunday concert he has been taken to task by the famous Congregationalist preacher, Rev. Joseph Parker, D. D., of London. During the course of a recent sermon in the City Temple Dr. Parker said that what the king does is likely to be imitated by others therefore if the king goes to a Sunday concert he deals a deadly blow to the Englishman's Sunday. This sentiment was warmly applauded by the congregation.

Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker, D. D., has been preaching since 1848. Since 1869 he has been in London, where he built the City Temple at a cost of $350,000.



REV. DR. JOSEPH PARKER.

This church has many branches and missions throughout London and enjoys large revenues. The pastor is one of the finest orators and most popular ministers in the great metropolis. He declares he wears a gown in the pulpit because he has the worst coat in the congregation. Rev. Dr. Parker has published a "People's Bible" in twenty-five volumes, being a series of sermons expounding the books of the Bible.

Dry Rubs Versus Baths.

"I used to take a bath every morning, but two a week is my limit now," said a well known athlete. "Instead I use a flesh brush every morning for an hour, and I've never been in better shape in my life. I start at the top of my head with a hairbrush, then take the fleshbrush—it is made specially for the purpose—and finish the job down to my feet until my skin is nearly the color of a boiled lobster. There's nothing like it in the world. It keeps the pores free and open, clears away the dead cuticle, doesn't enervate the system like a bath and above all is the finest exercise you can get. Rubbing the body vigorously with the brush, changing from hand to hand as the muscles of one arm tire, will keep you supple and limber. It's a great thing."—Philadelphia Record.

Why Rabbits Do Not Kill.

Cheese to be digestible should be cooked, says a scientific cook. Some people think it is only a fad to put grated cheese on crackers and cook them in the oven, but that is an excellent way of preparing this food. The Welsh rarebit, or rabbit, if properly made, is another good way of cooking cheese and is more digestible than the piece of cheese we eat with apple pie. When adding cheese to a dish, do not sprinkle it in layers, but melt it thoroughly in heated butter. Cheese to be digestible should be crumpled finely or grated, if eaten raw, and when cooked should be dissolved with milk or broth or vegetable juices.

The Canary Household.

To insure the hatching of canaries' eggs more nearly at one time the first eggs are sometimes taken away by the fanciers and replaced by artificial ones, all being put back in the nest when the bird ceases to lay. While she is sitting the prospective father lives up to his responsibilities and devotes his time to seeing that his mate does her duty, and when she leaves her nest, if she shows an inclination to daily, sharp pecks drive her back.

SOUNDING BOARD

A new sounding board is being placed at the rear of the new orchestra platform at Rock Springs park pavilion. The board is in the shape of a dome and surrounds the rear of the platform, making a very neat appearance and at the same time making the music of the orchestra carry a much further distance than heretofore.

This is a much needed improvement and will be greatly appreciated by the dancing public, as much better time can be kept in this manner. Incandescent electric lights will surround the new platform, giving the stage a very showy appearance.

MUCH INTERESTED

Are Chester Citizens in the Proposed Street Railway Line to the County Seat.

The application for a franchise for a street railway from Chester to Congo and New Cumberland will be heard by the county court at the latter town June 9. The promoters are leading citizens of New Cumberland and Hancock county, whose names have already been published.

It is said they certainly mean business, and Chester is much interested. Attorney J. R. Donehoo will represent the company.

Valuable Horse So Injured That It Had to Be Killed.

Edward McGahan was forced to kill a very fine horse last evening. He had a good team of working horses, and has been accustomed to turning them loose in a lot near the planing mill. Last night they began kicking each other. The best one had a hind leg broken, and was so injured that it had to be killed.

Valuable Horse Badly Hurt.

Sheriff Allison, of New Cumberland, will probably lose a very valuable driving horse. Patrick Dubb, one of the sheriff's assistants, recently turned the horse into a vacant lot with several ponies. The ponies ran the horse into a barbed wire fence injuring the horse so that it nearly bled to death.

Inspecting the New Road.

J. Wesley Flower, J. H. Campbell and E. W. Hewitt, the county commissioners from New Cumberland, were in Chester this morning, inspect the new county road which has just been completed by C. A. Smith and others, with a view to its acceptance by the county.

Coming Wedding.

No Council Meeting.

There was no quorum present, and the town council held no meeting last evening. Manager Maxwell, of the Rock Springs park, was present with written promises of what the street railway would do regarding paving.

CHESTER NOTES.

Curious Ways of Hopi Maids.

In this age of advanced views on matrimonial entanglements and obligations it is refreshing to read of the curious marriage customs of the gentle savages of the Hopi tribe in Arizona. Here the Hopi maid does the wooing, for the women of the Hopi brand are held in much higher respect than are the coppery sisters of kindred tribes. And when the Hopi maid has selected the youth of her choice she goes to his house as a suitor for his hand and testifies both to her devotion and her industry by grinding corn beneath his roof until he is sufficiently impressed with her qualities to yield and name the day.

When the Hopi maid leads the man of her choice to the tribal altar, she does so in the midst of elaborate ceremonials of long duration, and when all is over she takes him to her home. Nor does she yield this ownership when she weds. On the contrary, the house, the fields and all the property save the herds belong to the wife. This, as will be seen, greatly facilitates the Hopi method of obtaining a divorce, for when the wife tires of her husband she simply takes his saddle from her floor and tosses it out through her door, and the divorce is completed. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

No Chance For Him.

"Now that we are engaged," said the fair young thing, "I will tell you that I do not fear mice."

"That is nice," said the prospective groom.

"And," continued the fiancee, "I can drive nails without hitting my thumb, and I know how to use a paper cutter without ruining a book, and I can add a row of figures without making a separate sum for each consecutive figure, and I can build a fire, and I can tell when a picture is hung straight on the wall."

Here the man drew himself up with much dignity and sorrow and cried:

"Then I cannot marry you alas!"

"Why?" gasped the girl.

"What prospect is there for my ever being able to demonstrate the superiority of man over woman if I marry a woman who possesses such traits of character as you?"—Baltimore American.

The Cocoa Plantation.

A traveler in South America, where the cocoa tree is largely cultivated, speaks of the great care with which the young plants have to be protected from the sun, which, if very strong, is fatal to them. To secure this protection the planters shield them by banana trees and plantain trees, the broad leaves of which give them the needed shade. And even when they are fully grown they need protection, which is given by trees known as "immortels," or, as the planters call them, "the mother of the cocoa." Thus the whole cocoa plantation has a sort of canopy.

THE VERY WORST YET

Score Yesterday Stood 15 to 0 in East Liverpool's Favor—The Question Is: Has Pittsburg Any Amateurs Who Can Play Ball?

A climax was reached in East Liverpool base ball yesterday afternoon in West End park when the locals played the Iron City Athletic club, of Pittsburg. Nobody thought that the time would come again when a poorer exhibition than the one put up by the Civics, of Allegheny, would be witnessed within the city limits. When the visitors yesterday showed themselves far inferior to any team that ever walked on a Columbiana county diamond the chagrin of the fans can be imagined.

At the end of the eighth inning the game was called much to the satisfaction of all and the Smoky City aspirants were given railroad fare with instructions to leave East Liverpool within two hours. They left on the 6:40 train and showed good judgment in doing so. Manager Walsh and Associate Manager Rose have the sympathy of every one. They did the best they could to get an attraction. Certainly they cannot be censured when they date teams that have been given a reputation by the Pittsburg sporting editors. There is a growing belief here among those who watch ball records that every amateur team in Pittsburg has been overrated. Some day Allegheny county may wake up and become proficient enough in the sport at least to make a contest with East Liverpool interesting. Up to date teams sent here from Pittsburg have been so easy that it has had anything but a good effect on base ball.

Only 15 runs were scored yesterday by the locals and only a goose egg by the visitors. The next time they may do better.

Hamilton, Davis and F. Heckathorn batted the ball unmercifully, while Kennedy and J. Heckathorn had but little compassion on it. A total of 14 hits without the least exertion was the result of the onslaught.

Patterson pitched just as hard as he does when he is against a good team. He improves in every game and will no doubt be one of the strongest twirlers in the state ere the season closes. The remaining members of the team played well and got a little practice which they appreciate very much, having had but about a dozen practice games this season.

A STUPENDOUS ERROR

Columbus, May 23.—(Special)—A stupendous error was discovered yesterday in the Royer law, enacted by the last general assembly, by Judge Okey, of Columbus.

The law was enacted to repeal the section prohibiting the admission of cases involving less than $300 in the supreme court, but it develops that it takes away from the court jurisdiction in about 95 per cent of the cases which it passes upon.

Ben Hur Tribe at Sebring.

A tribe of Ben Hur, having on its charter the names of 32 of the citizens of Sebring, was organized Wednesday night. The tribe is No. 140, and officers elected were as follows: David Duncan, past chief; John Graham, chief; Ed Bordman, judge; Bertha Leonard, scribe; Alonzo Aiken, keeper of tribute; Lizzie Graham, teacher; Henry Morgan, captain; Caleb Halen, guide; Tom Wiggins, keeper of outer gate; David Watt, keeper of inner gate. Dr. Haggart, Ed Bordman and Harriet Johnson, trustees.

AUTHOR OF "AUDREY."

Talented Author Spent but Three Months at School.

The success of Mary Johnston, author of the novel "Audrey," probably the most successful book of the year, seems the more remarkable when it is known that the talented writer spent but three months of her life at school. Her health was so frail as to forbid continued application to study. Although taught at home, at first by her family and later by governesses, her education was always conducted with due regard for her physical limitations. While still in her early teens the future author was sent to a finishing school at Atlanta, but in three months her health broke down, and she was taken home. That ended Miss Johnston's school days.

Mary Johnston was born thirty-one years ago at Buchanan, Va. Here the early years of her life were spent. When fifteen years old, her father moved to Birmingham, Ala., where she still makes her home. A year later her mother died, and the girl of sixteen, the eldest of several brothers and sisters, was called upon to direct the affairs of the household. But Miss Johnston was not an ordinary girl and in doing for others found that inspiration which has brought success.

Miss Johnston's literary favorites are Shakespeare, Marlowe, Spenser, the essayists of the eighteenth century, the balladists of Scotland and Shelley, Keats and Browning. To a course of reading which has left a mind impregnated with the spirit and idiom of the times of which she writes is added an imagination so fertile and vivid as to be almost a sixth sense.

Miss Johnston's writing is done at no particular hour and in no particular place, although a very great deal of it has been accomplished in the open air. "Prisoners of Hope," which was begun when the author was living in New York city, was largely written in a secluded nook in Central park. Much of "To Have and to Hold" was written at a small mountain resort in Virginia.

CROWDS TO COME

To This City Memorial Day for K. of C. Installation Exercises.

On Memorial day the Knights of Columbus of this city will initiate a class of 45 new members into the order, this work consuming the greater part of the entire day. Arrangements have been completed to entertain not less than 500 visitors, and this number may be largely increased. Members of the order and their friends will be present from Dennison, Wheeling, Steubenville, Alliance, Pittsburg and Youngstown.

A special train will be run to this city from Dennison, which will return about 11 o'clock in the evening. Three halls have been secured to carry out the program of the day, which will be under the point direction of the East Liverpool and Wellsville councils.

WAR ON BREWERS

Declared By Saloon Men, Who Say the Beer Makers Are in a Trust.

Columbus, May 23.—(Special)—The retail liquor dealers will bring suit in the common pleas court of this county and in the United States court against the Ohio Brewers' association of the Brewers' Protective association to oust them from their charter rights for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. The claim is made that both associations are restricting trade, maintaining prices and doing other things contrary to the law.

The Brewers' Protective association met in this city this week and decided to raise the price of beer, which caused a general uprising among the saloon keepers. The papers in the suit will be filed in a few days. The financial backing necessary to prosecute the case will be furnished by the retail liquor dealers' league.

CHARGED WITH ARSON

An Alliance Woman Under Arrest For Setting Fire to Her Home.

Alliance, May 23.—Mrs. Jeff Callahan was arrested here yesterday afternoon on an affidavit filed by Deputy Fire Marshal Hart, of Akron, charging her with arson.

Fire was discovered in Mrs. Callahan's house Tuesday night Suspicious circumstances connected with the fire led to the belief that she had attempted to destroy her home in order to get insurance money.

Before a charge was filed aganst the woman she started away from the city on foot, in company with her little boy. Chief of Police Howell overtook her yesterday afternoon and brought her back to the city. She denies the charge against her and will have a preliminary hearing today before the mayor.

Mrs. Callahan's maiden name was Ware. She has a number of relatives living at Patmos, near Salem, and also a sister in Salem.

ARMORED CANOES USED ON PHILIPPINE RIVERS.

Large ships are of little use among the innumerable islands of the Philippines, and the authorities have had constructed a number of armored canoes which carry rapid firing guns and are very formidable in a fight. They are sent up small rivers and into shallow bays and are proving of great value in police work and guerilla warfare. Since the rebellion began in the Philippines, many boats full of American soldiers and sailors have been ambushed while passing up rivers or through narrow straits between the various islands that lie near together. Since the armored canoes were constructed, however, the number of these ambushes has greatly decreased and the canoes are really of more practical value than big ships like the battleships, armored cruisers and gunboats. The quick firing guns are protected by metal shields.

DESERTING FORT DE FRANCE.

Those That Have Not Left Are Anxious to Go—Morne Rouge Evacuated.

Fort De France, May 23.—The recent rains of ashes and volcano rocks weighing as much as 75 grammes which have fallen here caused so much consternation among the inhabitants of Fort de France that those who have not left the city are anxious to do so, and large numbers are emigrating to the island of Guadeloupe, where, it is estimated here, 1,200 people from Martinique have already sought shelter.

During her last exploring trip about the island, the French cruiser Suchet, which did not stop at St. Pierre, noticed that all the formerly cultivated land between Grande Reviere and Marigot has been completely destroyed. The inhabitants of those two towns have suffered and are still suffering a great deal, but they have not yet determined to abandon those localities, and efforts are being made to supply them with provisions.

The Suchet also reported that as she approached that part of the island where the land was in a better state of preservation, especially between Macouba and Lorraine, a shower of stones and sulphur caused those of the population of Morne Rouge who had remained there to hastily evacuate that place.

The French gunboat Joffroy took on board about 150 of the inhabitants of the neighborhood of Le Carbet.

Returned Missionaries Made Speeches. Dr. Hahn Addressed General Session.

St. Paul, May 23.—The Baptist American Missionary union was addressed yesterday by a number of returned missionaries. The speakers were Dr. Josephine M. Bixby, from China; Mrs. A. A. Bennett, of Yokohama, Japan; Dr. John E. Clough and Mrs. Clough, of India, and Dr. Naomi Garton, of Burmah. Similar addresses occupied much of the general session which followed.

The principal address of the day was by Dr. Benjamin D. Hahn, of Springfield, Mass., on the development of the far east.

A message of love and greeting was ordered sent to Dr. George D. Boardman, former president of the union, who is in very feeble health.

Other speakers were Rev. W. F. Armstrong, missionary at Rangoon, Burmah, and Rev. Joseph Clark, of the Congo mission in Africa.

Ex-Bank Officials Held For Trial.

Detroit, May 23.—Frank C. Andrews and H. R. Andrews, vice president and cashier respectively of the wrecked City Savings bank, and who are charged with the collapse of that institution, were held for trial in the recorder's court on July 2 by Judge Whelan, at the close of the police court examination yesterday, and last night at a special session of the police court they were admitted to bail in the sum of $30,000 each.

AUTHOR AND SOLDIER.

Descendant of "Old Put" Writes Novel, With Scene Laid In Philippines.

Mr. Israel Putnam, the author of "Daniel Everton, Volunteer-Regular," is a resident of Saratoga Springs, N. Y. He is a great-grandson of Gideon Putnam, who founded that village, and a collateral kinsman of the famous Revolutionary general whose name he bears. He is a son of the late Justice John R. Putnam of the New York supreme court.

Mr. Putnam has spent many years in travel and is familiar with the far east. At the outbreak of hostilities in the Philippines, two years ago, he found himself in Manila and was a witness of the events which took place in and about that city at the time when it was held virtually in a state of siege by the Filipinos. Later on, when the aggressive operations on the part of our forces were begun, he accompanied several of the expeditions into the interior. At this time he was commissioned a second lieutenant and assigned to the Fourteenth infantry.

After serving with that regiment south of Manila for about two months Mr. Putnam was transferred to the Sixth infantry and went to the island of Negros, where he remained for over a year. It was during his service on this island that he gathered the material for "Daniel Everton." His duties brought him into contact with the opulent sugar planters as well as with the Filipinos, and the types of native character which he has presented in his novel have at this time a strong claim upon national interest.

On his return to the United States, eighteen months ago, Mr. Putnam resigned from the army, but he did not relinquish his keen interest in the Filipino race. He is giving evidence of this by returning to the islands as editor in chief of the Manila Cablenews, a daily paper about to be established there by the Manila Publishing company.

Physical Formation of Mexico.

Mexico possesses a curious physical formation. Rising rapidly by a succession of terraces from the low, sandy coasts on the east and west, it culminates in a central plateau, running in a northwesterly and southeasterly direction and having an elevation varying from 4,000 to 8,000 feet above the sea. High above this plateau tower the snow capped crests of several volcanoes, most of which are extinct. Ten of them are over 12,000 feet in height, and three look down upon fertile valleys from altitudes of 17,782, 17,356 and 16,060. These are Popocatapetl, Orizaba and Ixtaccihuatl.

The Voice of Experience.

Young Father—I've just made a big deposit in a savings bank in trust for my baby boy. When he is twenty-one, I will hand him the bankbook, tell him the amount of the original deposit and let him see how things count up at compound interest.

Old Gentleman—Won't pay. I tried that. My boy drew the money and got married with it, and now I've got to support him and his wife and eight children.

Ptolemy's Nuptial Yacht.

Ptolemy Philopater possessed a nuptial yacht, the Thalamegon, 312 feet long and 45 feet deep. A graceful gallery supported by curiously carved columns ran round the vessel, and within were temples of Venus and of Bacchus. Her masts were 100 feet high, and her sails and cordage of royal purple hue.

Had a Chance.

Mother—Do you think that young man has saved anything?

Daughter—Undoubtedly, ma. He says he has never loved before.

The Best Liniment

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlan's Pain Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Hagelgans, of Tuckahoe, N. J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I have ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist.

Beyond Belief.

When Abhaham Lincoln was a young man, his prodigious strength and his skill in wrestling were matters of note throughout central Illinois. Few indeed were the men who could boast of having laid him on his back.

Somewhere along in the thirties there was a case on trial in one of the circuit courts in that section in which an effort was made to impeach the testimony of one of the witnesses. The evidence was conflicting. Some would believe the witness on oath and others would not.

At last a middle aged man with a determined expression of countenance was called to the stand. The usual question was put touching the reputation of the witness for truth and veracity:

"Would you believe him on oath?"

"No, I wouldn't," he answered, and before the lawyer on the opposite side could interpose he gave his reason:

"I heerd him braggin' onct that he'd throwed Abe Lincoln in a fair an' square rassle."

No other witnesses were called. The attempt to impeach was successful.—Youth's Companion.

An Incident That Supplies Considerable Food For Thought.

These ought ye to do and not to leave the others undone.

A pale young man sat down on a bench in the park. He put a torn bag of tools under the bench.

A small, red faced man came behind him. He stooped to steal the bag.

The pale man turned and said in a slow, tired way: "Drop that. It ain't worth stealing."

The ruddy man said, "Not if you're lookin'."

The pale man set the bag at his feet and said:

"It's a poor business you're in."

"You don't look as if yours was any better." He sat down. "What's your callin'?"

"I'm an ironworker; bridge work."

"Don't look strong enough."

"That's so. I'm just out of the hospital; got hurt three months ago."

"I'm just out of hospital, too," he grinned.

"Sing Sing."

"What? Jail?"

"Yes; not bad in winter, either. There's a society helps a fellow after you quit that hospital. Gives you good clothes too."

"Clothes? Is that so?"

"Gets you work"—

"Work—good God! I wish they'd get me some."

"You ain't bad enough. Go and grab somethin'. Get a short sentence; first crime. Come out and get looked after by nice ladies."

"My God!"

"Didn't they do nothin' for you when you got out of that hospital?"

"No! Why the devil should they? I'm only an honest mechanic. Are you goin'?"

"Yes. I've got to go after that job. It'll give me time to look about me. Gosh, but you look bad! Goodby."

The ruddy man rose, looked back, jingled the few coins in his pocket, hesitated and walked away whistling.

Home Sweet Home!

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
Be it ever so humble there's no place like home;
A charm from the skies seems to hallow us there
Which seek through the world is ne'er met with elsewhere.

An exile from home, pleasure dazzles in vain,
Ah, give me my lowly thatched cottage again,
The birds singing sweetly that came to my call,
Give me them and that peace of mind, dearer than all.

THE poet when he wrote these immortal verses touched a note that finds an echo in every Anglo-Saxon breast. How we love the sentiment expressed! Perhaps your home has been so varied by many movings that these lines don't find their responsive chord? Is it wise to live in a house that is not your own, putting up with all the inconveniences of a tenant house, the ups and downs with the landlord and a thousand vexations that arise when almost by the reaching out of your hand a home comes within your reach? Through us is offered to you your choice of more than in the city, at all prices, in all locations and at all kinds of terms of purchase. Whether you have much money or little, we would like to have you see what we can do for you toward your owning a home. We are not entirely mercenary in this plea for your consideration. Profit we must have, yet we hope that your profit will be the greater. Hundreds of satisfied purchasers throughout the city will tell you of us. HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Children's Party—Sarah, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, of the West End, has issued invitations to a number of her youthful friends for a party on Tuesday next from 2 to 5 p. m.

Challenge Issued—The clothing and shoe salesmen's base ball team is endeavoring to arrange for a game with the shirt waist salesmen's team. A challenge has been issued and the players are eager for the fray.

Wedding Tomorrow—The announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Nannie Delaney and Calvin Smith was made this morning. The wedding will take place tomorrow evening at the home of the bride, No. 132 Greasley street.

Interesting Game Promised — The Crockery City base ball team and the Emeralds will cross bats in West End park tomorrow afternoon. The batteries will be: Crockery City, Davidson and Meredith; Emeralds, Hickey and Gibbons. An interesting game is promised.

Insurance Union Meets—At a meeting of American Insurance Union, chapter 45, which will be held this evening in Fowler hall, 25 new members will be received, and officers for the new year elected. Further arrangements for the Lentz meeting which will be held in this city early next month, will be considered.

Alumni Reception—The East Liverpool Alumni association has invitations out for the reception at Rock Springs park Friday evening, June 6, in honor of the class of 1902.

Pistol Shots Heard—The sound of three pistol shots near the K., T. & K. pottery on Walnut street last night, shortly before midnight, caused considerable excitement for a few minuates, but when it was learned that a resident of the locality was simply using bullets as an exterminator for a gang of dogs, which has been pestering the populace for weeks, the disturber of slumbers was simply asked to form a gatling gun club and keep on.

STICK TO ONE THING.

A Man Who Wishes He Had Lived Up to That Rule.

"The only way for a man on a salary to make a success of life financially and otherwise is to stick to one thing," said a government employee to a reporter. "Twenty years ago I had plenty of energy, a little money and a huge stock of ideas. I determined to become a power in the money market and as a starter dabbled for six months or more in stocks. That experience cost me $4,000. I soon became convinced that I was cut out for a druggist and straightway invested $2,000 in a pharmacy. Cut rates were unknown in those days, and in a short time I was doing well, but one day I read of a prominent lawyer receiving $25,000 as a fee for some case, and instantly I became imbued with the idea that I would make a great lawyer. I neglected my drug business to such an extent that in two years I was $500 to the bad. In the meantime I read law diligently. After a time I graduated as a full fledged disciple of Blackstone and hung out my shingle. Business not coming my way as fast as I thought it should, I opened a small hotel; result, $1,800 in the hole.

"Then I tried my hand at real estate, my legal training helping me greatly, but the same old story will have to be recorded here—failure. By this time my money was nearly all gone. What to do next was the all absorbing question. One day a friend convinced me that big money could be made out of chickens. I invested every cent I had left, $1,200, in hens. At the end of six months I sold out my hennery for $300. Then I got a government job, and here I've been ever since. Shortly after my arrival in this town I purchased a little land in the northwest section. That investment has yielded me a very handsome return, and I am now thoroughly satisfied that the only thing for a man on a salary to do is to either put a little each month in some good savings bank or invest his surplus in land or bricks and mortar. Remember one thing—this is an age of specialists. Stick to one thing, make a success of it, and maybe one of these days some big company will offer you a princely salary for your knowledge. A rolling stone gathers no moss or money."—Washington Star.

THE EAST LIVERPOOL NEWS REVIEW WANT ADS. BRING QUICK RESULTS.

Second Part. Evening News Review. Pages 9 to 12.

19TH YEAR. NO. 122. EAST LIVERPOOL, FRIDAY, MAY 23, 1902. TWO CENTS.

Take the advice that's written in the great Wabash railroad's trade sign —

GRAND FREE EXCURSION SATURDAY, MAY 24.

Send in by earliest mail to our Steubenville, O., or Pittsburg, Pa. office for free return-trip excursion tickets! If you do not live on line of excursion send for excursion train time schedule and see whether you can make connections. Read bottom of ad for dates when special agents will be in your town or your nearest town to distribute free tickets to applicants whose letters arrive too late to be answered.

Remember tickets will be absolutely free, but that we reserve the right to reject applications after the number of tickets for which coaches have been provided are all given out.

If you do not live in Steubenville, Ohio, in the Great Ohio Valley District, where the colossal new plants constituting the La Belle Steel Works and Pope Tinplate Works, and a wonderful wealth of diversified industry is spreading out beyond all anticipated bounds, now's the time to investigate—now before your greatest opportunity to make money flies and what might be your earnings go into other pockets.

But now as to the purpose of this Great Introductory Sale—It was organized to disseminate the advantages of the property to the greatest number of investors in the shortest possible time, with a view to getting building operations started at once and thus meet the mighty cry for homes now going up from the throats of hundreds and hundreds of the 10,000 additional iron workers, tinplate workers, glass workers, clay workers, coal miners, etc., about to invade this field for employment.

As an introductory method lots will be sold in many instances at 20 to 100 per cent. below the prices which will rule at the second sale. No argument that mortal man could put forward will speak as forcefully to the investor as this fact, when considered with the actual progress that he will see here with his own eyes.

THE IMMENSE NEW INDUSTRIES WILL CALL 10,000 MORE WORKMEN TO EMPLOYMENT.

Among the names of the great organizations which are erecting new works and adding buildings and improvements are the La Belle Steel Co., Pope Tinplate Co., Ohio Valley Clay Co., National Steel Co., American Steel Hoop Co., Ohio Foundry Co., Steubenville Pottery Co., Steubenville Wall Paper Co., Riverside Blast Furnace Co., Acme Glass Works, Hartje Bros., Paper Manufacturers, Jefferson Glass Co., Means Foundry and Machine Co., Robinson & Irwin Machine Co., National Marble Co., and many planing mills.

The National Steel Co. will employ about 2,000 men in the billet and rod mills; the Pope Tinplate Works start with 800 men and increase to double this number in the next fourteen months; the La Belle Steel works employ 2,100 men at present at their new open hearth furnaces and at the new tube mills. When completed this industry alone will give employment to 6,000 men.

It is estimated that the army of workmen in Steubenville and vicinity will be increased to 15,000, and that in less than ten years there will be a compact commercial metropolis of more than 50,000 souls, built up solidly with no vacant land intervening.

Lots at the Grand Introductory Sale will go at $50, $75, $100, $125, $150, $175, and $200, on terms of $5 and $10 down and $1.00 per week.

Some on the boulevard and business street will be sold at prices a little higher, but in no instance at figures as high as the advance which must be made thirty days after date of introductory sale.

Ten Per Cent. Discount will be allowed for cash when full amount is paid within sixty days from date of purchase, and in the event of sickness or loss of employment no interest will be charged on deferred payments. Should the death of the purchaser occur, his or her heirs will receive free deed or title to lot without requirement of any further payment if purchaser has paid one-fourth of purchase price.

It might be well to remember that the lots on the boulevard and many of the streets run from 50 x 110 to 55 x 125 and 50 x 150.

Here is another interesting point: Between the hours of 10:30 and noon on day of FREE EXCURSION, ten of the finest lots in the plan will be put up separately at auction to be knocked down to the highest bidders, with the understanding that they will agree to commence the erection of a creditable house on each lot before October 1. None of the lots will be offered at this auction contest for a longer period than five minutes, and not more than one lot will be sold to any one person.

Two extra lots will be given also to the purchaser who completes the building of the first house costing $2,000 on any lot that is purchased on day of the introductory sale. Purchasers who build the second, third, fourth and fifth houses will each be given one lot.

La Belle View Will Have Every Modern City Improvement.

La Belle View is a part of Steubenville, lying in the third and fifth wards on a beautiful tableland just above the Panhandle Passenger depot. It will inherit every up-to-date convenience that belongs to a progressive municipality whose population is now fifteen thousand and growing at the rate of forty-two per cent.

Arrangements have been made to pave a portion of the boulevard and the business street. Other extensive street improvements will follow.

There will be city water, natural gas and electric light.

Increase in Real Estate Values due largely to Tremendous Railroad Constuction and Improved River Navigation.

The dam to be built in the Ohio at Brilliant station will give Steubenville a six foot harbor, and has so encouraged capital to pry into the coal developing possibilities of this locality that thousands of acres of coal land have been bought up and preparations made to erect immense shafts, with railways to carry the outputs of the mines to the river front.

The coal syndicates which have been coming in have discovered that the Steubenville coal is identical in quality with the great gas and coking veins which have made Pittsburg and Connellsville famous.

Two million dollars will be expended by these syndicates during the coming summer in this field, and the number of miners employed will be increased from 175 to 600. An authority on coal development says that in less than two years there will be coal shafts enough located between Wheeling and Toronto to employ not less than two thousand men.

When you stop to realize what an effect this will have in sending up the value of La Belle View property you will be one of the men who will not wait for the free excursion train to take you to Steubenville.

WICKED AND FOOLISH

FUNSTON'S TAKING AGUINALDO

Might Have Prevented His Confirmation, if Methods by Which He Did It Had Been Known—Senate and Galleries Applauded Speech.

Washington, May 23.—A notable contribution to the discussion of the Philippine question was made in the senate yesterday by Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts. His views on the subject are well understood, but his expression of them yesterday was profoundly interesting and even impressive. When the venerable senator began to speak every senator at the capitol was in his seat, and for the two hours and a half his address consumed he was accorded the most careful attention, not only by his colleagues on the floor, but also by the people in the thronged galleries.

Mr. Hoar confined himself closely to his manuscript. He denounced the attitude of the government in the Philippines as one of the most wicked and foolish chapters in American history. He urged that the United States should withdraw from the islands and permit the people there to erect their own government, as had been done in Cuba. He sharply arraigned General Funston for the methods he had pursued in the capture of Aguinaldo, and intimated strongly that had the senate been aware of the facts Funston might not have been confirmed in his recent promotion. He hoped that as the irrevocable step had not been taken by the United States better counsels would yet prevail and that this government would leave the Philippines.

Spontaneous applause swept over the senate and the galleries at the conclusion of the speech. Such a demonstration is unusual on the floor of the senate. So pronounced was it that the presiding officer called the attention of senators to the rule prohibiting any expression of approval or disapproval.

Mr. Teller, of Colorado, delivered a speech in the nature of a history of the legislative proceedings through which the new Cuban republic was erected.

PRESIDENT RECEIVED FRENCH.

Brugere Placed Wreath on Washington's Tomb—Dinner at White House.

Washington, May 23.—Surrounded by the members of his cabinet and by officials high in all branches of the government, President Roosevelt yesterday received as the guests of the nation the distinguished Frenchmen sent by President Loubet to take part in the Rochambeau exercises. The arrival in the city of the brilliantly uniformed French army and navy officers and their escort through Pennsylvania avenue by a troop of United States cavalry gave picturesque interest to the occasion, and to this was added the international significance of an extremely cordial exchange of greetings between the representatives of the two nations. After the president's reception at the White House the French visitors exchanged calls with members of the cabinet and Lieutenant General Miles and Admiral Dewey. Yesterday afternoon they journeyed to Mount Vernon, where General Brugere, of the French army, placed a laurel wreath on the tomb of Washington and Count de Rochambeau planted a tree taken from the battleground of Yorktown.

Entertained at Dinner.

A state dinner was given at the White House last night by President and Miss Roosevelt in honor of the distinguished visitors from France who are in this country in connection with the Rochambeau statue ceremonies. The company invited to meet the visitors was a thoroughly representative one, including the members of the cabinet, senators and representatives in congress, and high officials of the army and navy. Cardinal Gibbons and others were present.

An interesting event of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Roosevelt of a rare collection of sketches and engravings, a gift from the premier of the French cabinet, M. Waldeck-Rousseau. The sketches are by the distinguished Parisian artist, M. Renouard, who is one of the members of the mission now here, and who personally made the presentation last night. The sketches are some 40 in number, showing glimpses of Paris during the exposition.

First Case For Hague Tribunal.

Washington, May 23.—Secretary Hay and Mr. Aspiros, the Mexican ambassador yesterday afternoon signed a convention providing for the arbitration of the famous "Pius claim," based on the application of the Catholic church in California for overdue interest on trust funds in the custody of the Mexican government. The claim involves about $1,000,000 and is the first cause to go before The Hague tribunal in any form.

LOS ANGELES is preparing a glorious welcome for the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which holds its sixth biennial session during the first week of May in that ideal city, called by Paderewski "the paradise of America." Not only have the clubwomen of California been working to make this convention the most brilliant ever held by the federation, but the business men of Los Angeles have decided to hold the annual Fiesta de les Flores, that magnificent spectacular pageant, during the convention week.

HOME OF MRS. ROBERT J. BURDETTE, LOS ANGELES.

So to the allurements of the convention, sufficient in itself to attract the clubwomen, will be added the glamour of Los Angeles in the season of flowers.

The serious part of the programme is in the hands of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, assisted by the four local clubs of Los Angeles. Delegates will be in attendance from all parts of the United States, as well as from Canada, Europe and Australia, so the state and city organizations are on their mettle to give them a reception that shall surpass in open hearted hospitality, variety and novelty of entertainment all previous efforts in this line.

This work is going forward under the direction of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, wife of the humorist, who has shown great capacity for organization and has the situation well in hand. Mrs. Burdette is president of the California federation and is prominently mentioned as president of the General Federation to succeed Mrs. Rebecca Douglas Lowe. Mrs. D. T. S. Denison, the vice president of the general body, is the logical candidate, but may not accept. Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker of Denver is also in the field.

Sunny Crest, Mrs. Burdette's home, is one of the finest in Los Angeles. The Spanish mission architecture is particularly pleasing, to begin with, while the wealth of roses, palm and pepper trees could only appear to such profuse advantage in the land of sunshine. The house occupies an eminence in a fifteen-acre flower garden.

The business session of the convention will extend over eight days, beginning Thursday, May 1. The most important matter to come before the delegates is the color question. There is great diversity of opinion on this subject, but it is hoped to settle it for good and all at the coming session.

The programme presents many features of great interest to woman clubdom. One of the most delightful meetings of the week will be on Thursday evening. This will be an entertainment offered by the Los Angeles clubwomen in special compliment to the biennial visitors. It will be an interpretation of the Wagner festivals of Baireuth, illustrated with stereopticon and musical accompaniment, Mrs. C. W. Rhodes of Chicago being the lecturer of the evening. At the educational session President Jordan of Stanford university, Mrs. E. C. Sabin of Downer college, Milwaukee; Mrs. Ella Hoes Neville of Wisconsin, and Miss M. C. Craft of San Francisco will be the speakers.

Much interest is anticipated in the presentation of a plan for a central reciprocity plan for the General Federation, which will be offered by Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis, president of the Missouri State federation. Mrs. Moore, who has served with distinction on the national board and who is a college woman as well as a clubwoman of trained experience and proved ability, will undoubtedly present a practical and well worked out outline for this project. It is intended to make this bureau a reliable source of suggestion for all phases of club work.

Among the various other subjects one that will especially appeal to the convention is the address on "Clubhouses" to be delivered by Mrs. James D. Whitmore of Denver. Mrs. Whitmore's skill as an orator and her experience in club life insure entertainment as well as instruction.

The festivities being prepared by the citizens of Los Angeles are extensive and unique. To begin with, the city will be brilliantly illuminated and gorgeously decorated. "Unity In Diversity," the General Federation's motto, will be repeated in electric lights throughout the business streets.

The abundance of flowers in southern California makes possible a lavish display. The buildings that front on the retail streets of the city will be fairly covered with blossoms and green shrubs. The broad spreading leaves of the fan palm and the graceful, drooping leaves of the date palm, as well as much other semitropical vegetation will cover every ugly telegraph pole or other object that would detract from the festive spectacle.

Most of the figures will be emblematic of the General Federation, but there will also be the regulation colors of La Fiesta. These colors consist of red, emblematic of wine; orange, of fruit, and green, the olive. The gaudy effect that is produced by these colors is peculiarly Spanish, and it is this as much as anything else that characterizes La Fiesta.

La Fiesta will open with a grotesque parade of Elks of southern California. Until the men have marched down the streets on the opening day no one not in authority will know of what the foolishness will consist. These matters, as well as many other arrangements for the fiesta, are always kept profoundly secret. Like the Mardi Gras in New Orleans, La Fiesta in Los Angeles has acquired many customs that could not well be broken.

On the second day will be held the floral parade. This will consist of gorgeously decorated carriages and turnouts. It is the floral parade that is the unique feature of La Fiesta and the part that Los Angelans claim cannot be reproduced elsewhere in America. The vehicles, ranging in size and shape from the dogcart to the tallyho and the automobile, will be so buried in blossoms and green leaves as to cover any suggestion of wood or iron work.

In conformity with the custom that always obtains in La Fiesta, the name of the queen will be kept secret until the day of the parade. Great care is always taken in selecting the queen, who is always one of the most prominent society women of the city. Another society woman will be chosen as grand marshal of the floral parade.

There will be a company of richly dressed caballeros, mounted on spirited horses, covered with bejeweled caparisons. Gold and silver bridles and saddles, mounted with lavish displays of the precious metals, will mark their appearance. As they ride through the streets they will give exhibitions of Mexican vaquero riding.

A WINNING TRICK.

He Lost All His Bets and Made Money by Doing So.

The captain of one rather old and slow steamer of years ago, finding that he would have to be a long time in China before he received a full cargo of tea and would have probably to return in ballast, began, to every one's astonishment, to say that, owing to the repairs that had been done to his engines, he hoped to make a racing passage back to England. Then, still more to the astonishment of the captains of the fast steamers and the world at large, he commenced to back himself to make the fastest passage home.

In such very considerable sums of money did he wager that people began to think there was something in it, and the merchants sent their tea almost entirely to his ship, arguing that as the captain stood to lose £500 the repairs to his steamer's engines had probably put him in a position to bet almost on a certainty.

Of course the steamer, whose greatest speed was eight knots an hour, arrived in England weeks after the others, and the captain lost £250, but instead of having to lie in China waiting his chance of cargo coming in from the interior, a probable delay of weeks, he had cleared in a few days after his bets became known to the public with a full ship, thus recouping to his owners, who of course paid his betting losses, a considerable number of thousands of pounds profit.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Cheese.

Cheese may generally be classified as hard and soft, and the different varieties are obtained by varying the proportions of cream. When made of cream alone and at a low temperature with little pressure, we have the soft or cream cheeses. These must be used while comparatively fresh, as they soon decompose and become rancid.

Presbyterian Assembly Adopted Revision Report, Being Two Dissenting Votes.

SUPPLEMENTARY STATEMENT

Also Adopted—Presbyteries to Vote on Former—Session Closed With Impressive Devotional Service, Temperance Report Made.

New York, May 23.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church yesterday adopted the entire report of the committee on revision of the confession of faith.

The assembly first adopted all the report except the brief supplementary statement with only two dissenting votes.

By a like vote the supplementary statement was then adopted.

On the "supplementary statement" the action of the general assembly is final. It will not in any way affect the creed or become part of the organic law of the church. The other two parts, known as the "declaratory statement" and the "brief statement of the reformed faith," to become part of the law of the church, will have to be acted upon favorably by two-thirds of the entire number of presbyteries in the general assembly.

Prayer Meeting Held.

The business of the day was preceded by a prayer meeting conducted by the Rev. Dr. W. R. Taylor, of Rochester. When Dr. Van Dyke, the moderator, called the assembly to order almost every commissioner was in his seat. The first half hour was devoted to routine matters and then the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Minton, chairman of the committee on revision, opened the discussion on the committee's report.

Dr. Minton asked that the first part of the report be adopted. Dr. Van Dyke said there would be no division in the report. Dr. Minton, who is a member of the committee on creed revision, then said that the report had been adopted unanimously, and that the committee had worked in good faith. No man in the committee, he said, had had his own way and there was ever mutual consideration among the members. He spoke of some of the considerations which had guided the committee in its work. He said that the object of the revision was to remove misapprehension regarding the confession, and several of its unguarded statements, of which the section referring to the pope is one. It reads that the pope "is anti-Christ, a man of sin and a son of perdition."

Dr. Minton said that while the committee might hold that this was true, yet the members believed it had no place in the revised faith. So far as he was concerned, he said, the section rightly applied to a man who usurped the crown right of Jesus Christ. The report of the committee asks for the following as a substitute: "The Lord Jesus Christ is the only head of the church and the claim of any man to be the vicar of Christ and the head of the church is unscriptural, without warrant in fact, and is a usurpation dishonoring the Lord Jesus Christ."

Infants Not Condemned.

Dr. Minton took up the section of the Westminster confession referring to "infant damnation." This section states that infants who do not die in the faith are eternally lost." Dr. Minton in speaking of this section said that "such statements were false and unwarranted." This frank and decided statement brought out a salvo of applause. Dr. Minton then took up various overtures in the old confession, showing certain ambiguities and antagonstic statements.

Dr. James D. Moffat moved that the report be adopted and this was seconded by the Rev. Dr. Duffield; the Rev. Dr. R. G. Kerr, of Bellevue, Neb.; Dr. Robert R. Booth, New York city; Dr. Palmer, of St. Louis, and Elder Jeremiah Baker, of Madison, N. J., all spoke in favor of the motion.

The question was called for and on a yea and nay vote was carried with only two dissenting votes. Dr. Duffield then moved that the adoption be made unanimous, but the motion was not seconded.

Dr. Francis L. Goff, of Hopkinsville, Ky., said that while he had voted against the report for conscientious reasons, he was willing to withhold his vote if thereby a unanimous adoption could be obtained.

Elder Daniel Raden, of Greensville, Tenn., who also opposed the report, gave like reasons for his opposition.

Wept Over Proposed Revision.

The Rev. Fleming G. Railey, of Kissimmee, Fla., opposed revision. "I am against the adoption of the report," he said. "I have never found any difficulty with the old standards. They have lighted the way for me and mine across the river, all the way. I feel that this revision is the entering wedge, and how far it will go no one can tell." Here the speaker broke down and wept.

The question was then put and the resolution ordering the report published was carried with only two dissenting votes.

The motion for adoption of the supplementary statement was made by Dr. Minton and seconded by the Rev. Dr. Howard Duffield, of the Old First Presbyterian church, this city.

"We are face to face with a babel and a pentecost," said Dr. Duffield, "a babel of confession and a pentecost where souls will be won and blessings gained. Which shall it be?

"It would be a great thing if by unanimous vote we could take out from our vocabulary the words 'Liberal' and 'Conservative' and merge them into that glorious name 'Presbyterian.' Let us tell the world that the Presbyterian church is not only the revered guardian of the past, but also the sympathetic interpreter of the present and the heir apparent to the throne of the future. I hope the statement will be unanimously adopted."

Dr. Richard S. Holmes, of Pittsburg, said he represented the conservative element of the church. He said he had only voiced the sentiment of that element when he asked the assembly for the unanimous adoption of the supplementary report.

The entire report was adopted and the session was closed with an impressive devotional service, in which the Rev. Dr. Johnson, of Chcago, and the Rev. Dr. Dickey offered prayer and Dr. R. R. Booth, of this city, pronounced the benediction.

Made Report on Temperance.

At the afternoon session Dr. William Henry Roberts offered a resolution, which was carried, providing for the printing of the "brief statement of the reformed faith" in pamphlet form for the use of the commissioners of the assembly, pastors of the churches and others.

The Rev. Dr. D. Stuart Dodge, as chairman of the standing committee on temperance, then presented the report of that committee.

Dr. Dodge made reference to the adopted creed revision, evoking great applause.

"My fathers and brothers," he said, "we are now on a different plane from which we were 24 hours ago. By the grace of God and our Lord Jesus Christ, who kept us in unanimity and entire harmony this forenoon, there are now no differences among us. We now have a creed, thank God, on which we can stand together henceforth, as a united church without discord, to go forward in the work for the Lord's cause."

The Rev. Dr. T. B. Anderson pleaded for money to support a vigorous temperance propaganda.

The assembly adjourned until today.

C. P. ASSEMBLY ADJOURNED.

Theological Seminary Question Settled—Next Meeting to Be In Nashville, Tenn.

Springfield, Mo., May 23.—The Cumberland Presbyterian general assembly was treated to a parliamentary surprise yesterday morning, when a motion prevailed, 135 to 70, to table the whole home mission board matter, including the majority and minority reports and President Fullerton's substitute for both. The matter is thus left in the same status as previously. The leaders on both sides of the question are much displeased and reconsideration may occur.

The devotional exercises yesterday were in the nature of a memorial service for Mrs. William Kelly, who died recently in China, the first Cumberland Presbyterian missionary to die in service since the war.

The ways and means commttee announced that it could pay only 94 per cent of the commissioners' traveling expenses.

Should Not Hold Membership.

The assembly determined that a minister, being a member of the presbytery, should not hold membership in any particular church.

The clerk was authorized to send greetings to the Northern Presbyterian assembly at New York and to the southern assembly at Jackson, Miss.

Much enthusiasm was aroused at the close of the morning session by the announcement that the theological seminary committee had reached a unanimous understanding on a report.

Early in the afternoon session the theological seminary matter was taken up and a report was adopted, upon which, during the morning, the theological seminary committee had agreed. This report appoints a new committee to settle the matter with the trustees of Cumberland university, the general assembly's right being conserved and every effort made to promote the seminary's interests. A commission was appointed to prepare an exhibit for the St. Louis world's fair.

Numerous standing committees were appointed. Twenty-two delegates were elected to the Pan-Presbyterian council at Liverpool, in July, 1904.

At 9 o'clock last night the seventy-second general assembly adjourned.

The assembly will meet at Nashville, Tenn., in May, 1903.

By the COUNTESS OF WARWICK

EVERY WOMAN SHOULD DO SOME WORK. IF IT IS UNNECESSARY FOR HER TO WORK FOR HERSELF, SHE OUGHT TO DO SOMETHING FOR OTHERS. THEN THERE WOULD BE FEWER HEADACHES AND FEWER HEARTACHES.

THE SUM OF HUMAN HAPPINESS COULD BE ENLARGED BY WOMEN IF THEY WOULD UNDERTAKE IT. GRUMBLING NEVER INCREASES OUR HAPPINESS NOR ADDS TO OUR LENGTH OF LIFE. THE WOMAN WHO THINKS SHE MAKES PEOPLE BETTER BY A PERPETUAL WHINE MISTAKES THE SITUATION.

FIND THE SUNNY SIDE.

Try to Get Out of the Gloom and the Shadows of Life.

Nothing contributes more to the highest success than the formation of the habit of enjoying things. Whatever your calling in life may be, whatever misfortunes or hardships may come to you, make up your mind resolutely that, come what may, you will get the most possible real enjoyment out of every day; that you will increase your capacity for enjoying life by trying to find the sunny side of every experience of the day. Resolutely determine that you will see the humorous side of things. No matter how hard or unyielding your environment may seem to be, there is a sunny side if you can only see it. The mirth provoking faculty, even under trying circumstances, is worth more to a young man or woman starting out in life than a fortune without it. Make up your mind that you will be an optimist; that there shall be nothing of the pessimist about you; that you will carry your own sunshine wherever you go.

There is longevity in the sunny soul that eases our jolts and makes our sides shake with laughter.

There is a wonderful medicinal effect in good cheer. Good news and glad tidings have a magic effect even upon invalids.

We often see a whole store or factory or home transformed by one sunny soul. On the other hand, we have seen them blighted and made dark by a gloomy, morose, fault finding person.—Christian Advocate.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. SCROFULA.

"Scattered consumption" is a good way of describing this disease. It is in fact a real consumption of the little glands under the skin.

Scott's Emulsion cures it. Scott's Emulsion is good for all kinds of consumption but especially good for scrofula.

It heals the sores—but doesn't stop there for the weakness and loss of flesh is the worst part of scrofula.

Scott's Emulsion feeds and strengthens scrofulous children.

MRS. IDA McDONALD,
Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the sallow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

Mrs. Ida McDonald.

"For four years I suffered with torpid liver until my skin looked yellow and dull. I then found my kidneys were affected and had severe pains across my back, and I felt that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Thedford's Black-Draught.
